I prostrate before the lotus-feet of Lord Vighneswara, offspring of Uma, the cause of destruction of sorrow, who is served by Mahābhutas (the five great elements of the universe) etc., who has the face of a tusk and who consumes the essence of Kapittha and Jambu fruits.

1-4. Offering his obeisance to all-knowing Mahārṣi Parāṣāra and with folded hands, Maitreya said: O venerable Mahārṣi, Jyotish, the supreme limb of the Vedas, has three divisions, viz. Horā, Ganita and Samhita. Among the said three divisions Horā, or the general part of Jyotish is still more excellent. I desire to know of its glorious aspects from you. Be pleased to tell me, how this Universe is created? How does it end? What is the relationship of the animals, born on this earth, with the heavenly bodies? Please speak elaborately

5-8. Mahārṣi Parāṣāra answered. O Brahmin, your query has an auspicious purpose in it for the welfare of the Universe. Praying Lord Brahma and Čré Sarasvatē, his power (and consort) and Ĝūrya, the leader of the Grahas and the cause of Creation, I shall proceed to narrate to you the science of Jyotish, as heard through Lord Brahma. Only good will follow the teaching of this Vedic Science to the students, who are peacefully disposed, who honour the preceptors (and elders), who speak only truth and are god-fearing. Woeful forever, doubtlessly, will it be to impart knowledge of this science to an unwilling student, to a heterodox and to a crafty person.

9-12. Čré Viñēu, who is the Lord (of all matters), who has undefiled spirit, who is endowed with the three Gunas, although he transcends the grip of Gunas (Gunasatita), who is the Author of this Universe, who is glorious, who is the Cause and who is endowed with valour, has no beginning. He authored the Universe and administers it with a quarter of his power. The other three quarters of Him, filled with nectar, are knowable only to the philosophers (of maturity). The Principal Evolver, who is both perceptible and imperceptible in Vasudeva. The Imperceptible part of the Lord is endowed with dual powers, while the Perceptible with triple powers.

13-15. The three powers are Čré Shakti (Mother Lakshmi) with Sattva-Gun, Bhū Shakti (Mother-Earth) with Rajo-Gun and Nēl Shakti with Tamo-Gun. A part from the three, the fourth kind of Vishnu, influenced by Čré Shakti and Bhoo Shakti, assumes the form of Shankarshan with Tamo-Gun, of Pradyumna with Rajo-Gun and of A nirudh with Sattva-Gun.

16-17. Mahatatwa, Ahamkar and Ahamkar Murti and Brahma, are born from Shankarshan, Pradyumna and A nirudh, respectively. All these three forms are endowed with all the three Gunas, with predominance of the Gun due to their origin.

18-19. A hamkar is of three classes, i.e. with Sattvic, Rajaśic and Tamaśic dispositions. Divine class, sensory organs and the five primordial compounds (space, air, fire, water and earth) are, respectively, from the said three A hamkaras.

20. Lord Viñēu, coupled with Čré Shakti, rules over the three worlds. Coupled with Bhoo Shakti, He is Brahma causing the Universe. Coupled with Neel Shakti, He is Shiva, destroying the Universe.

21-24. The Lord is in all beings and the entire Universe is in Him. All beings contain both Jivatma and Paramatmā. Some have predominance of the former, while yet some have the latter in predominance. Paramatmā is predominant in the Grahas, viz. Ěrya etc. and Brahma, Shiva and others. Their powers, or consorts too have predominance of Paramatmā. Others have more of Jivatmā.

Ch. 2. Great Incarnations

1. Maitreya: O Mahārṣi Parāṣar, are the incarnations of Viṣṇu, viz. Čré Ram, Čré Kṛṣṇa etc., endowed with Jīvā?
2. Maharishi Parashar: O Brahmin, the four incarnations, viz. Ram, Kṛṣṇa, Narasimha and Vāraha are wholly with Paramatmā. The other incarnations (than these, out of the ten) have in them Jīvā too.
3-4. The unborn Lord has many incarnations. He has incarnated, as the 9 (Nava) Grahas to bestow on the living beings the results due to their Karmas. He is Jān ardhan. He assumed the auspicious form of Grahas to destroy the demons (evil forces) and sustain the divine beings.
5-7. From Sūrya the incarnation of Ram, from Candra that of Kṛṣṇa, from Māṅgala that of Naraśimha, from Būdh that of Buddha, from Guru that of Vaman, from Quk that of Parashuram, from Čani that of Kurma (Tortoise), from Rahu that of Vāraha (Pig) and from Ketu that of Meen (Fish) occurred. All other incarnations than these also are through the Grahas. The beings with more Paramatmā are called divine beings.
8-13. The beings with more Jivatma are (mortal) beings. The high degree of Paramatmā from the Grahas, viz. Sūrya etc. did incarnate, as Ram, Kṛṣṇa etc. After completing the mission, the Paramatmā of the respective Grahas again merge (in the respective) Grahas. The Jīvata portions from the Grahas take births, as human beings and live their lives according to their Karmas and again merge in the Grahas. And at the time of Great Destruction the Grahas as well merge in Lord Viṣṇu. The one, who knows of all these, will become versed in the knowledge of the past, present and future. Without a knowledge of Jyotish these cannot be known. Hence, everyone should have a knowledge of Jyotish, particularly the Brahmin. The one, who, devoid of knowledge of Jyotish, blames this Vedic Science will go to the hell called Raurava and will be reborn blind.

Ch. 3. Graha Characters and Description

1. Maitreya: O Mahārṣi, you have affectionately explained about the incarnations of Grahas. Now kindly detail their characters and dispositions.
2-3. Parasara: O Brahmin, listen to the account of placement of the heavenly bodies. Out of the many luminous bodies sighted in the skies some are stars, yet some are Grahas. Those, that have no movements, are the Nakshatras (asterisms).
4-6. Those are called Grahas, that move through the Nakshatras (or stellar mansions) in the zodiac. The said zodiac comprises of 27 Nakshatras commencing from Aṣhwini. The same area is divided in 12 parts equal to 12 Rācīs commencing from Mesh. The names of the Grahas commence from Sūrya. The Rācī rising is known, as Lagn. Based on Lagn and the Grahas, joining and departing from each other, the natives good and bad effects are deducted.
8. Lagn is a very important point in the horoscope. It is the Rācī, that rises in the East, on the latitude of birth. The apparent rising of a Rācī is due to the rotation of the earth on its own axis at a rate of motion, causing every degree of the zodiac seemingly ascend on the eastern horizon. Approximately, two hours are required for a Rācī to pass via the horizon, thereby every degree taking four minutes to ascend. This duration, however, is actually dependent on the concerned latitude.
Actually Sūrya has no motion. His motion is an apparent one, as viewed from the rotating earth. Other Grahas, including the nodes, have varied rates of motion. The average daily motions of the Grahas, which are not, however, standard, are, as follows: Sūrya 1, Candr 13-15, Maigal 30-45, Budh 65-100, Çukr 62-82, Guru 5-15, Çani 2, Rahu/Ketu 3.

With such different motions, a Grah forms various Drishtis with others. These Drishtis through longitudinal distances have a great deal of utility in Jyotish. This is what Maharishi Parashar suggests to be considered.

7. Details (of astronomical nature) of stars have to be understood by general rules, while I narrate to you about the effects of Grahas and Rācīs.

8-9. The positions of the Grahas for a given time be taken, as per Drikganit. And with the help of Rācī durations, applicable to the respective places, Lagn at birth should be known. Now, I tell you about the castes, descriptions and dispositions of the Grahas.

10. Names of Grahas. The names of the nine Grahas, respectively, are Sūrya, Candr, 0 DQ gal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, Çani, Rahu and Ketu.

11. Benefics and Malefics. Among these, Sūrya, Çani, Maigal, decreasing Candr, Rahu and Ketu (the ascending and the descending nodes of Candr) are malefics, while the rest are benefics. Budh, however, is a malefic, if he joins a malefic.

12-13. Grah governances. Sūrya is the soul of all. Candr is the mind. Maigal is one's strength. Budh is speech-giver, while Guru confers knowledge and happiness. Çukr governs semen (potency), while Çani denotes grief.

14-15. Grah cabinet. Of royal status are Sūrya and Candr, while Maigal is the Army chief. Prince-apparent is Budh. The ministerial Grahas are Guru and Çukr, Çani is a servant. Rahu and Ketu form the Grah Army.

16-17. Complexions of Grahas. Sūrya is blood-red. Candr is tawny. Maigal, who is not very tall is blood-red, while Budh's hue is akin to that of green grass. Tawny, variegated and dark are Guru, Çukr and Çani in their order.

18. Deities of Grahas. Fire (Agni) (?), Water (Varuna), Subrahmanya (Lord Shivas son, following Ganesh), Maha Vishnu, Indra, Shachi Devi (the consort of Lord Indra) and Brahma (?) are the presiding deities of the 7 Grahas in their order.

19. Gender of the Grahas. Budh and Sāri are male-genders, while Sūrya, Maigal and Guru are males.

20. Primordial compounds. The Panchabhutas, space, air, fire, water and earth, are, respectively, governed by Guru, Çani, Maigal, Çukr and Budh.

21. Castes of Grahas. Guru and Çukr are Brahmins. Sūrya is a royal Grah, while Candr and Budh belong to commercial community. Çani rules the Sudras (4th caste).

22. Sattvic Grahas are the luminaries and Guru, Çukr and Budh are Rajasik, while Maigal and Çani are Tamasic.

23. Description of Sūrya. Sūrya's eyes are honey-coloured. He has a square body. He is of clean habits, bilious, intelligent and has limited hair (on his head).

24. Description of Candr. Candr is very windy and phlegmatic. She is learned and has a round body. She has auspicious looks and sweet speech, is fickle-minded and very lustful.

25. Description of Maigal. Maigal has blood-red eyes, is fickle-minded, liberal, bilious, given to anger and has thin waist and thin physique.
26. Description of Budh. Budh is endowed with an attractive physique and the capacity to use words with many meanings. He is fond of jokes. He has a mix of all the three humours.

27. Description of Guru. Guru has a big body, tawny hair and tawny eyes, is phlegmatic, intelligent and learned in Shastras.

28. Description of Çukr. Çukr is charming, has a splendidous physique, is excellent, or great in disposition, has charming eyes, is a poet, is phlegmatic and windy and has curly hair.

29. Description of Çani. Çani has an emaciated and long physique, has tawny eyes, is windy in temperament, has big teeth, is indolent and lame and has coarse hair.

30. Description of Rahu and Ketu. Rahu has smoky appearance with a blue mix physique. He resides in forests and is horrible. He is windy in temperament and is intelligent. Ketu is akin to Rahu.

31. Primary ingredients (or Sapth Dhatus). Bones, blood, marrow, skin, fat, semen and muscles are, respectively, denoted by the Grahas: Sürya, Candr, M āīgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Çani.

32. Abodes of the Grahas. Temple, watery place, place of fire, sport-ground, treasure-house, bedroom and filthy ground: these are, respectively, the abodes for the seven Grahas from Sürya onward.

33. Grah periods. Ayan, Muhurta, a day (consisting day and night), Ritu, month, fortnight and year: these are the periods allotted to the Grahas from Sürya to Çani.

34. Tastes of the Grahas. Pungent, saline, bitter, mixed, sweet, acidulous and astringent are, respectively, tastes lorded by Sürya, Candr, M āīgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Çani.

35-38. Strengths of Grahas. Strong in the East are Budh and Guru. Sürya and M āīgal are so in the South, while Çani is the only Grah, that derives strength in the West. Candr and Çukr are endowed with vigour, when in the North. A gain, strong during night are Candr, M āīgal and Çani, while Budh is strong during day and night. The rest (i.e. Guru, Sürya and Sukr) are strong only in daytime. During the dark half malefics are strong. Benefics acquire strength in the bright half of the month. Malefics and benefics are, respectively, strong in Dakshinayan and Uttarayan. The Lords of the year, month, day and Hora (hour of Grah) are stronger than the other in ascending order. A gain, stronger than the other in the ascending are Sani, M āīgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Sürya.

39-40. Related to trees. Sürya rules strong trees (i.e. trees with stout trunks), Çani useless trees, Candr milky trees (and rubber yielding plants), M āīgal bitter ones (like lemon plants), Çukr floral plants, Guru fruitful ones and Budh fruitless ones.

41-44. Other matters. Rahu rules the outcaste, while Ketu governs mixed caste. Çani and the nodes indicate ant-hills. Rahu denotes multi-coloured clothes and Ketu rags. Lead and blue gem belong to Rahu and Ketu. Sürya, Candr, M āīgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Çani in their order govern red silken, white silken, red, black silken, saffron, silken and multi-coloured robe.

45-46. Seasons of Grahas. Vasanta, Greeshma, Varsh, Sarad, Hemanta and Sisir are the six Ritus (or seasons), respectively, governed by Çukr, M āīgal, Candr, Budh, Guru and Çani. Rahu and Ketu denote 8 months and 3 months, respectively.

47. Dhatu, Mool and Jiva Divisions. Dhatu Grahas are Rahu, M āīgal, Çani and Candr. Budh and Guru rule Jivas. Sürya and Çukr are Mula Grahas.

48. Age. Out of all the Grahas Çani is the eldest. He bestows maximum number of years in Naisargik Dasha.

49-50. Exaltation and Debilitation. For the seven Grahas, from Sürya on, the exaltation Rācīs are, respectively, Mesh, Vrishabh, Makar, Kanya, Kark, Meen and Tula. The deepest exaltation degrees are, respectively, 10, 3, 28, 15, 5, 27 and 20 in those Rācīs. A nd in the seventh Rācī from the said exaltation Rācī each Grah has its own debilitation. The same degrees of deep exaltation apply to deep fall.
the next 5 degrees Mooltrikon and the last 10 degrees are own Bhava. The first one third of Dhanu is the Mooltrikon of Guru, while the remaining part thereof is his own Bhava. Çukr divides Tula into two halves keeping the first, as Mooltrikon and the second, as own Bhava. Çanis arrangements are same in Kumbh, as Surya has in Simha.

55. Natural Relationships. Note the Rācīs, which are the $2^{nd}$, $4^{th}$, $5^{th}$, $8^{th}$, $9^{th}$ and $12^{th}$ from the Mooltrikon of a Graha. The Grahas ruling such Rācīs are its friends, apart from the Lord of its exaltation Rācī. Lords other than these are its enemies. If a Graha becomes its friend as well, as its enemy (on account of the said two computations), then it is neutral, or equal.

56. Temporary Relationships. The Graha, posited in the $2^{nd}$, $3^{rd}$, $4^{th}$, $10^{th}$, $11^{th}$, or the $12^{th}$ from another, becomes a mutual friend. There is enmity otherwise. (This applies to a given Janm Kundali)

57-58. Compound Relationship. Should two Grahas be naturally and temporarily friendly, they become extremely friendly. Friendship on one count and neutrality on another count make them friendly. Enmity on one count combined with affinity on the other turns into equality. Enmity and neutralship cause only enmity. Should there be enmity in both manners, extreme enmity is obtained. The Jyotishi should consider these and declare horoscopic effects accordingly.

59-60. Ratio of Effects. A Graha in exaltation gives fully good effects, while in Mooltrikon it is bereft of its auspicious effects by one fourth. It is half beneficial in its own Bhava. Its beneficence is one fourth in a friendly Rācī. In an equals Rācī one eighth of auspicious disposition is useful. The good effects are nil in debilitation, or enemies camp. Inauspicious effects are quite reverse with reference to what is stated.

61-64. Non-luminous UpaGrahas (Sub-Grahas). Add 4 Rācīs 13 degrees and 20 minutes of arc to Surya's longitude at a given moment to get the exact position of the all inauspicious Dhoom. Deduct Dhoom from 12 Rācīs to arrive at Vyatipat. Vyatipat is also inauspicious. Add six Rācīs to Vyatipat to know the position of Parivesh. He is extremely inauspicious. Deduct Parivesh from 12 Rācīs to arrive at the position of Chap (Indra Dhanus), who is also inauspicious. Add 16 degrees 40 minutes to Chap, which will give Ketu (UpaKetu), who is a malefic. By adding a Rācī to UpaKetu, you get the original longitude of Surya. These are the Grahas, devoid of splendour, which are malefics by nature and cause affliction.

65. Effects of Sub-Grahas. If one of these afflicts Surya, the natives dynasty will decline, while Chandr and Lagn, respectively, associated with one of these, will destroy the longevity and wisdom. So declared Lord Brahma, the Lotus-Born.

66-69. Calculations of Gulik etc. The portions of Surya etc. up to Çani denote the periods of Gulik and others. Divide the day duration (of any week day) into eight equal parts. The eighth portion is Lord-less. The seven portions are distributed to the seven Grahas commencing from the Lord of the week day. Whichever portion is ruled by Çani, will be the portion of Gulik. Similarly make the night duration into eight equal parts and distribute these, commencing from the Lord of the $5^{th}$ (by) week. Here again, the eighth portion is Lord-less, while Çani's portion is Gulik. Suryas portion is Kaaal, Malagais portion is Mrityu, Gurus portion is Yamaghantak and Budhs portion is Ardhaprahar. These durations differently apply to different places (commensurate with variable day and night durations).

70. Gulik's Position. The degree, ascending at the time of start of Gulik's portion (as above), will be the longitude of Gulik at a given place. Based on this longitude only, Guliks effects for a particular nativity be estimated.

71-74. Calculation of Pranapad. Convert the given time into Vighatis and divide the same by 15. The resultant Rācīs, degrees etc. be added to Surya, if he is in a movable Rācī, which will yield Pranapad. If Surya is in a Fixed Rācī, add 240 degrees additionally and, if in a Dual Rācī, add 120 degrees in furtherance to get Pranapad. The birth will be auspicious, if Pranapad falls in the $2^{nd}$, $5^{th}$, $9^{th}$, $4^{th}$, $10^{th}$, or $11^{th}$ from the natal Lagn. In other Bhavas Pranapad indicates an inauspicious birth.

Notes. Ardhaprahar, Yamaghantak, Mrityu, Kaal and Gulik are the 5 Kaal Velas, suggested by Maharishi Parashar. The day duration, according to altitude, is divided into eight equal parts. The eighth portion is unlorded. The first portion is allotted to the weekday Lord. Other portions follow in the order of weekday Lords. We consider 5 portions of Grahas, ignoring that of Candr and Çukr. The portions of Sürya, M aïgal, Budh, Guru and Çani are, respectively, called K aal, M rityu, A rdhaprahar, Y amaghantak and G ulik.

In the case of night the durations, or 1/8 th parts are allotted in a different order. The first portion goes to the G rah, ruling the 5 th weekday Lord, counted from the day in question. The others follow in the usual order. Here again, the 8 th part is Lord-less. The portions of Grahas from K aal to G ulik are the same in nomenclature in the night also.

Keeranuru NataRaja of Jatakalkankaram (Tamil version) gives R äçis of dignities for these UpaGrahas and G ulik etc. (UpaGrah & G ulik etc.: Exaltation, Debilitation, Swakshetra (own R äçi))) D hom: Simh, K umbh, M akar; V yatipat: V rischik, V rischhab, M ithun; Parivesh: M ithun, D hanu, D hanu; Indrachap: D hanu, M ithun, K ark; U paK etu: K umbh, Simh, K ark; G ulik: -, -; K umbh; Y amaghantak: -, -, D hanu; A rdhaprahar: -, -, M ithun; K aal: -, -, M akar; M rityu: -, -, V rischik.

From Sürya to Çani no one is exalted in the above-mentioned exaltation R äçis, nor debilitated in the above-mentioned debilitation R äçis.

Out of the 5 K aal Velas, viz. G ulik etc., four except K aal (related to Sürya) have their own R äçi system in the respective R äçis, ruled by their fathers. G ulik, son of Çani, has K umbh, as his own B hava. G urus son, Y amaghantak, has it in D hanu. A rdhaprahar, Budhs son, is in own R äçi, if in M ithun. M rityu, son of M aïgal, has V rischik, as own B hava. It is not known, why K aal, a son of Sürya shifted to M akar, a R äçi of his brother (Çani), leaving his fathers Simh. Obviously, Çani has given his M ooltrikon to his son G ulik, while he gave M akar (a secondary R äçi) to his brother K aal.

Ch. 4. Zodiacal R äçis Described

1-2. Importance of H ora. The word H ora is derived from Ahoratr after dropping the first and last syllables. Thus H ora (Lagnas) remains in between A horatå (i.e. day and night) and after knowing H ora the good and bad effects of a native be known. CréV iñêu, the Invisible is Time personified. His limbs are the 12 R äçis, commencing from M esh.

3. Names of R äçis. The 12 R äçis of the zodiac in order are M esh, V rischabh, M ithun, K ark, Simh, Kanya, Tula, V rischik, D hanu, M akar, K umbh and M een.

4-4½ . Limbs of Kaal Purush. Kaal Purush (or Time personified) has his limbs, as under with reference to the 12 R äçis, respectively: Head, face, arms, heart, stomach, hip, space below navel, privities, thighs, knees, ankles and feet.

5-5½ . Classification of R äçis. Movable, Fixed and Dual are the names given to the 12 R äçis in order. These are again known, as malefic and benefic, successively. Similarly are male and female. M esh, Simh and D hanu are bilious. V rischabh, K anya and M akar are windy. M ithun, Tula and K umbh are mixed, while the rest are phlegmatic.

6-7. M esh described. The M esh is blood-red in complexion. It has a prominent (big) physique. It is a quadruped R äçi and strong during night. It denotes courage. It resides in the E ast and is related to kings. It wanders in hills and predominates in Rajo-Gun (the second of the three constituent qualities and the cause of great activity in living beings). It rises with its back (a Prishtodaya R äçi) and is fiery. Its ruler is M aïgal.

8. V rischabh described. V rischabhs complexion is white and it is lorded by Çukr. It is long and is a quadruped R äçi. It has strength in night and resides in the South. It represents villages and businessmen. A n earthy R äçi, V rischabh rises with its back.

9-9½ . M ithun described. The R äçi M ithun rises with its head and represents a male and a female, holding a mace and lute. It lives in the West and is an airy R äçi. It is a biped R äçi as well and is strong in nights. It lives in villages and is windy in temperament. It has an even body with a green (grass like) hue. Its ruler is Budh.

10-11. Kark described. The Räçi Kark is pale-red. It resorts to forests and represents Brahmins. It is strong in nights. It has many feet (i.e. it is a centipede Räçi) and has a bulky body. It is Sattvic in disposition (seen in gods) and it is a watery Räçi. It rises with its back and is ruled by Candr.

12. Simh described. Simh is ruled by Sūrya and is Sattvic. It is a quadruped Räçi and a royal Räçi. It resorts to forests and rises with its head. It has a large, white body. It resides in the East and is strong during daytime.

13-14. Kanya described. This Räçi is a hill-resorter and is strong in daytime. It rises with its head and has a medium build. It is a biped Räçi and resides in the South. It has grains and fire in its hands. It belongs to the business community and is variegated. It relates to hurricanes (Prabharanjanī). It is a Virgin and is Tamasic (a disposition of demons). Its ruler is Budh.

15-16 ½ Tula described. Tula is a Seershodaya Räçi, rising with its head; Tula is strong in daytime. It is black in complexion and is predominant with Rajo-Gun. It relates to the western direction and resorts to land. It is destructive, or mischievous (Dhatin). It represents Sudras, or the 4th Varna. It has a medium build physique and is a biped Räçi. Its Lord is Çukr. Vriçchik described. Vriçchik has a slender physique and is a centipede Räçi. It denotes Brahmans and resides in holes. Its direction is North and it is strong in daytime. It is reddish-brown and resorts to water and land. It has a hairy physique and is very sharp (or passionate). Maïgal is its ruler.

17-18½. Dhanu described. The Räçi Dhanu rises with its head and is lorded by Guru. It is a Sattvic Räçi and is tawny in hue. It has strength in night and is fiery. A royal Räçi, Dhanu is biped in first half. Its second half is quadruped. It has an even build and adores an arch. It resides in the East, resorts to land and is splendourous.

19-20. Makar described. Makar is lorded by Çani and has predominance of Tamo-Gun (a disposition, seen in demons). It is an earthy Räçi and represents the southern direction. It is strong in nights and rises with back. It has a large body. Its complexion is variegated and it resorts to both forests and lands. Its first half is quadruped and its second half footless, moving in water.

21-21 ½ Kumbh described. The Räçi Kumbh represents a man holding a pot. Its complexion is deep-brown. It has medium build and is a biped Räçi. It is very strong in daytime. It resorts to deep water and is airy. It rises with its head and is Tamasic. It rules Sudras, the 4th Varna and the West. Its Lord is Çani, Suryas offspring.

22-24. Meen described. Meen resembles a pair of fish, one tailed with the head of the other. This Räçi is strong at night. It is a watery Räçi and is predominant with Sattva-Gun. It denotes resoluteness and is a water-resorter. It is footless and has a medium build. It rules the North and rises with both head and back. It is ruled by Guru. This is how the twelve Räçiś, each of 30 degrees extent, are described to evaluate gross and specific effects.

25-30. Nishek Lagn. O excellent of Brahmins, now is a step explained to arrive at the Nishek Lagn, when the natal Lagn is known. Note the angular distance between Çani and Mandi (Gulik). Add this to the difference between the Lagn Bhava (Madhya, or cusp) and the 9th Bhava (cusp). The resultant product in Räçiś, degrees etc. will represent the months, days etc., that elapsed between Nishek and birth. At birth, if Lagn Lord is in the invisible half (i.e. from Lagn cusp to descendental cusp), add the degrees etc., Candr moved in the particular Räçi, occupied by her, to the above-mentioned product. Then Lagn at Nishek can be worked out and the good and bad, experienced by the native in the womb, can be guessed. One can also guess with the help of Nishek Lagn effects, like longevity, death etc. of the parents.

Ch. 5. Special Lagnas

2-3. Bhava Lagn. From sunrise to the time of birth every 5 Ghatis (or 120 minutes) constitute one Bhava Lagn. Divide the time of birth (in Ghatis, Vighatis etc.) from sunrise by 5 and add the quotient etc. to Suryas longitude, as at sunrise. This is called Bhava Lagn.

4-5. Hora Lagn. A gain from sunrise till the time of birth Hora Lagn repeats itself every 2½ Ghatis (i.e. 60 minutes). Divide the time past up to birth from sunrise by 2½ and add the quotient etc. in Rācīs, degrees and so on to the longitude of Sūrya, as at the sunrise. This will yield Hora Lagn in Rācīs, degrees etc.

6-8. Ghati Lagn (Ghatik Lagn). Now listen to the method of working out Ghati Lagn. This Lagn changes along with every Ghati (24 minutes) from the sunrise. Note birth time in Ghatis and Vighatis. Consider the number of Ghatis past, as number of Rācīs, or Ghati Lagnas. The Vighatis be divided by 2 to arrive at degrees and minutes of arc, past in the said Ghati Lagn. The product so arrived in Rācīs, degrees and minutes be added to Sūryas longitude, as at sunrise, to get the exact location of Ghati Lagn. So say Māharishis, like Narada.

9. Use of Special Lagnas. Keeping the Grahas at birth, as it is, prepare various Bhava Kundalis with respect to each special Lagn and analyze, as done for the natal Lagn.

10-13½. Varnad Dasha. I now detail Varnad Dasha, just by knowing which one can deal with the longevity of a native. If the natal Lagn is an odd Rācī, count directly from Mesh to natal Lagn. If the natal Lagn is an even Rācī, count from Mēen to the natal Lagn in the reverse order. Similarly, if the Hora Lagn is an odd one, count from Mēsh to Hora Lagn in direct order. If the Hora Lagn is an even one, count from Mēen to Hora Lagn in the reverse order. If both the products are odd Rācīs, or even Rācīs, then add both the figures. If one is odd and the other is even, then know the difference between the two products. If the latest product in this process is an odd one, count so many Rācīs from Mēsh in a direct manner; if an even one, count so many Rācīs from Mēen in reverse order. The Rācī so known will be the Varnad for Lagn.

14-15. Effects of Varnad. Now listen to the use of the above. Out of the two, viz. natal Lagn and Hora Lagn, whichever is stronger, from there Varnad starts. If the natal Lagn is an odd Rācī, the counting of Dashas is clockwise, otherwise anticlockwise. Lagn Dasha years will equal the number of Rācīs, intervening between the natal Lagn and Varnad. Similarly for other Bhavas.

16-20. Effects of Varnad (cont.). Should a Kōn from Lagns Varnad be occupied, or drishtied by a malefic, the native will live only up to the Dasha of the said Rācī. Just, as the Rudra Graha in Sool Dasha is capable of causing evils, the above-mentioned Grahas related to Varnads Kōn be treated. The Varnad Lagn be considered, as natal Lagn, while the 7th from Varnad will denote the longevity of the spouse, the 11th longevity of elder brothers and sisters, the 3rd longevity of younger brothers and sisters, the 5th the longevity of sons, the 4th longevity of mother and the 9th longevity of father. The Dasha of the Sool Rācī will inflict greater evils.

21-24. Effects of Varnad (cont.). Similar assessments be made with reference to the Varnad of each Bhava, commencing the first, and the evils and goods due to a nativity be known. These Varnad Dashas are only for Bhavas (Rācīs) and not their occupants. The sub period of each Dasha will be one twelfth of the Dasha and the order will also be clockwise, or anti-clockwise, as explained earlier. The natal Lagn is to be calculated according to birth place, while Bhava Lagn, Hora Lagn etc. are common to all places.

Ch. 6. The Sixteen Divisions of a Rācī
1. Oh Mahárçi Paräçar, I have known from you about the Grahas, Räçis and their descriptions. I desire to know the details of various divisions of a Räçi, will you please narrate.

2-4. Names of the 16 Vargas. Lord Brahma has described 16 kinds of Vargas (Divisions) for each Räçi. Listen to those. The names are Räçi, Horä, Dreshkan, Chaturthäàç, Saptäàç, Naväàç, Dashäìç, Dvadash äìç, Shodashäìç, Vîmshäìç, Chaturvimshäìç, Saptavimshäìç, Trimshäìç, K havedäìç, A kshavedäìç and Shashtiäìç.

5-6. Räçi and Horä. The Räçi, owned by a Grah, is called its Kshetra. The first half of an odd Räçi is the Hora, ruled by Sürya. While the second half is the Hora of Candr. The reverse is true in the case of an even Räçi. Half of a Räçi is called Hora. These are totally 24, counted from Mesh and repeated twice (at the rate of 12) in the whole of the zodiac.

7-8. Dreshkan. One third of a Räçi is called Dreshkan. These are totally 36, counted from Mesh, repeating thrice at the rate of 12 per round. The 1st, 5th and the 9th Räçis from a Räçi are its three Dreshkanas and are, respectively, lorded by Narada, Agasthya and Durvash.

9. Chaturthäìç. The Lords of the 4 Kendras from a Räçi are the rulers of respective Chaturthäìç of a Räçi, commencing from Mesh. Each Chaturthäìç is one fourth of a Räçi. The deities, respectively, are Sanak, Sanand, K umar and Sanatan.

10-11. Saptäìç. The Saptäìç (one seventh of a Räçi) counting commences from the same Räçi in the case of an odd Räçi. It is from the seventh Räçi thereof, while an even Räçi is considered. The names of the seven divisions in odd Räçis are Kshaar Ksheer, Dadhi, Ghrith, Ikshu, Ras, Madhya and Suddh Jal. These designations are reversed for an even Räçi.

12. Naväìç. The Naväìç calculation are for a Movable Räçi from there itself, for a Fixed Räçi from the 9th thereof and for a D ual Räçi from the 9th thereof. They go by designations Deva (divine), Manushya (human) and Rakshasa (devilish) in a successive and repetitive order for a Movable Räçi. (Manushya, Rakshasa and Deva are the order for a Fixed Räçi, while Rakshasa, Manushya and Deva are the order for a Dual Räçi).

13-14. Dashäìç. Starting from the same Räçi for an odd Räçi and from the 9th with reference to an even Räçi, the 10 Dashäìças, each of 3 degrees, are reckoned. These are presided over by the ten rulers of the cardinal directions, viz. Indra, Agni, Y ama, Rakshasa, V aruna, V ayu, K uber, I san, Brahma and A nanth in case of an odd Räçi. It is in the reverse order, that these presiding deities are reckoned, when an even Räçi is given.

15. D vadashäìç. The reckoning of the D vadashäìç (one twelfth of a Räçi, or 2 ½ degrees each) commences from the same Räçi. In each Räçi the presidentships repeat thrice in the order of G anesh, A shvinív K umar, Y ama and Sarpa for the 12 D vadashäìçs.

16. Shodashäìç (or K alìç). Starting from Mesh for a Movable Räçi, from Simh for a Fixed Räçi and from D hanu for a D ual Räçi, the 16 Shodashäìçs (16th part of a Räçi, i.e. of 175230) are regularly distributed. The presiding deities of these repeat in the order Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva and Surya four times in the case of an odd Räçi. It is reverse in the case of an even Räçi, that these ruling deities are understood.

17-21. Vîmshäìç. From Mesh for a Movable Räçi, from D hanu for a Fixed Räçi and from Simh for a Common Räçi; this is how the calculations of Vîmshäìç (1/20 of a Räçi, or 1730 each) are to commence. The presiding deities of the 20 Vîmshäìçs in an odd Räçi are, respectively: K ali, Gauri, Jaya, Lakshmi, Vîjaya, Vimal, Satí, T ara, Jvalamukhi, Sveta, Lalita, Bagalamukhi, Pratyangir, Shachi, Raudri, Bhavani, V arad, Jaya, Tripura and Sumukhi. In an even Räçi these 20 deities, respectively, are Daya, Megha, Chinnasi, Pisachini, Dhumavathi, Matangi, B al, B hadr, A run, A nal, Pingal, Chuchchuk, Ghorá, V aarah, V aishnavi, Sita, B huvanesvari, Bhairavi, M aìgal and A parajit.

22-23. Chaturvimshäìç. The Chaturvimshäìç (1/24th part of a Räçi, or 1715 each) distribution commences from Simh and Kark, respectively, for an odd and an even Räçi. In the case of an odd Räçi the ruling deities repeat twice in the order of Skand, Parusdhar, A nal, Vishwakarma, B hag, M tr, M aya, A ntaka, V risha-D waja, G ovinda, Madan and B hima. Reverse these from B hima twice to know the deities for the Chaturvimshäìç in an even Räçi.

24-26. Saptavimshäìç (Nakshaträìç, or B häìç). The Saptavimshäìç Lords are, respectively, the presiding deities of the 27 Nakshatras, as under: Dastra (A shvinív K umar), Y ama, A gní, Brahma, Candr, I sa, A dhiti, Jíva, A hi, Pitar, B hag, A ryama, Sürya, T vasht, M arut, Chakragni, Mitr, Vasava, Rakshasa, Varuna, Vishwadeva, Govinda, Vasu, Varuna, Aja, A hiruddhnya and Pushya. These are for an odd Räçis. Count these deities in a reverse order for an even Räçi. The Saptavimśāñç distribution commences from Mesh and other Movable Räçis for all the 12 Räçis.

27-28. Trimśāñç. The Trimś āñç Lords for an odd Räçi are Maigal, Čani, Guru, Budh and Čukr. Each of them in order rules 5, 5, 8, 7 and 5 degrees. The deities, ruling over the Trimś āñçs, are, respectively, Agni, Vayu, Indra, Kuber and Varuna. In the case of an even Räçi the quantum of Trimś āñç ç, Graha lordship and deities get reversed.

29-30. Khaveđāñç (or Chatvarimśāñç, 1/40th part of a Räçi). For odd Räçis count from Mesh and for an even Räçi from Tula in respect of Khaved āñçs (each of 45 of arc). Vishnu, Candr, Marichi, Tvash, Dhata, Shiva, Ravi, Yama, Yaksh, Gandharv, Kaal and Varuna repeat successively, as presiding deities, in the same order for all Räçis.

31-32. A khaveđāñç (1/45th part of a Räçi). Mesh, Simh and Dhanu are the Räçis, from which the distributions, respectively, commence for Movable, Immovable and Common Räçis. In Movable Räçis Brahma, Shiva and Vishnu; in Immovable Räçis Shiva, Vishnu and Brahma and in Common Räçis Vishnu, Brahma and Shiva repeat 15 times the presidency over these A khaveđāñçs.

42-53. Varg Classification. Maitreya, explained now are the sum effects of classifications of different divisions (or Vargas, so far narrated). These are four kinds, viz. Shad Varg, Sapth Varg, Dasha Varg and Shodasha Varg. In the Shadvarg classification the Varg designations are K imshuk, Vyanjan, Chamar, Chatr and K undal, according to a Graha being in 2 to 6 combinations of good Vargas. Next is the Sapth Varg, in which these classifications continue in the same manner up to six combinations of good Vargas, the 7th additional Varg getting classified, as Mukut. In the Dasha Varg scheme the designations commence from Parijata etc., such as 2 good Vargas - Parijatha, 3 Uttama, 4 Gopur, 5 Simhasan, 6 Paravata, 7 Devaloka, 8 Brahma, 9 Sakravahana and 10 Vargas - Shridham. In the Shodasha Varg scheme the combinations of Vargas go with designations thus: two good Vargas - Bhedak, 3 K usum, 4 Nagapushpa, 5 Kanduk, 6 Kerala, 7 Kalpa V riksha, 8 Chandan V ana, 9 PurnaCandr, 10 Uchchaisrava, 11 Dhavanantari, 12 Suryakant, 13 V idrum, 14 Chakra-Simhasan, 15 Golok and 16 Vargas - Çré V allabh. In these divisions the designations take the form of the Grahas exaltation Räçi, Mooltrikon Räçi, own Räçi and the Räçis, owned by the Lord of a Kendra from the A rudha Lagn, are all to be considered (as good Vargas). The divisions of a combust Graha, defeated Graha, weak Graha and a Graha in bad A vasthas, like Sayan, be all ignored to be auspicious, for these destroy the good Yogas.

Ch. 7. Divisional Considerations
1-8. Use of the 16 Divisions. Now I will explain the use of these sixteen divisions. The physique from Lagn, wealth from Hora, happiness through co-born from Dreshkan, fortunes from Chaturthāìç, sons and grandparents from Saptāìç, spouse from Navāìç, power (and position) from Dashaìç, parents from Vadashāìç, benefits and adversities through conveyances from Shodashāìç, worship from Vimsāìç, learning from Chaturvimsāìç, strength and weakness from Saptavimsāìç, evil effects from Trimshāìç, auspicious and inauspicious effects from Khavedāìç and all indications from both Akshevāìç and Shastīìç; these are the considerations to be made through the respective Vargas. The Bhava, whose Lord is in a malefic Shashtiāìç, will diminish; so say Garga and others. The Bhava, whose Lord is in a benefic Shodashāìç, flourish. This is how the 16 Vargas are to be evaluated.

9-12. After assessing the 20 point strength of the ascending degree, of other Bhavas and of the Grahas, the good and bad effects be declared. I explain below the method of knowing the Vimsopak strength (20 point strength), just by knowing which an idea of the results of actions of this birth and of former birth will clearly emerge. The Grahas from Sūrya on get full strength, when in exaltation, or in own Rāçi and are bereft of strength, when in the 7th (from exaltation). In between the strength be known by the rule of three process. In the case of a Graha, owning two Rāçi, distinction of placement in odd/even Rāçi identical with own Rāçi be made.

13-16. Hora, Dreshkan and Trimshāìç Effects. Guru, Sūrya and Maigal give (pronounced) effects in the Hora of Sūrya, Candr, Çukr and Çani do so, when in Candrs Horas; Budh is effective in both the Horas. In the case of an even Rāçi the Hora of Candr will be powerful in effects, while Suryas Hora in an odd Rāçi will be so. Full, medium and nil will be the effects, respectively, in the beginning middle and the end of a Hora. Similar applications be made for a Dreshkan, Turyāìç, Navāìç etc. A s for Trimshāìç effects, Sūrya is akin to Maigal and Candr is akin to Çukr. The effects, applicable to Rāçi, will apply to Trimshāìç.

17-19. Vimsopak Bal. The Shad Vargas consist of Rāçi, Hora, Dreshkan, Navāìç, Dvadashāìç and Trimshāìç. The full Bal for each of the divisions, respectively, are 6, 2, 4, 5, 2 and 1. This is the Vimsopak Bal, relating to Shad Varg division. A dding the Saptāìç to the Shad Vargas, we get Sapt Varg, the Vimsopak Bal for which is 5, 2, 3, 2 ½ , 4 ½ , 2 and 1. These are gross strengths, while subtle ones should be understood by exact positions.

20. Add Dashaìç, Shodashāìç and Shashtiāìç to the said Sapt Varg Divisions to get the scheme of Dasha Varg. The Vimsopak Bal in this context is 3 for Rāçi, 5 for Shashtiāìç and for the other 8 divisions 1 ½ each.

21-25. When the 16 divisions (Shodash Varg Scheme) are considered together, the Vimsopak score goes thus: Hora 1, Trimsāìç 1, Dreshkan 1, Shodashāìç 2, Navāìç 3, Rāçi 3 ½ , Shastīìç 4 and the rest of the nine divisions each a half. The Vimsopak Bal remains as 20, only when the Graha is in own Bhava Vargas. Otherwise, the total strength from 20 declines to 18 in Pramudit Vargas, to 15 in Shant Vargas, to 10 in Svashta divisions, to 7 in Dhukhit Vargas and to 5 in Kāhal Vargas. (These figures are called Varg Vishwa)

26-27. Vimsopak Proportional Evaluation. Multiply the figure due to full strength for the division by the Varg Vishwa and divide by 20 to get the exact strength of the Graha. If the total is below 5, the Graha will not be capable of giving auspicious results. If it is above 5, but below 10, the Graha will yield some good effects. Later on up to 15 it is indicative of mediocre effect. A Graha with above 15 will yield wholly favourable effects.

28-29. Other Sources of Strength. Maitreya, there are other kinds of sources, as I explain below. Grahas in the 7th from Sūrya will be fully effective. One with an identical longitude in comparison to Sūrya will destroy the good effects. Rule of three process be applied to the Graha in between these positions.

30-32. Dasha effects with Vimsopak Bal. Maitreya, after assessing the Vimsopak Bal through the various divisions, the rising and setting of the Grahas be considered. The Vimsopak Bal is classified under Purṇa, Atipūrṇa, Madhya, Atimadhya, Ḥeen, Atihēen, Swalpa and AtiSwalp. Thus should be classified the Vimsopak Bal and the Dasha period results declared accordingly.
33-36. Kendras, Konas etc. defined. O Maitreya, listen to other matters, which I am explaining. The Kendras are specially known as Lagn (the ascendant), Bandhu Bhava, Yuvati Bhava (the descendant) and Karm Bhava (mid-heaven). Dhan, Putr, Randhr and Labh Bhava are Panapharas (succedents), while Sahaj, Ari, Dharm and Vyaya Bhava are called A poklimas (cadents). Putr and Dhar Dhar Bhava are known by the name Kon (or trine). Evil Bhavas, or Dusthan Bhavas are Ari, Randhr and Vyaya Bhava. Chaturasras are Bandhu and Randhr Bhava. Sahaj, Ari, Karm and Labh Bhava are Upachaya Bhavas.

37-38. Names of Bhavas. Thanu, Dhan, Sahaj, Bandhu, Putr, Ari, Yuvati, Randhr, Dharm, Karma, Labh and Vyaya are in order the names of Bhavas. I explained these briefly and leave it to you to grasp more, according to your intelligence. As delivered by Lord Brahma, some further information is added thus (i.e. in the following verses).

39-43. Indications from Bhavas. Dharm Bhava and the 9th from Sūrya deal with ones father. Whatever effects are to be known from the Karm and Labh Bhava, be also known from similar Bhavas, counted from Sūrya. Whatever results are to be known from Bandhu, Thanu, Dhan, Labh and Dharm should also be known from the 4th, 5th and 9th from Candr, respectively. Whatever has to be known through Sahaj Bhava, be also analyzed through the 3rd from Maïgal. The 6th from Budh be also considered in regard to indications, derivable from Ari Bhava. The 9th from Guru, the 7th from Çukr and both the 12th and 12th from Çani stand for consideration, respectively, in respect of offspring, spouse and death. The Lord of the Bhava is equally important, when estimating the indications of a particular Bhava.

Ch. 8. Drishtis of the Rasis

1-3. Rāçi Drishtis. O Maitreya, now detailed are the Drishtis, emanating from the Rāçi Mesh etc. Every Movable Rāçi gives Drishti to the 3 Fixed Rācis, leaving the Fixed Rāçi adjacent to it. Every Fixed Rāçi gives Drishti to the 3 Movable Rācis, barring the adjacent Movable Rāçi. And a Common Rāçi gives a Drishti to the other three Common Rācis. The Graha in a Rāçi gives the same Drishti, as the Rāçi (in which the Graha is) does.

4-5. Drishtis of the Grahas. A Graha in a Movable Rāçi gives a Drishti to the other 3 Fixed Rācis, leaving the Fixed Rāçi next to it. A Graha in a Fixed Rāçi does not give a Drishti to the next Movable Rāçi, but the remaining 3 Movable Rācis. The one in a Common Rāçi gives a Drishti to the remaining 3 Common Rācis. Simultaneously a Graha in the Rāçi, that receives a Drishti, is also subjected to the Drishti concerned.

6-9. Diagram of Drishtis. A's depicted by Lord Brahma, I now narrate the diagram of Drishtis, so that Drishtis are easily understood by a mere sight of the diagram. Draw a square, or a circle marking the 8 directions (4 corners and 4 quarters thereof). Mark the zodiacal Rācis, as under:

Mesh and Vrśabh in East, Mithun in the North-East, Kark and Simh in the North, Kanya in the North-West, Tula and Vrischik in the West, Dhanu in the South-West, Makar and Kumbh in the South and Meen in the South-East.

Adition Santhanam till Ch. 9. The Drishtis (as per the earlier Slokas) can be shown in a square diagram, or circular diagram (as per convenience).

Ch. 9. Evils at Birth

1. O Brahmin, first of all estimate the evils and checking factors thereof through Lagn and then declare the effects of the 12 Bhavas.

2. Evils, causing premature end, exist up to the 24th year of ones age. As such, no definite calculation of life span should be made till such year of age.

3-6. Short-life Combinations (up to Sloka 23). Should Candr be in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava and receives a Drishti from a malefic, the child will die soon. If in the process there be a Drishti from a benefic, it may live up to 8. If a benefic is retrograde in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava, receiving a Drishti from a malefic, death will occur within a month of birth. This is true, only when Lagn is not occupied by a benefic. Should Putr Bhava be occupied by Čani, Mai gal and Sūrya jointly, (early) death of mother and brother will come to pass. Mai gal, placed in Tanu, or in Randhr Bhava and be yuti with Sani, or Surya, or receiving a Drishti from a malefic, being bereft of a Drishti from a benefic, will prove a source of (immediate) death.

7-11. If Čani and Mai gal give a Drishti to Lagn, as the luminaries are yuti with Rahu (elsewhere), the child will live a fortnight. Immediate death of the child along with its mother will occur, if Čani is in Karm Bhava, Candr in A rī Bhava and Mai gal in Yuvati Bhava. One will immediately go to the abode of Yama, if anu is in Tαnu Bhava, while Candr and Guru are in their order in Randhr and Sahaj Bhava. Only a month will be the span of ones life, who had Sūrya in D harm Bhava, Mai gal in Yuvati Bhava and Guru and Çukr in Labh Bhava. All Grahas (any Grah) in V yaya Bhava will be the source of a short life, specifically the luminaries, Çukr and Rahu. But the Drishti of these four Grahas (on V yaya Bhava) will counteract such evils.

12. Candr is capable of causing early end, if she is with a malefic in Yuvati, Randhr, or Tanu Bhava and unrelated to a benefic.

13. Early death will come to pass, if there be a birth in the morning, or evening junctions, or in a H ora, ruled by Candr, or in G andanta, while Candr and malefics occupy Kentras from Lagn.

14. Definition of Sandhya. 3 Ghatirs before the sight of the semi disc (half) of the rising Sūrya and a similar duration, following Sūryas set, are called, as morning twilight and evening twilight, respectively.

15. Early Death. Should all the malefics be in the oriental half, while benefics are in the occidental half, early death of one born in Vrischik, will follow. In this case there is no need of any rethinking.

16. Malefic in V yaya and A rī Bhava, or in Randhr and Dhan Bhava, while Lagn is hemmed between other malefics, will bring early death.

17. Malefics, occupying Tanu and Yuvati Bhava, while Candr is yuti with a malefic with no relief from a benefic, will also cause premature death.

18. Early death will be inflicted on the native, if decreasing Candr is in Tanu Bhava, while malefics capture Randhr Bhava and a Kendra. There is no doubt about that.

19. Candr in Tanu, Randhr, V yaya, or Yuvati Bhava and hemmed between malefics will confer premature death.

20. Should Candr be in Tanu Bhava, hemmed between malefics, while Yuvati, or Randhr Bhava has a malefic in it, he will face immediate death along with his mother.

21. Should Čani, Sūrya and Mai gal be in V yaya, D harm and Randhr Bhava without Drishti from a benefic, the child will face instant death.

22. With a malefic in Yuvati Bhava, or in the rising Dreshkan, while decreasing Candr is in Tαnu Bhava, death be experienced early.

23. The life span of the child will be either 2 months, or 6 months only, if all Grahas devoid of strength are relegated to Apoklima Bhavas.

24. Evils to Mother (up to Sloka 33). The mother of the native will incur evils (will die soon), if Candr at birth receives a Drishti from three malefics. Benefics, giving a Drishti to Candr, will bring good to the mother.

25. Should Dhan Bhava be occupied by Rahu, Budh, Çukr, Sūrya and Čani, the child's birth has been after its fathers death, while even the mother will face early death.

26. If Candr is in the 7th, or the 8th from a malefic, be herself with a malefic and receives a Drishti from a strong malefic, predict mothers end to be early.

27. The child will not live on mothers milk, but on that of she-goat, if Sūrya is exalted, or debilitated in Yuvati Bhava.

28. Should a malefic be in the 4th, identical with an inimical Rāği, counted from Candr, while there is no benefic in a Kendra, the child will lose its mother in a premature manner.

29. Malefics in A rī and V yaya Bhava will bring evils to mother. The child's father will receive similar effects, if Bandhu and Karm Bhava are captured by malefics.

30. Budh in Dhan Bhava, while malefics occupy Tanu and V yaya Bhava: this Y oga will destroy the entire family.
31. Guru, Çani and Rahu, respectively, posited in Tanu, Dhan and Sahaj Bhava will cause mothers death early.
32. Doubtlessly the mother will give up the child, if it has malefics in Konas, counted from the decreasing Candr. No benefic shall be yuti with the said malefics.
33. If Maïgal and Çani are together in a Kendra with reference to Candr and occupy one and the same Navaç, the child will have two mothers. Yet it will be short-lived.
34. Evil to Father (up to Sloka 42). Ones father will incur early death, if Çani, Maïgal and Candr in their orders are in Tanu, Yuvati and Ari Bhava.
35. The native will at the time of his marriage lose his father, if Guru is in Tanu Bhava, while Çani, Surya, Maïgal and Budh are together in Dhan Bhava.
36. Early loss of father will take place, if Surya is with a malefic, or is hemmed between malefics, as there is another malefic in the 7th from Surya.
37. Remote will be the possibility of ones father sustaining, if Surya is in Yuvati, while Maïgal is in Karm and Rahu is in Vyaya Bhava.
38. Early and troubled will be ones fathers death, if Maïgal is in Karm Bhava identical with his enemies Räçi.
39. Candr in Ari Bhava, Çani in Tanu Bhava and Maïgal in Yuvati Bhava: this array of heavenly bodies at birth will not ensure a long span of life for the father.
40. If Surya receives a Drishti from Çani and be in Mesh, or in Vrischik Naväç, the father would have given up the family before birth of the child, or would have passed away.
41. If Bandhu, Karm and Vyaya Bhava are all occupied by malefics, both the parents will leave the child to its own fate and wander from place to place.
42. The father will not see the native till his (the natives) 23rd year, if Rahu and Guru are together in an inimical Räçi identical with Tanu, or Bandhu Bhava.
43-45. Parents. Surya is the indicator of father for all beings, while the mother is indicated by Candr. Should Surya receive a Drishti from one, or more malefics, or be hemmed between them, this will cause evils to father. Similarly Candr be considered in respect of mother. Malefics in the 6th, the 8th, or the 4th from Surya will bring inauspicious results about the father. Malefics in such places from Candr will be adverse for the mother. The strength, or otherwise of the occupants concerned be suitably estimated.

Ch. 10. Antidotes for Evils

1. Those are the evils (due to a native). I now narrate the antidotes for such evils as well, which will be helpful to assess the extent of inauspiciousness.
2. Should one among Budh, Guru and Çukr be in an angle from Lagn, all evils are destroyed, as Surya eliminates darkness.
3. Just as a single reverential obeisance before Lord Shiva, the Trident holder frees one from all sins, a single, but strong Guru in Lagn will ward off all the evils.
4. Lagn Lord is singly capable of counteracting all evils, if he is strongly placed in an angle, just as Lord Shiva, the holder of the Bow destroyed the three cities, built of gold, silver and iron for the demons by Maya.
5. All evils are destroyed, if a benefic drishties Lagn of one born during the night in the bright half. Similarly a malefics Drishti on Lagn of one born during day time in the dark half.
7. It will prove auspicious for the mother as well as the native, if Maïgal joins, or is aspected by race Drishti by Guru.
8. If malefics are surrounded by benefics, while angles, or trines are themselves benefic-occupied, evils disappear soon. Not only this, evils will not follow from the Bhavas concerned.
Ch. 11. Judgement of Bhavas

1. O Maharishi Parashar, I have come to know of the evils and antidotes thereof from you. Please tell me, what is to be deduced from each Bhava.

2. Indications of Tanu Bhava. Maharishi Parashar replies. Physique, appearance, intellect (or the organ of intelligence, i.e. brain), complexion of the body, vigour, weakness, happiness, grief and innate nature are all to be guessed through the ascending Räçi.

3. Indications of Dhan Bhava. Wealth, grains (food etc.), family, death, enemies, metals, precious stones etc. are to be understood through Dhan Baha.

4. Indications of Sahaj Bhava. From Sahaj Bhava know of the following: valour, servants (attending etc.), brothers, sisters etc., initiatory instructions (Upadesh), journey and parents death.

5. Indications of Bandhu Bhava. Conveyances, relatives, mother, happiness, treasure, lands and buildings are to be consulted through Bandhu Baha.

6. Indications of Putr Bhava. The learned should deduce from Putr Baha amulets, sacred spells, learning, knowledge, sons, royalty (or authority), fall of position etc.

7. Indications of Ari Bhava. Maternal uncle, doubts about death, enemies, ulcers, step-mother etc. are to be estimated from Ari Baha.

8. Indications of Yuvati Bhava. Wife, travel, trade, loss of sight, death etc. be known from Yuvati Baha.

9. Indications of Randhr Bhava. Randhr Baha indicates longevity, battle, enemies, forts, wealth of the dead and things, that have happened and are to happen (in the past and future births).

10. Indications of Dharm Bhava. Fortunes, wifes brother, religion, brothers wife, visits to shrines etc. be known from Dharm Baha.

11. Indications of Karm Bhava. Royalty (authority), place, profession (livelihood), honour, father, living in foreign lands and debts are to be understood from Karm Baha.

12. Indications of Labh Bhava. All articles, sons wife, income, prosperity, quadrupeds etc. are to be understood from Labh Baha.

13. Indications of Vyaya Bhava. From Vyaya Baha, one can know about expenses, history of enemies, one's own death etc.

14-16. Prosperity, or Annihilation of a Bhava. Predict prosperity of the Bhava, which is yuti with, or drishtied by a benefic. Also, when its Lord is in Yuvavastha, or Prabuddhavastha, or in Kismaravastha, or in Karm Bhava, the Bhava's well-being is indicated. The Bhava, which is not drishtied by its Lord, or, whose Lord is with a malefic Grah, or with one of the Lords of evil and such other Bhavas (i.e. 3rd, 6th, 8th, 11th and 12th), or is defeated in a war between Grahas, or is in one of the three Avasthas, viz, Viddhavastha, Mrityavastha and Suptavastha.

Ch. 12. Effects of Tanu Bhava

1. Physical comforts. Should Lagn Lord be yuti with a malefic, or be in Randhr, 6th, or 12th, physical felicity will diminish. If he is in an angle, or trine there will be at all times comforts of the body. If Lagn Lord is in debilitation, combustion, or enemies Räçi, there will be diseases. With a benefic in an angle, or trine all diseases will disappear. Lagns angles (i.e. Bandhu, Yuvati, or the 10th), or its trine (Putr, Dharm), containing a benefic, is a powerful remedy for all, related to health.

2. Bodily beauty. A benefic in Lagn will give a pleasing appearance, while a malefic will make one bereft of good appearance. Felicity of the body will be enjoyed, if Lagn is drishtied by, or yuti with a benefic.

3. Other Benefits. If Lagn Lord, Budh, Guru, or Çukr be in an angle, or in a trine, the native will be long lived, wealthy, intelligent and liked by the king. Fame, wealth, abundant pleasures and comforts of the body will be acquired, if Lagn Lord is in a Movable Räçi and be drishtied by a benefic Grah. One will be endowed with royal marks (of fortune), if Budh, G uru, or Çukr be in Lagn along with the Candr, or be in angle from Lagn. If Budh, G uru, or Çukr be in 4th, 7th, or 10th from Lagn, or be in the company of Candr in Lagn, the native will enjoy royal fortunes.

8. Coiled Birth. If there be a birth in one of Mesh, Vrishabh and Simh Lagnas, containing either Çani, or Maid gal, the birth of the child is with a coil around a limb. The corresponding limb will be in accordance with the Räçi, or Navaäl ç, rising.

9. Birth of Twins. The native, who has Sürhya in a quadruped Räçi, while others are in Dual Räçis with strength, is born, as one of the twins.

10. To Be Nurtured by Three Mothers. If Sürhya and Candr join in one and the same Bhava and fall in one Navaäl ç, the native will be nurtured by three different mothers for the first three months from its birth and will later on be brought up by its father and brother. (Bhratri apart from meaning a brother calls for interpretation, as a near relative in general)

11. Important. The learned in Jyotish should base the effects on Candr also, as are applicable to Lagn. Now explained are clues to know of ulcers, identity marks etc. on ones person.

12-14. Decanates and Bodily Limbs. Head, eyes, ears, nose, temple, chin and face is the order of limbs, denoted (by the various Bhavas), when the first decanate of a Räçi ascends. In the case of the second decanate ascending the order is neck, shoulder, arm, side, heart, stomach and navel. The order for the third decanate ascending is pelvis, anus/penis, testicles, thigh, knee, calf and foot. The portion already risen indicates left side of the body (while the one yet to rise, i.e. the invisible half, denotes the right side of the body).

15. Limbs Affected. The limb, related to a malefic by occupation, will have ulcers, or scars, while the one, related to a benefic, will have a mark (like moles etc). So say the Jyotishis. (Also see Sloka 6, Ch. 4 of Saravali, which states, that a malefic, or a benefic, if be in own Räçi, or Naväl ç, the effects will be right from birth. In other cases it will be in the course of ones life, that these effects will come to pass)

Ch. 13. Effects of Dhan Bhava

1-2. Combinations for Wealth. O excellent of the Brahmins, listen to me, speaking on the effects of Dhan Bhava. If the Lord of Dhan is in Dhan, or is in an angle, or in trine, he will promote ones wealth (or monetary state). Should he be in A rí/8th/12th, financial conditions will decline. A benefic in Dhan will give wealth, while a malefic instead will destroy wealth.

3. One will be wealthy, if G uru is in Dhan, as the Lord of Dhan, or is with Mäi gal.

4. If Dhan Lord is in Labh, while the Lord of Labh in Dhan, wealth will be acquired by the native. Interchangeably these two Lords may join in an angle, or in a trine.

5. If the Lord of Dhan is in an angle, while Labh Lord is in a trine thereof, or is drishtied by, or yuti with G uru and Çukr, the subject will be wealthy.

6-7. Yogas for Poverty. One will be penniless, if the Lord of Dhan Bhava is in an evil Bhava, while the Lord of Labh Bhava is also so placed and Dhan Bhava is occupied by a malefic. There will be penury right from birth and the native will have to beg even for his food, if the Lords of Dhan and Labh Bhava are both combust, or with malefics.

8. Loss of Wealth through the King. Should the Lords of Dhan and Labh Bhava be relegated to A rí, Randhr, or V yaya B hava, while Maid gal is in Labh Bhava and Rahu is in Dhan Bhava, the native will lose his wealth on account of royal punishments.

9. Expenses on Good Accounts. When G uru is in Labh, Çukr is in Dhan and a benefic is placed in Vyaya B hava, while D hans Lord is yuti with a benefic, there will be expenses on religious, or charitable grounds.

10. Fame etc. If D hans Lord is in own Räçi, or is exalted, the native will look after his people, will help others and also will become famous.

11. Effortless Aquisition. If D hans Lord is yuti with a benefic and is in a good division, like Paravatäìç, there will be effortlessly all kinds of wealth in the natives family. (Paravatäìç dau of the text denotes Paravat, or such other higher Vargas. D hans L ord should be in Paravatäìç, or in D evalokäl ç, Brahmakşïç, Sakravahanäl ç, or Sridhamäl ç in the Dash Varg scheme)
12. Eyes. If Dhan Lord is endowed with strength, the native will possess beautiful eyes. Should the said Grah be in Atri, Randhr, or V yaya Bhava, there will be disease, or deformity of eyes.

13. Untruthful Person. If Dhan Bhava and its Lord are yuti with malefics, the native will be a talebearer, will speak untruth and will be afflicted by windy diseases.

Ch. 14. Effects of Sahaj Bhava

1. O Brahmin, I now tell you about Sahaj Bhava. Should Sahaj Bhava be yuti with, or drishtied by a benefic, the native will be endowed with co-born and be courageous.

2. If Sahaj Bhava along with Maïgal drishties Sahaj Bhava, the native will enjoy good results, due to Sahaj Bhava. Alternatively these two Grahas may be in Sahaj itself.

3. Destruction at once of co-born will come to pass, if the said 2 Grahas are together with a malefic, or in a Räçi, owned by a malefic.

4-4½. Female and Male Co-born. If Sahaj Bhava is a female Grah, or, if Sahaj Bhava be occupied by female Grahas, one will have sisters, born after him. Similarly male Grahas and male Rägis denote younger brothers. Should it be of mixed nature, co-born of both sexes will be obtained. These effects be declared after assessing the strength and weakness of the concerned.

5-6. Should Sahaj Bhavas Lord and Maïgal be together in Randhr Bhava, destruction of co-born will result. Happiness in this respect will come to pass, if Maïgal, or Sahaj Bhava is in an angle, or in a trine, or in exaltation, or friendly divisions.

7-11. Number of Brothers and Sisters. If Budh is in Sahaj Bhava, while Sahaj Bhava and Candr are together, as the indicator (Maïgal) joins Çani, the effects are: there occurred the birth of an elder sister and there will be younger brothers. Furthermore, the third brother will die. Should M aïgal be yuti with Rahu, while Sahaj Bhava is in its debilitation Räçi, there will be loss of younger brothers and/or sisters, while three elder brothers and/or sisters were attained by the native. If Sahaj Bhava is in an angle, while the significator (M aïgal) is exalted in a trine and be yuti with Guru, 12 will be the number of total co-born. Out of these two elders and the 3rd, the 7th, the 9th and the 12th of the younger co-born will be shortlived, while six of the said twelve will be longlived.

12-13. There will be 1 co-born, if Vyayas Lord (some texts read, as Labhs Lord) joins Maïgal and Guru, while Sahaj Bhava is occupied by Candr. If Candr is lonely placed in Sahaj Bhava with Drishti of male Grahas, there will be younger brothers, while the Drishti of Çukr denotes younger sisters.

14. Adverse Grahas. Sûrya in Sahaj Bhava will destroy the preborn. The afterborn will be destroyed, if Çani is found in Sahaj Bhava. In the same situation Maïgal will destroy both the preborn and later-born.

15. After estimating the strength and weakness of such Yogas, the effects, related to brothers and sisters, be announced.

Ch. 15. Effects of Bandhu Bhava

1. O excellent of the Brahmins, thus have been briefly told the effects of Sahaj Bhava. Now listen to the results, related to Bandhu Bhava.

2. Housing Comforts. One will have residential comforts in full degree, if Bandhu is occupied by its Lord, or by Lagns Lord and be drishtied by a benefic.

3. Miscellaneous. Should Putrs Lord be in his own Bhava, or in own Navâç, or in exaltation, the native will be endowed with comforts, related to lands, conveyances, houses etc. and musical instruments.

4. Housing Comforts. If Karms Lord joins Bandhus Lord in an angle, or in a trine, the native will acquire beautiful mansions.
5. Relatives. Should Budh be in Lagn, while Bandhus Lord, being a benefic, is drishtied by another benefic, the native will be honoured by his relatives.
6. Long-living Mother. If Bandhu Bhava is occupied by a benefic, while its Lord is in his exaltation Räçi, as the indicator of mother is endowed with strength, the native will have a long-living mother.
7. Happiness of Mother. The natives mother will be happy, if Bandhus Lord is in an angle, while Çukr is also in an angle, as Budh is exalted.
8. Quadrupeds. Sûrya in Bandhu, Candr and Çani in D harm and Mâi gal in Labh Bhava; this Y oga will confer cows and buffaloes on the native.
9. Dumbness. Should Bandhu B hava be a Movable one, while its Lord and Mâi gal are together in A ri, or Randhr Bhava, the native will be dumb.
10-14. Conveyances. If Lagns Lord is a benefic, while Bandhus Lord is in fall, or in Labh Bhava and the significator (Çukr) is in V yaya Bhava, the native will obtain conveyances in his 12th year. Should Sûrya be in Bandhu Bhava, as Bandhus Lord is exalted and be with Çukr, one will acquire conveyances in his 32nd year. It will be in the 42nd year, that one will be endowed with conveyances, if Bandhus Lord joins Karms Lord in his (4th Lords) exaltation Navâï ç. A n exchange between Labhs and Bandhus Lords will confer conveyances in the 12th year. A benefic, related to Bandhu Bhava (and to its Lord), will bring with him auspicious effects (regarding conveyances), while a malefic will produce only malefic effects (in respect of conveyances). Should a benefic be in Bandhu, drishti Bandhu, or in yuti with the Lord of Bandhu, or a Drishti on the Lord of Bandhu Bhava, then the native will be happy with conveyances and be free from accidents and dangers. A malefic, replacing the said benefic, will cause losses, concerning vehicles and reduce one to severe accidents.

Ch. 16. Effects of Putr Bhava

1-3. O Brahmin, now I tell you the effects, related to Putr Bhava. If the Lords of Lagn and Putr are in their own Räçi, or in an angle, or in a trine, one will enjoy thorough happiness through his children. Should Putrs Lord be in A ri, Randhr, or V yaya Bhava, there will be no offspring. Should the Lord of Putr be combust, or be with malefics and be weak, there will be no children; even, if per chance issues are obtained, they will only quit the world soon. The Y uti of Putrs Lord with Lagns Lord in a good Bhava will ensure early obtainment of children apart from happiness through them. If they join in an evil Bhava, they will prove a defect in this respect.
4. If Putås Lord is in A ri Bhava, as Lagns Lord is yuti with Mâi gal, the native will lose his very first child, whereafter his female will not be fertile to yield an offspring.
5. Should Putås Lord be in fall in A ri, Randhå, or V yaya Bhava, while Budh and Ketu are in Putr Bhava, the natives wife will give birth to one child only.
6. If Putås Lord is in fall and be not in Drishti to Putå while Çani and Budh are in Putå, the natives wife will give birth to one child only.
7. Should Dharms Lord be in Lagn, while Putrs Lord is in fall and Ketu is in Putå along with Budh, obtainment of progeny will be after a great deal of ordeal.
8. If Putås Lord is in A ri, Randhå, or V yaya Bhava, or be in an inimical Räçi, or be in fall, or in Putå itself, the native will beget issues with difficulty.
9. Should Putå Bhava be owned by Çani, or Budh and be occupied, or drishtied by Çani and Mändi, one will have adopted issues.
10. Should Sûrya and Candr be together in a Räçi and in the same Navâï ç, the native will be brought up by three mothers, or two fathers.
11. A adopted issue is indicated, if Putr is tenanted by six Grahas, while its Lord is in V yaya Bhava and Candr and Lagn are endowed with strength.
12. There will be many children, if Putrs Lord is strong, while Putr is drishtied by strong Budh, G uru and Çukr.
13. If Putrs Lord is with Candr, or is in her Decanate, the native will beget daughters; so say J yotishis.
14. If Putrś Lord is in a Movable Rāçi, while Čani is in Putrś, as Rahu is with Candrś, the child (so born) is of questionable birth.
15. Undoubtedly the native is born of others loins, if Candrś is in the 8th from Lagnś, while Guruś is in the 8th from Candrś. Malefics Drishti, or Yuti is essential in this Yog.
16. If Putrś Lord is exalted, or be in Dhanś, Putrś or Dharmaś Bhava, or be yuti with, or drishtied by Guruś, obtainment of children will be there.
17. One will obtain children, that will indulge in mean deeds, if Putrś is occupied by three, or four malefics, while Putrś Lord is in fall. A benefic (including Budh) in Putrś is excluded in the said combination.
18. If Putrś is occupied by Guruś, while its Lord is with Čukrś, one will obtain an offspring in his 32nd, or 33rd year.
19. Should Putrś Lord be in an angle along with Guruś, the Karak, one will beget a child at the age of 30, or 36.
20. If Guruś is in Dharmaś Bhava, while Čukrś is in the 9th from Guruś along with Lagnś Lord, one will beget a child at the age of 40.
21. The native will at the age of 32 lose his child, if Rahu is in Putrś, Putrś Lord is in Yuti with a malefic and Guruś is in debilitation.
22. There will be loss of children at 33 and 36, if a malefic is in the 5th from Guruś, while another is in the 5th from Lagnś.
23. Should Mandi be in Lagnś, while Lagnś Lord is in fall, grief on account of loss of child at the age of 56 will come to pass.
24-32. Number of Children. There will be 10 sons, if Bandhu Bhava and Āri Bhava are occupied by malefics, while Putrś Lord is in deep exaltation, joining Lagnś Lord, as Guruś is with another benefic. Nine will be the number of sons, that one will beget, if Guruś is in deep exaltation, as Rahuś is with Dhanś Lord and Dharmaś is occupied by its own Lord. There will be eight sons, if Guruś is in Putrś, or Dharmaś Bhava, while Putrś Lord is endowed with strength and Dhanś Lord is in Kārm Bhava. Čani in Dharmaś Bhava, while Putrś Lord is in Putrś itself, gives 7 sons, out of which twins will be born twice. If Putrś Lord is in Putrś in Yuti with Dhanś Lord, there will be birth of 7 sons, out of which 3 will pass away. Only one son is denoted, if there be a malefic in Putrś Bhava, while Guruś is in the 5th from Čani, or vice versa. If Putrś Bhava has a malefic in it, or, if Čani is in the 5th from Guruś, the native will beget offspring only through his second, or third wife. Should Putrś be occupied by a malefic, while Guruś is yuti with Čani in Putrś Bhava, as Lagnś Lord is in Dhan Bhava and Putrś Lord is yuti with Maigal, one will live long, but lose his children one after the other, as they are born.

Ch. 17. Effects of Āri Bhava

1. O Brahmin, following are the effects, produced by Āri Bhava, relating to diseases, ulcers etc. Listen to this attentively.
2. Ulcers/Bruises. Should Aśri Lord be in Aśri itself, or in Lagnś, or Randhrś, there will be ulcers, or bruises on the body. The Rāçi, becoming Āri Bhava, will lead to the knowledge of the concerned limb.
3-5. Relatives Affected. The Karak of a relative, or the Lord of such a Bhava, joining Aśri Lord, or being in Aśri, or Randhr Bhava, indicates ulcers/bruises to such a relative, like father. Sūrya with such lordship and in such a Bhava denotes such affectation of head, Candrś of the face, Maigal of the neck, Budh of the navel, Guruś of the nose, Čukrś of the eyes, Čani of the feet and the Rahuś and Ketu of the abdomen.
4. Facial Diseases. Should Lagnś Lord be in a Rāçi of Maigal, or of Budh and has a Drishti on Budh, there will be diseases of the face.
5-8 ½. Leprosy. Maigal, or Budh, having ownership of the ascending Rāçi and joining Candrś, Rahuś and Sani, will cause leprosy. If Candrś is in Lagnś, which is not however Cancer, and be with Rahu, there will occur white leprosy. Čani in place of Rahu will cause black leprosy, while Māgli in place of Sūrya will cause blood leprosy.

9-12½. Diseases in General. When Lagn is occupied by the Lords of A rī and Randhr Bhava along with Sūrya, the native will be afflicted by fever and tumours. Māgli, replacing Sūrya, will cause swelling and hardening of the blood vessels and wounds and hits by weapons. Budh so featuring will bring in bilious diseases, while Guru in similar case will destroy any disease. Similarly Çukr will cause diseases through females, Čani windy diseases, Rahu danger through low-caste-men and Ketu navel diseases. Candr in Yuti with the Lords of A rī and Randhr Bhava will inflict dangers through water and phlegmatic disorders. Similar estimates be made from the respective significators and Bhavas for relatives, like father.

13-19½. TIMING OF ILLNESS. The native will be afflicted by illness throughout life, if Sani is with Rahu, while A rī Lord and 6th Bhava are yuti with malefics. One will suffer from (severe) fever at the age of 6 and at the age of 12, if Māgli is in A rī, while A rī Lord is in Randhr. If the Candr is in Dhanu/Meen, while Guru is in A rī from Lagn, one will suffer from leprosy at the age of 19 and 22. If Rahu is in A rī, Lagn Lord is in Randhr and Māgli is in an angle, consumption will trouble the native at the age of 26. Spleeney disorders will be experienced at the age of 29 and 30, if the Lords of 6th and 12th are in exchange of their Rācīs. Čani and Candr together in A rī will inflict blood-leprosy at the age of 45. If Čani is with an inimical planet, while Lagn Lord is in Lagn itself, windy disorders (like rheumatism) will trouble the native at the age of 59.

20-22. UNFORTUNATE YEARS. Should Candr be yuti with A rī Lord, while the 8th Lord is in A rī and the 12th Lord is in Lagn, the native will be troubled by animals at the age of eight. O Brahmin, if Rahu is in A rī, while Čani is in Randhr from the said Rahu, the child will have danger through fire at the age of 1 and 2, while in Sahaj year birds will bring some evils.

23-25. UNFORTUNATE YEARS (continued). Danger through water will have to be feared during Putr and Dharm years, if Sūrya is in A rī, or Randhr, while Candr is in V yaya from the said Sūrya. Čani in Randhr, as Māgli is in Yuvati, all cause small-pox in Karm year and in 30th year of age. If 8th Lord joins Rahu in an angle/trine from Randhr Bhava and be in Randhr in Navamsa, the subject will be troubled by swelling of blood vessels, urinary disorders etc. during the 18th year and the 22nd year.

26. LOSS THROUGH ENEMIES. Loss of wealth will come to pass during the 31st year, if Labh and 6th Lords exchange their Rācīs.

27. INIMICAL SONS. Ones own sons will be his enemies, if Putr Lord is in A rī, while A rī Lord is with Guru. Simultaneously V yaya Lord should be in Lagn.

28. FEAR FROM DOGS. There will be fear from dogs during the 10th and 19th year, if the Lagna Lord and the 6th Lord are in exchange.

Ch. 18. Effects of Yuvati Bhava

1. O excellent of the Brahmins, listen to me, detailing the effects of the 7th Bhava. If Yuvati Lord is in his own Rācī, or in exaltation, one will derive full happiness through his wife (and marriage).

2. SICK WIFE. Should Yuvati Lord be in A rī, 8th, or V yaya, the wife will be sickly. This however does not apply to own Bhava, or exaltation placement, as above.

3. Excessive Libidinousness/Death of Wife. If Čukr is in Yuvati, the native will be exceedingly libidinous. If Čukr yuti a malefic in any Bhava, it will cause loss of wife.

4-5. THE 7th LORD. Should Yuvati Lord be endowed with strength and be yuti with, or be drishtied by a benefic, the native will be wealthy, honourable, happy and fortunate. Conversely, if Yuvati Lord is in fall, or is combust, or is in an enemies Rācī, one will acquire sick wives and many wives.

6. PLURALITY OF WIVES. If Yuvati Lord is in a Rācī of Čani, or of Čukr and be drishtied by a benefic, there will be many wives. Should Yuvati Lord be particularly in exaltation, the same effects will come to pass.
7-8½. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS. The native will befriend barren females, if Sūrya is in Yuvati. Candr therein will cause association with such female, as corresponding to the Rāçi, becoming Yuvati. Māigal, placed in Yuvati, will denote association with marriageable girls (those with menses), or with barren females. Budh indicates harlots, mean females and females, belonging to traders community. Wife of a Brahmin, or a pregnant female will be in the natives association, if Guru is in Yuvati. Base females and females, having attained their courses, are denoted by Čani, Rahu/Ketu in Yuvati.

8-9½. Māigal denotes a female with attractive breasts. Čani indicates sick and weak spouse. Guru will bring a spouse with hard and prominent breasts. Čukr will bring one with bulky and excellent breasts.

10-13½. Malefics in Vyaya and 7th, while decreasing Candr is in Putr denote, that the native will be controlled by spouse, who will be inimical to the race (or family). If Yuvati Bāhava is occupied, or owned by Čani/Māigal, the native will beget a harlot, as his spouse, or he will be attached to other illegally. Should Čukr be in a Navamsa of Māigal, or in a Rāsi of Māigal, or receive a Dṛṣṭī from, or be yuti with Māigal, the native will kiss the private parts of the female. If Čukr is so related to Čani, the native will kiss the private parts of the male.

14-15. WORTHY SPOUSE. The native will beget a spouse endowed with (the seven principal) virtues, who will expand his dynasty by sons and grandsons, if the 7th Lord is exalted, while Yuvati is occupied by strong Lagna Lord and a benefic.

16. EVILS TO SPOUSE. If Yuvati Bāhava, or its Lord is yuti with a malefic the native’s wife will incur evils, especially, if Yuvati Bāhava, or its Lord is bereft of strength.

17. LOSS OF SPOUSE. If Yuvati Lord is devoid of strength and is relegated to A rī, 8th, or V yaya, or, if Yuvati Lord is in fall, the natives wife will be destroyed (i.e. she will die early).

18. LACK OF CONJUGAL FELICITY. If Candr is in Yuvati, as Yuvati Lord is in V yaya and the Karaka (indicator Čukr) is bereft of strength, the native will not be endowed with marital happiness.

19-21. PLURALITY OF WIVES. One will have two wives, if Yuvati Lord is in fall, or in a malefic Rāçi along with a malefic, while Yuvati Bāhava, or the 7th Navamsa belong to a eunuch planet. If Māigal and Čukr are in Yuvati, or, if Čani is Yuvati, while the Lord of Lagn is in Randhr, the native will have 3 wives. There will be many wives, if Čukr is in a Dūsal Rāçi, while its Lord is in exaltation, as Yuvati Lord is endowed with strength.

22. TIME OF MARRIAGE (upto Sloka 34). If Sūrya is in Yuvati, while his dispositor is yuti with Čukr, there will be marriage at 7th, or 11th year of age. If Sūrya is in Yuvati, while his dispositor is yuti with Čukr, there will be marriage at 7th, or 11th year of age. If Sūrya is in Yuvati, while his dispositor is yuti with Čukr, there will be marriage at 7th, or 11th year of age.

23. If Sūrya is in Yuvati, while his dispositor is yuti with Čukr, there will be marriage at 7th, or 11th year of age. If Sūrya is in Yuvati, while his dispositor is yuti with Čukr, there will be marriage at 7th, or 11th year of age.
35-39. Timing of Wife's Death. Loss of wife will occur in the 18th year, or 33rd year of age of the native, if Yuvati Lord is in fall, while Çukr is in Randhr. One will lose his spouse in his 19th year, if Yuvati Lord is in the 8th, while Vyaya Lord is in Yuvati. The native's wife will die within three days of marriage due to snake bite, if the native has Rahu in Dhan and Maìgal in Yuvati. If Çukr is in Randhr, while his dispositor is in a Räçi of Çani, death of wife will take place during the native's 12th, or 21st year of age. Should the ascendent Lord be in his Räçi of debilitation, as Dhan Lord is in Randhr, loss of wife will occur in the 13th year of age.

40-41. Three Marriages. Should Candr be in Yuvati from Çukr, while Budh is in Yuvati from Candr and Randhr Lord is in Putr (from the Lagna), there will be marriage in Karm year followed by another in the 22nd year and yet another in the 33rd year.

42. Death of Wife. If Ari, 7th and 8th are in their order occupied by Maìgal, Rahu and Çani, the native's wife will not live long.

Ch. 19. Effects of Randhr Bhava

1. Long Life. O excellent of the Brahmins, listen to me speak on the effects of Randhr Bhava. If Randhr's Lord is in an angle, long life is indicated.

2. Short Life. Should Randhr's Lord join Lagns Lord, or a malefic and be in Randhr itself, the native will be short-lived.

3. Sani and Karms Lord about Longevity. Similarly consider Çani and Karms Lord in the matter of longevity. Karms Lord is in Randhr along with a malefic Graha and/or Lagns Lord.

4-7. Long Life. There will be long life, if A ris Lord is in Vyaya, or, if A ris Lord is in Ari, as Vyayas Lord is in V yaya, or, if A ris Lord and Vyayas Lord are in Lagn and Randhr. If the Lords of Putr, Randhr and Tanu Bhava are in own Navāïças, own Räçis, or in friendly Räçis, the native will enjoy a long span of life. Should the Lords of Lagn, Randhr and K arm Bhava and Sani are all disposed severally in an angle, in a trine, or in Labh Bhava, the subject will live long. Like these, there are many other Yogas, dealing with the issue of longevity. The strength and weakness of the Grahas concerned be estimated in deciding longevity.

8-13. Short Life. One's span of life will be between 20 and 32 years, if Lagns Lord is weak, while Randhr's Lord is an angle. The native will only be short-lived, if Randhr's Lord is in fall, while Randhr Bhava has a malefic in it and Tanu Bhava is bereft of strength. Death will be instant at birth, if Randhr Bhava, Randhrs Lord and Vyaya Bhava are all conjunct malefics. Malefics in angles and/or trines and benefics in Ari and/or Randhr Bhava, while Tanu Bhava has in it Randhrs Lord in fall: this Yoga will cause immediate end. If Putr and Randhr Bhava and Randhrs Lord are all conjunct malefics, the life span will be very brief. Within a month of birth, death will befall the child, if Randhrs Lord is in Randhr itself, while Candr is with malefics and bereft of beneficial Drishti.

14-15. Long Life (again). One will be long-lived, if Lagns Lord is in exaltation, while Candr and Guru are, respectively, in Labh and Randhr Bhava. If Lagns Lord is exceedingly strong and receives a Drishti from a benefic, which is placed in an angle, the person concerned will be wealthy, virtuous and long-lived.

Ch. 20. Effects of Dham Bhava

(1) Combinations for Fortunes. O Brahmin, now listen to the effects of Dham Bhava. One will be fortunate (or affluent), if Dham's Lord is in Dham Bhava with strength.

(2) Should Guru be in Dham Bhava, while Dham's Lord is in an angle and Lagns Lord is endowed with strength, one will be extremely fortunate.

3. Fortunate (Affluent) Father. If Dham's Lord is with strength, as Çukr is in Dham, while Guru is in an angle from Tanu Bhava, the native's father is fortunate.
4. Indigent Father. If Dharms Lord is debilitated, while the 2nd and/or the 4th from Dharms Bhava is occupied by Maṅgal, the native's father is poor.

5. Long-living Father. Should Dharms Lord be in deep exaltation, while Ăukṛ is in an angle from Tanu Bhava and Guru is in the 9th from Navāḷi Lagn, the father of the native will enjoy a long span of life.

6. Royal Status for Father. If Dharms Lord is an angle and receives a Drishti from Guru, the native's father will be a king endowed with conveyances, or be equal to a king.

7. Wealthy and Famous Father. Should Dharms Lord be in Karm Bhava, while Karms Lord receives a Drishti from a benefic the native's father will be very rich and famous.

8. Virtuous and Devoted to Father. Should Śūrya be in deep exaltation, as Dharms Lord is in Labh Bhava, the native's father will be virtuous, dear to the king and devoted to father. If Śūrya is in a trine from Lagna, while Dharms Lord is in Yuvati in yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Guru, the native will be devoted to his father.

9. Fortunes etc. Acquisition of fortunes, conveyances and fame will follow the 32nd year of age, if Dharms Lord is in Dhan, while Dhan's Lord is in Dharms.

10. Inimical to Father. There will be mutual enmity between the father and the native, if Lagns Lord is in Dharm Bhava, but with the Lord of Aṛi. Further, the native's father will be of contemptible disposition.

11. Begged Food. If Karms Lord and Sahajs Lord are bereft of strength, while Dharms Lord is in fall, or combust the native will go begging for his food.

12-25. Combinations for Fathers Death. The father of the native would have passed away prior to the native's birth, if Śūrya is in Aṛi, Randhr, or Vayya Bhava, as Randhrs Lord is in Dharms Bhava, Vayyas Lord is in Tanu Bhava and Aṛis Lord is in Putr Bhava. Should Śūrya be in Randhr Bhava, while Randhrs Lord is in Dharms, the native's father will pass away within a year of his birth. If the Lord of Vayya Bhava is in Dharms Bhava, while Dharms Lord is in its debilitation Navaḷi, the native's father will face his end during the 3rd, or the 16th year of the native. Death of father will occur in the 2nd, or the 12th year, if Lagns Lord is in Randhr Bhava, as Randhrs Lord is with Śūrya. Should Rahu be in the 8th from Dharms, as Śūrya is in the 9th from Dharms, death of father will take place in the 16th, or the 18th year of the native. If Čani is in the 9th from Candr, as Śūrya is with Rahu, the native's father will die in the 7th, or the 19th year of the native. The native in his 44th year will lose his father, if Dharms Lord is in Vayya, as Vayyas Lord is in Dharms. If Lagns Lord is in Randhr Bhava, as Candr is in Śūryas Navaḷi, the native in his 35th, or 41st year will lose his father. One will lose his father in the 50th year, if Śūrya, being the Lord of Dharms, is conjunct Maṅgal and Čani. If Śūrya is in the 7th from Dharms Bhava, as Rahu is in the 7th from Sahaj Bhava, the 6th, or 25th year of the native will be fatal for father. If Čani is in the 7th from Randhr Bhava, as Śūrya is in the 7th from Čani, the ages of 21, 26, or 30 will be fatal for the father. If Dharms Lord is in its debilitation Rāçi, while his dispositor is in Dharms Bhava, the native will lose his father at the age of 26, or 30. Thus the Jyotishis may know the effects.

26. Fortunes. One will enjoy abundant fortunes, if Ăukṛ is in deep exaltation and be in the company of Dharms Lord, as Čani is in Sahaj.

27-28. Fortunate Periods. Abundant fortunes be acquired after the 20th year, if Dharms has Guru in it, as its Lord is in an angle from Lagn. Should Budh be in his deep exaltation, as Dharms Lord is in Dharms itself, abundant fortunes will be earned after the 36th year.

29. Should Lagns Lord be in Dharms, as Dharms Lord is in Lagn and Guru is in Yuvati, there will be gains of wealth and conveyances.

30. Lack of Fortunes. If Rahu is in the 9th from Dharms Bhava, as his dispositor is in Randhr Bhava and Dharms Lord is in fall, the native be devoid of fortunes.

31. Food by Begging. Should Čani be in Dharms Bhava along with Candr, as Lagns Lord is in fall, the native will acquire food by begging.

32. O Brahmin, these are the effects related to Dharms Bhava. I have explained briefly. These may be estimated with the help of the state of the Lords of Lagn and Dharms Bhava and in other manners as well.
Ch. 21. Effects of Karm Bhava

1. I now explain the effects of Karm Bhava. Listen to these, O Maitreya, in the words of Brahma, Garga and others.

2. Paternal Happiness. If Karms Lord is strong and in exaltation, or in its own Rāc/Navāïç, the native will derive extreme paternal happiness, will enjoy fame and will perform good deeds.

3. If Karms Lord is devoid of strength, the native will face obstructions in his work. If Rahu is in an angle, or in a trine, he will perform religious sacrifices, like Jyotishtoma.

4. If Karms Lord is with a benefic, or be in an auspicious Bhava, one will always gain through royal patronage and in business. In a contrary situation, only opposite results will come to pass.

5. Should Karm and Labh Bhava be both occupied by malefics, the native will indulge only in bad deeds and will defile his own men.

6. If the Lord of Karm Bhava is relegated to Randhr Bhava along with Rahu, the native will hate others; be a great fool and do bad deeds.

7. If Sani, Maïgal and Karms Lord are in Yuvati, as Yuvatis Lord is with a malefic, the native will be fond of carnal pleasures and of filling his belly.

8-10 Should Karms Lord be in exaltation and be in the company of Guru, as Dharms Lord is in Karm the native will be endowed with honour, wealth and valour. One will lead a happy life, if Labhs Lord is in Karm and Karms Lord is in Lagn, or, if the Lord of Karm Bhava is yuti with the Lord of Labh Bhava in an angle. Should Karms Lord in strength be in Meen along Guru, the native will doubtless obtain robes, ornaments and happiness.

11. Should Rahu, Sûrya, Çani and Maïgal be in Labh Bhava, the native will incur cessation of his duties.

12. One will be learned and wealthy, if Guru is in Meen along with Çukr, while Lagns Lord is strong and Candr is in exaltation.

13. Should Karms Lord be in Labh, while Labhs Lord is in Tanu Bhava and Çukr is in Karm, the native will be endowed with precious stones.

14. If the Karms Lord is exalted in an angle, or a trine and is yuti with Guru, or receives a Drishti from Guru, one will be endowed with deeds.

15. Should Karms Lord be in Lagn along with Lagns Lord, as Candr is in an angle, or in a trine, the native will be interested in good deeds.

16. If Çani is in Karm Bhava along with a debilitated Grah, while Karm Bhava in the Navāïç Kundali is occupied by a malefic, the native will be bereft of acts.

17. One will indulge in bad acts, if Karms Lord is in Randhr Bhava, while Randhrs Lord is in Karm Bhava with a malefic.

18. Obstructions to the natives acts will crop up, if Karms Lord is in fall, as both Karm Bhava and the 10th from Karm Bhava have malefic occupations.

19-21. Combinations for Fame. One will be endowed with fame, if Candr is in Karm Bhava, while Karms Lord is in a trine from Karm Bhava and Lagns Lord is in Lagns angle. Similar effects will come to pass, if Labhs Lord is in Karm Bhava, while Karms Lord is strong and gives a Drishti to Guru. Fame will come to the native, if Karms Lord is in Dharms Bhava, as Lagns Lord is in Karm Bhava and Candr is in Putr Bhava.

22. O excellent of the Brahmans, thus have been told about the effects of Karm Bhava in a brief manner. Other related effects be guessed by you based on the relationship of the Lords of Lagn and of Karm Bhava.

Ch. 22. Effects of Labh Bhava

1. O excellent of the Brahmans, I now explain effects relating to Labh Bhava, the auspiciousness of which Bhava will make one happy at all times.
2. Should Labhs Lord be in Labh itself, or be in an angle, or in a trine from Lagn, there will be many gains. Similarly, if Labhs Lord is exalted, though in combustion there will be many gains.

4. If Labhs Lord is in Sahaj Bhava, while Labh Bhava is occupied by a benefic, the native will gain 2000 Nishkias in his 36th year.
5. If Labhs Lord is yuti with a benefic in an angle, or in a trine, the native will acquire 500 Nishkas in his 40th year.
6. The native will own 6000 Nishkas, if Labh Bhava is occupied by Guru, while Dhan Bhava and Dharman Bhava are, respectively, taken over by Candr and Çukr by position.
7. Should Guru, Budh and Candr be in the 11th from Labh, the native will be endowed with wealth, grains, fortunes, diamonds, ornaments etc.

10. If Labhs Lord is in Sahaj Bhava, as Sahajas Lord is in Labh Bhava, one will gain wealth through co-borns and will be endowed with excellent ornaments.
11. There will be no gains in spite of numerous efforts, if Labhs Lord is in fall, in combustion, or be in Ari, Randhr, or Vaya Bava with a malefic.

Ch. 23. Effects of Vyaya Bhava

1-4. O Brahmin, now I tell you about the effects of Vyaya Bhava. There will be expenses on good accounts, if Vyayas Lord is with a benefic, or in his own Bhava, or exalted, or, if a benefic occupies Vaya. One will own beautiful houses and beds and be endowed with superior scented articles and pleasures, if Candr happens to be Vyayas Lord and be exalted, or be in its own Räçi and/or Navāı, or in Labh/Dham/Putbhava in Räçi/Navāı. The said native will live with rich clothes and ornaments, be learned and Lordly.
5-6. And, if Vyayas Lord is in Ari, or Randhr Bhava, or be in enemys Navāı, in debilitation Navāı, or in Randhr Bava in Navāı, one will be devoid of happiness from wife, be troubled by expenses and deprived of general happiness. If he be in an angle, or trine, the native will beget a spouse.
7. Just as these effects are derived from Tanu Bhava in regard to the native, similar deductions be made about co-borns etc. from Sahaj and other Bhavas.
8. Grahas placed in the visible half of the zodiac will give explicit results, while the ones in the invisible half will confer secret results.
9. If Rahu is in Vaya along with Māgal, Cāni and Sūrya, the native will go to hell. Similar effect will occur, if V yayas Lord is with Sūrya.

13. Earnings will be through sinful measures, if Vaya is occupied by Cāni, or Māgal etc. and is not receiving a Drishti from a benefic.

O Brahmin, these are the effects for Dhum etc. Before declaring these results, the effects of Surya and other Grahas should be wisely conceived by their positions, relations and Drishtis apart from their strength, or weakness.

Ch. 26. Evaluation of Drishtis of Grahas

1. O Glorious, it is said, that Drishtis (of Grahas) and their strengths are to be known in deciding the effects. How many kinds are these? Please clarify doubts.

2-5. Drishtis of the Grahas. O Brahmin, I have earlier stated Drishtis, based on Rācīs. The other kind is between Grahas, which I detail below. 3rd and 10th, 5th and 9th, 4th and 8th and lastly 7th. On these places the Drishtis increase gradually in slabs of quarters, i.e 1/8, 1/4, ½ and full. The effects will also be proportionate. All Grahas give a Drishti to the 7th fully. Čani, Guru and Maïgal have special Drishtis, respectively, on the 3rd and the 10th, the 5th and the 9th and the 4th and the 8th. The ancient preceptors have explained these, which ordinary. By subtle mathematical calculations these Drishtis will have to be clearly understood, as under.

6-8. Evaluation of the Drishtis of the Grahas. Deduct the longitude of the Grah (or Bhava), that receives a Drishti, from that of the Grah, which gives the Drishti. If the sum exceeds six Rācīs, deduct the sum again from 10 Rācīs. Convert the latter sum into degrees and divide by two. The resultant product is Drishti Kona (or aspectual angle). If the difference is in excess of 5 Rācīs, ignore the Rācīs and multiply the degrees etc. by 2, which is the value of the Drishti. If the difference is in excess of 4 Rācīs, deduct it from 5 Rācīs, and the resultant degrees etc. become the Drishti value. If the difference is in excess of 3 Rācīs, deduct it from 4 Rācīs and (increase 30 by) halve the product to get the Drishti value. If the difference is above 2 Rācīs, ignore the Rācīs and add 15 to the degrees etc. to get the Drishti value. If it is in excess of one Rācī, ignore the Rācī and divide the degrees by 2 to get the Drishti value.

9-10. Special consideration for Čanis Drishtis. O Brahmin, if Čani is the Grah, that gives a Drishti, find out the difference between him and the Grah, that receives the Drishti; if the sum is above 1 Rācī, multiply the degrees etc. by 2 to get the Drishti value. If the sum is above nine Rācīs, the degrees to elapse be doubled to get the Drishti value. If the sum is above 2 Rācīs, the degrees etc. be halved and deducted from 60. If the sum exceeds 8 Räçis, add to the degrees etc. a figure of 30 to get the Drishti value. In other cases, the sums be processed, as explained earlier.

11. Special consideration for Mägal Dürishtis. Deduct the longitude of Mägal from that of the Grah, that receives the Dürishti. If the sum is 3 Räçis & c., or 7 Räçis & c, the degrees etc. be reduced from 60. If it is above 2 Räçis, the degrees etc. be increased by half of it and superadd 15. If the sum is 6 Räçis, one Rup is the value.

12. Special consideration for Gurus Dürishtis. Deduct the longitude of Guru from that of the Grah, that receives the Dürishti. If the resultant sum is 3 Räçis & c., or 7 Räçis & c, halve the degrees etc. and increase it by 15. If the sum is 4 Räçis & c., or 8 Räçis & c., the degrees etc. be subtracted from 60. This will be the Drishti value. The sum, being in conformity with others than these, be treated, as stated earlier.

Ch. 27. Evaluation Of Strengths

Shad Bal consists of the following: Sthan Bal (positional), Dég Bal (directional), Kaal Bal (Temporal), inclusive of Ayan Bal (equinoctial), Chesht Bal (motional), Naisargika Bal (natural), Drik Bal (aspectual). These strengths are computed for the seven Grahas from Surya to Çani. The nodes are not considered.

Sthan Bal comprises of the following considerations: Uchch Bal (exaltation), Sapt Vargaj Bal (strength accruing out of positions in Räçi, Hora, Dreshkan, Saptäìç, Naväìç, Dvadashäìç and Trimshäìç), OjhayugmaRäçiäìç Bal (acquired by placement in odd, or even Räçis and in odd, or even Naväïç), K endradi Bal (due to placement in Kon, or Panaphara, or A poklima Bhava), Dreshkan Bal (due to placement in first, second, or third decanate of a Räçi).

Kaal Bal comprises of the following subdivisions: Nathonnata Bal (diurnal and nocturnal), Paksh Bal (fortnight), Tribhag Bal (due to day/night being made in 3 parts), Varsh, Maas, Dina and Hora Bal (V arsh - astrological year, M aas - month, D ina - weekday and H or a - planetary hour), A yan Bal (equinoctial), Y udhhd Bal (due to partaking in war between Grahas).

1-1½. Sthan Bal (up to Sloka 6). Firstly Uchch Bal. Now about the strengths by classes positional, temporal etc. Deduct from the longitude of the Grah its (deep) debilitation point. If the sum is less than 6 Räçis, consider it, as it is; if it exceeds 6 Räçis, deduct the same from 12 Räçis. The sum so got be converted into degrees etc. and divided by 3, which is the Grah's Uchch Bal in Virupas.

2-4. Sapt Vargaj Bal. If a Grah is in its Mooltrikon Räçi, it gets 45 Virupas, in Svasth Räçi 30 Virupas, in Pramudit Räçi 20 Virupas, in Shant Räçi 15 Virupas, in Din Räçi 10 Virupas, in Duhkhit Räçi 4 Virupas and in K hai Räçi 2 Virupas. Similarly these values occur for the other 6 divisional occupations, viz. Hora, Dreshkan, Saptäìç, Naväïç, Dvadashäìç and Trimshäìç. When all these are added together the Grahas Sapt Vargaj Bal emerges.

4½ OjhayugmaRäçiäìç Bal. Each of Çukr and Candr in even Räçis and others in odd Räçis acquire a quarter of Rupa. These are applicable to such Naväïças also.

5. K endradi Bal. A Grah in a K on gets full strength, while one in Panaphara B hava gets half and the one in A poklima B hava gets a quarter, as K endradi Bal.

6. Dreshkan Bal. Male, female and Hermaphrodite Grahas, respectively, get a quarter Rupa according to placements in the first, second and third decanates.

7-7½. Dégi Bal. Deduct Bandhu Bhava (Nadir) from the longitudes of Surya and Mangal, Yuvati B hava from that of Guru and Budh, Karm Bhava from that of Çukr and Candr and lastly Lagn from that of Çani. If the sum is above 180 degrees, deduct the sum from 360. The sum arrived in either way be divided by 3, which will be Dég Bal of the Grah.

8-9. Kaal Bal (up to Sloka 17). Firstly Nathonnata Bal. Find out the difference between midnight and the apparent birth time, which is called U n nata. Deduct U nnata from 30 G hatis to obtain Nata. Double the Nata in G hatis, which will indicate identical Nata Bal for Candr, Mägal and Çani. Deduct the Nata from 60 to know the U nnata Bal of Surya, Guru and Çukr. Budh, irrespective of day and night, gets full Nathonnata Bal.
10-11. Paksh Bal. Deduct from Candrs longitude that of Surya. If the sum exceeds 6 Rāçis, deduct the same from 12. The product so obtained be converted into degrees etc. and divided by 3, which will indicate the Paksh Bal of each of the benefic Grahas. The Paksh Bal of benefic should be deducted from 60, which will go to each malefic, as Paksh Bal.

12. Tribagh Bal. One Rupa is obtained by Budh in the first 1/3 part of day time, by Sūrya in the second 1/3 part of the day and by Çani in the last 1/3 part of the day. Similarly Candr, Çukr and Māgal get full Bal in the first, second and last 1/3 parts of the night. Guru gets this Bal at all times.

13. Varsh-Maas-Dina-Hora Bal. 15, 30, 45 and 60 Virupas are in order given to Varsh Lord, Maas Lord, Dina Lord and Hora Lord. Naisargika Bal has already been explained.

The Varsh Lord is the Lord of the day, on which the astrological year of birth starts. To calculate this we first need the number of days, past from the beginning of Creation, the Ahargan. According to late Rev. E benezer Burgess, who translated Sūrya Siddhanta in English, as on January 1, 1860, the number of days, past from the beginning of Creation are 714,404,108,573. Divide the number of days, past from the day of Creation till the day of birth, by 60. Reject remainder and multiply the quotient by 3. Increase the post-multiplied product by 1 and divide by 7. The remainder will indicate the week day, on which the astrological year, giving birth to the native, opened. Remainder 1 indicates Sunday, 2 Monday and so on.

Maas Lord. Divide the same Ahargan by 30 and the quotient indicates months, passed from Creation to birth. The completed months be multiplied by 2 and increased by 1. The latter sum should be divided by 7 and the remainder indicates, on which day the birth month began. Continuing with the same case, we divide 65295 by 30. Quotient is 2176. This sum multiplied by 2 and increased by 1 denotes 4353. Dividing 4353 by 7, we get a remainder of 6, denoting Friday. That is, the month of birth began on Friday and the Maas Bal goes to Çukr, the Lord of Friday.

Dina Lord. Though the week day of birth can be known from ephemeris, or perpetual calendars, we better adopt the method prescribed, which will confirm, if the Ahargan followed is correct. The number of days, as arrived above, indicating A hargan, be divided by 7 and the remainder will indicate the week day of birth.

Hora Bal. Hora means planetary hour. Each day from sunrise to sunrise is divided into 24 equal parts of one hour. These Horas are ruled by the 7 Grahas from Sūrya to Çani. The first Hora of the day is ruled by the Lord of the week day. The 2nd one is ruled by the Lord of the 6th week day, counted from the first ruler. The 3rd Hora is ruled by the Lord of the 6th week day, counted from the 2nd Hora Lord. Similarly it proceeds in the same manner, till the first Hora of the next day is taken over by the Lord of that day himself. Whichever Graha rules the birth Hora, gets the Hora Bal. Horas are to be calculated for mean local time and not standard time of births.

14. Naisargika Bal. Divide one Rupa by 7 and multiply the resultant product by 1 to 7 separately, which will indicate the Naisargika Bal, due to Çani, Māgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, Candr and Sūrya, respectively.

15-17. A yan Bal. 45, 33 and 12 are the K handas for calculating A yan Bal. A dd A yānāç to the Graha and find out the Bhujā (distance from the nearest equinox). A dd the figure, corresponding to the Rāci (of the Bhujā) to the Bhujā. The degrees etc. of the Bhujā should be multiplied by the figure, corresponding to the highest of the left out Khandas and divided by 30. A dd the resultant product to the sum, obtained earlier. Convert this to Rāci, degrees, minutes and seconds. If Candr and Çani are in Tula, or ahead, add to this 3 Rācis and, if in Māsh to Kanya, reduce from this 3 Rācis. Similarly it is reverse for Sūrya, Māgal, Çukr and Guru. For Budh 3 Rācis are always additive. The resultant sum in Rāci, degrees and minutes be divided by 3 to get the A yan Bal in R upas.

Notes. A yan Bal can be found out on the following simple formula: A yan Bal = 60*(23727 + K ranti)/(46?54) = (23727 ± K ranti)*1.2793.

The following points have to be remembered in respect of Krantis. When Candr, or Çani have southern K ranti, or, when Sūrya, Māgal, Guru, or Çukr have northern K ranti, take plus. In a contrary situation in respect of these 6 Grahas, take minus. A s far as Budh is concerned, it is always plus. K rantis (or declinations) can be ascertained from a standard modern ephemeris.
Süryas Ayan Bal is again multiplied by 2 whereas for others the product arrived in Virupas is considered, as it is.

18. Motional Strength for Sürya and Candr. Süryas Chesht Bal will correspond to his Ayan Bal. Candrs Paksh Bal will itself be her Chesht Bal.

19. Drik Bal. Reduce one fourth of the Drishti Pinda, if a Graha receives malefic Drishtis and add a fourth, if it receives a Drishti from a benefic. Super add the entire Drishti of Budh and Guru to get the net strength of a Graha.

20. War Between Grahas. Should there be a war between the starry Grahas, the difference between the Shad Balas of the two should be added to the victors Shad Bal and deducted from the Shad Bal of the vanquished.

21-23. Motions of Grahas (Māl gal to Ĉani). Eight kinds of motions are attributed to Grahas. These are Vakr (retrogression), A nuavkr (entering the previous Rāci in retrograde motion), Vikal (devoid of motion), M and (somewhat slower motion than usual), Mandatar (slower than the previous), Sama (somewhat increasing in motion), A tichar (entering next Rāci in accelerated motion). The strengths, allotted due to such 8 motions are 60, 30, 15, 15, 7.5, 45 and 30.

24-25. Motional Strength for Māl gal etc. Add together the mean and true longitudes of a Graha and divide the one by two. Reduce this sum from the Seeghrirh (or apogee) of the Graha. The resultant product will indicate the Chesht Kendra (or Seeghr Kendra) of the Graha from 12 Rācis. The Rāci, degrees and minutes so arrived should be converted into degrees, minutes etc. and divided by 3, which will denote the motional strength of the Graha. Thus there are six sources of strength, called Sthan Bal, Dig Bal, Kaal Bal, Drik Bal, Chesht Bal and Naisargika Bal.

26-29. Bhava Balas. Thus I explained about the strengths of the Grahas. Deduct Yuvati Bhava from the Bhava, if the Bhava happens to be in Kanya, Mithun, Tula, Kumbh, or the first half of Dhanu. If Mesh, Vrishabh, Simh, or first half of Makar, or the second half of Dhanu happen to be the Bhava, deduct Bandhu Bhava from it. Should the Bhava be in Kark, or in Vrischik, deduct from it Lagn. Deduct Karm Bhava from the Bhava, happening to fall in Makar second half, or Meen. Convert the product so obtained into degrees etc. and divide by 3 to get the Bhava Bal. If the balance in the process of deducting Nadir, Meridian, Lagn, or Yuvati exceeds 6 Rācis, deduct it again from 12 Rācis, before converting into degrees and dividing by 3. The product after division should be increased by one fourth, if the Bhava in question receives a benefic Drishti. If the Bhava receives a malefic Drishti, one fourth should be reduced. If Guru, or Budh give a Drishti to a Bhava, add that Graha’s Drik Bal also. And then superadd the strength, acquired by the Lord of that Bhava. This will be the net Bhava Bal.

30-31. Special Rules. The Bhavas, occupied by Guru and Budh will each get an addition of 1 Rupa, while each of the Bhavas, occupied by Ĉani, Māl gal and Sürya, suffer 1 Rupa reduction. 15 Virupas will have to be added to the Bhavas, falling in Seershodaya Rācis, if birth happens to be in day time, to the Bhavas, falling in Dual Rācis, if birth happens to be in twilight and to the Bhavas, falling in Prishtodaya Rācis, if birth be in night time.

32-33. Shad Bal Requirements. 390, 360, 300, 420, 390, 330 and 300 Virupas are the Shad Bal Pindas, needed for Sürya etc. to be considered strong. If the strength exceeds the above-mentioned values, the Graha is deemed to be very strong. If a Graha has the required Shad Bal, it will prove favourable to the native by virtue of its strength. However, Ĉanis extreme strength will give long life as well as miseries.

34-36. Guru, Budh and Sürya are strong, if each of their Sthan Bal, Dig Bal, Kaal Bal, Chesht Bal and Ayan Bal are, respectively, 165, 35, 50, 112 and 30 Virupas. The same required for Candr and Ĉukr are 133, 50, 30, 100 and 40. For Māl gal and Ĉani these are 96, 30, 40, 67 and 20.

37-38. Bhava Effects. Ò Brahmin, thus the various sources of strengths be gathered together and effects declared. Whatever Yugas, or effects have been stated with respect to a Bhava, will come to pass through the strongest Graha.

39-40. Eligibility of Issue Fruitful Predictions. Ó Maitreya, the words of one, who has achieved skill in mathematics, one, who has put in industrious efforts in the branch of grammar, one, who has knowledge of justice, one, who is intelligent, one, who has knowledge of geography, space and time, one, who has conquered his senses, one, who is skilfully logical (in estimation) and one, who is favourable to Jyotish, will doubtless be truthful.

Ch. 28. Isht and Kasht Balas

1. Now I narrate the benefic and malefic tendencies of the Grahas, based on which the Dasha effects can be decided.

2. Exaltation Rays. Deduct the Grahs debilitation point from its actual position. If the sum exceeds 6 Rācīs, deduct from 12 Rācīs. The said sum should then be increased by 1 Rācī. The degrees etc. be multiplied by 2, which, when considered along with Rācīs, will indicate the Uchch Rasmi of the Grah.

3-4. Chesht Rasmi. Chesht Rasmis are to be calculated from Chesht Kendr similar to Uchch Rasmi computations. The Chesht Kendras of Grahas from Māgal to Čani have already been explained. A dd 3 Rācīs to Sayan Sūrya (i.e. with Ayanāṃś), which will be the Chesht Kendr for Sūrya. The sidereal longitude of Sūrya should be deducted from Candr to get Candrs Chesht Kendr. If the Chesht Kendr (for any Grah) is in excess of 6 Rācīs, deduct it from 12 Rācīs. A dd 1 Rācī and multiply the degrees etc. by 2, which will indicate the Chesht Rasmi of the Grah.

5. Benefic and Malefic Rays. Add the Uchch Rasmis and Chesht Rasmis together and divide by two. The result will be auspicious rays (Subh Rasmis). Deduct from 8 the Subh Rasmis to obtain inauspicious rays (Asubh Rasmis).

6. Isht and Kasht Tendencies. Reduce 1 from each of Chesht Rasmi and Uchch Rasmi. Then multiply the products by 10 and add together. Half of the sum will represent the Isht Phala (benefic tendency) of the Grah. Reduce Isht Phala from 60 to obtain the Grahs Kasht Phala (malefic tendency).

7-9. Isht and Kasht and Sapt Varg Phal. 60, 45, 30, 22, 15, 8, 4, 2 and 0 are the Subhankas (Subha Griha Pankthis, benefic points), due to a Grahs placement, respectively, in exaltation, Mooltrikon, own, great friends, friends, neutral, enemys, great enemys and debilitation Rācī. If Subhanka is deducted from 60, A subhanka (A subh Pankthi, inauspicious points) will emerge. O Brahmin, in other Vargas these are halved.

10. A Grah is considered auspicious in the first five of the said places. In the sixth place it is neutral, i.e. neither good nor bad. A nd in the other three places it is inauspicious.

11-12. Nature of Effects, due to Dig Bal etc. The directional strength of a Grah is itself representative of the effects, due to the direction; and Kaal Bal itself is indicative of effects, due to the day. Whatever quantum of Dig Bal etc. are obtained by a Grah, will be the extent of auspicious effects, acquirable on account of that strength. Deducting those figures from 60, the extent of inauspiciousness is known. If auspiciousness is more in the case of a Grahs strength, the Dasha and Bhavas, related to that Grah will be auspicious. These are converse, if inauspiciousness is predominant.

13-14. Sapt Varg Phal and Isht and Kasht (Continued). The various strengths (i.e. the other 6 Vargas) be multiplied by the respective Grahs Shad Bal Pinda, which will indicate the auspiciousness of the V arg concerned. A auspicious, or inauspicious aspect will be by multiplying the Subh, or A subh Pankthi. Similarly auspicious, or inauspicious effects will be known by multiplying the auspicious, or inauspicious strength by the respective Pankthi.

15-20. Effects of a Bhava. The strength of a Bhava and its Lord have already been explained. The actual effects will be a combination of Bhava strength and its Lords strength. If there is a benefic in the Bhava add the same to the auspicious effects and deduct from inauspicious effects, which will denote the inauspicious effects. If a malefic is in the Bhava, reverse the process, i.e. add inauspicious effects and deduct auspicious effects. Similarly Drishtis and Balas. If a Grah is exalted, or with such a dignity, add auspicious effects and reduce inauspicious effects. For debilitation etc. it is converse. In Ahtak V arg add Bindus (auspicious points) and deduct Karanas (inauspicious points). If a Bhava extends to two Rācīs, the rectification will be done, as per both the Lords. In that case, whichever Rācī has more B indus, that Rācī will yield more favourable results, concerning that Bhava. If both the Räçis have more auspicious Bindus, take the average. Thus the auspicious and inauspicious effects of a Bhava be understood.

Ch. 29. Bhava Padas

1-3. Method of Bhava Calculation. O Brahmin, I shall now tell you about the Padas (Arudhas) for Bhavas and Grahas as well, as laid down by the earlier Maharishis. The Pad of Lagn will correspond to the Räçi, arrived at by counting so many Räçis from Lagns Lord, as he is away from Tanu Bhave. Similarly Padas for other Bhavas be known through their Lords. The word Pad exclusively denotes the Pad for Lagn.

Names of the 12 Arudhas are Lagn Pad - A rudh of Tanu Bhava, D han of D han, Vikram (Bhratru) of Sahaj, M atru (Sukh) of Bandhu, M antra (Putr) of Putr, Rog (Satru) of A ri, Dar (Kalatr) of Y uvati, Maran of Randhr, Pitru of Dharm Bhava, K arm of K arm, Labh of Labh, V yaya of V yaya.

4-5. Special Exceptions. The same Bhava, or the 7th from it does not become its Pad. When the Pad falls in the same Bhava, the 10th therefrom be treated, as its Pad. Similarly, when the 7th becomes the Pad of a Bhava, the 4th from the original Bhava in question be treated, as its Pad. If the ruler of a Bhava be in the 4th from the Bhava, then the very Bhava occupied be noted, as the Pad.

6-7. Padas for Grahas. Note the position of a Grah and see how many Räçis away is its own Räçi with reference to its position. Count so many Räçis from the said own Räçi and the resultant Räçi will become the Arudh of the Grah. If a Grah owns two Räçis, or, if a Räçi is owned by two Grahas; consider the stronger and declare effects accordingly.

8-11. Pad and Finance (up to Sloka 15). O Brahmin, I now tell you of some effects of Grahas, based on Pad. If the 11th from Lagn Pad is occupied, or receives a Drishti from a Grah the native will be happy and rich; wealth will come through various means, if a benefic is related, as above. A malefic will confer wealth through questionable means. If there be both a benefic and a malefic, it will be through both means. If the Grah in question be in exaltation, or in own Räçi etc., there will be plenty of gains and plenty of happiness.

12. O excellent of the Brahmins, if the 12th from Lagn Pad does not receive a Drishti, as the 11th from Lagn Pad receives a Drishti from a Grah, then the gains will be uninterrupted.

13-15. O Brahmin, the quantum of gains will correspond to the number of Grahas in, or giving a Drishti to the 11th from Lagn Pad. If there is Argala for the said 11th, there will be more gains, while a benefic Argala will bring still more gains. If the said benefic, causing Argala is in his exaltation Räçi, the gains will be still higher. If the said 11th receives a Drishti from a benefic from Lagn, the 9th etc., gains will increase in the ascending order. In all these cases, the 12th from Pad should simultaneously be free from malefic association. A benefic, placed in Lagn, giving a Drishti to the 11th from A rudh Lagn will be still beneficial. If the Drishti is from the 9th from Lagn, it will confer much more gains.

16-17. Pad and Financial Losses (up to Sloka 21). If the 12th from Lagn Pad receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with both benefics and malefics, there will be abundant earnings, but plenty of expenses. The benefic will cause through fair means, malefic through unfair means and mixed Grahas through both fair and unfair means.

18. If the 12th from Lagn Pad is conjunct Surya, Çukr and Rahu, there will be loss of wealth through the king. Candr, giving a Drishti to (the said trio in the said Bhava), will specifically cause more such losses.

19. If Budh is in the 12th from Lagn Pad and is yuti with, or receives a Drishti from a benefic, similarly there will be expenses through paternal relatives. A malefic so related to the said Budh will cause loss of wealth through disputes.

20. O Brahmin, if Guru is in the 12th from Lagn Pad, receiving a Drishti from others, the expenses will be through taxes and on the person himself.
21. O Brahmin, if Çani is in the 12th from Lagn Pad along with Maïgal and receives a Drishti from others, the expenses will be through one's co-born.

22. Gainful Sources. Whatever sources of expenses are indicated above with reference to the 12th from Lagn Pad, gains through similar sources will occur, if Labh Bhava so features with reference to Lagn Pad.

23. The 7th Bhava from Pad (up to Sloka 27). If Rahu, or K etu is placed in the 7th from Lagn Pad, the native will be troubled by disorders of the stomach, or by fire.

24. Should there be K etu in the 7th from Lagn Pad, receiving a Drishti from, or being yuti with another malefic, the native will be adventurous, will have (prematurely) grey hair and a big male organ.

25. Should one, two, or all three of Guru, Çukr and Candr be in the 7th from Lagn Pad, the native will be very wealthy.

26. Whether a benefic, or a malefic, if be exalted in the 7th from Lagn Pad, the native will be affluent and be famous.

27. O Brahmin, these Yogas, as narrated by me with reference to the 7th from Lagn Pad, should also be considered from the 2nd of Lagn Pad.

28. A nyone of Budh, Guru and Çukr being exalted in the 2nd from Lagn Pad and being with strength will make the subject rich.

29. The Yogas so far stated by me with reference to Lagn Pad be similarly evaluated from Karakäìç as well.

30. General. If Budh is in the 2nd from Arudh Lagn, the native will Lord over the whole country. Çukr in the 2nd from Lagn Pad will make one a poet, or a speaker. If the Dar Pad falls in an angle, or in a trine, counted from Lagn Pad, or, if Lagn Pad and Dar Pad both have strong Grahas, the native will be rich and be famous in his country. If the Dar Pad falls in the 6th/8th/12th from Lagn Pad, then the native will be poor. If Lagn Pad and the 7th therefrom, or an angle, a trine, an U pachaya therefrom is occupied by a strong Grah, there will be happiness between the husband and wife. If Lagn Pad and Dar Pad are mutually in Kendras, or Konas, there will be amity between the couple. If these be in mutually 6th/8th/12th, doubtlessly mutual enmity will crop up. O Brahmin, similarly mutual relationship, or gain, or loss through son etc. be known, based on Lagn Pad and the relative Bhava Pad. If Lagn Pad and Dar Pad are mutually angular, or 3rd and 11th, or in Konas, the native will be a king, ruling the earth. Similar deductions be made with reference to mutual positions of Lagn Pad and Dhan Pad.

Ch. 30. U pa Pad

1-6. O Brahmin, now I tell you about U pa Pad, the auspiciousness of which will confer on the native happiness from progeny, wife etc. The Pad of Lagn, as discussed earlier, is of prime importance. U pa Pad is calculated for the Bhava, following the natal Lagn. This U pa Pad is also called Gaun Pad. O excellent of the Brahmins, if U pa Pad is yuti with, or receives a Drishti from a benefic Grah, one will obtain full happiness from progeny and spouse. Should the U pa Pad be in a malefics Räçi, or receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with a malefic, one will become an ascetic and go without a wife. If (in the said circumstances) there be a benefic Drishti (on U pa Pad, or the related malefic), or a yuti, deprivation of spouse will not come to pass. In this case Sürya, being exalted, or in a friendly Räçi, is not a malefic. He is a malefic, if in debilitation, or in an enemies Räçi.

Notes. Regarding U pa Pad calculations, there are more than two views on the same Sloka of Maharishi Parashar, or an identical Sutra from Jaimini. In this text, the word Anuchar is used, which denotes the Bhava, following the Lagn at birth. Normally this is V yaya B hava. However, when we study other commentaries on Jaimini (Chaukhambh Hindi edition), we are taught, that it is V yaya B hava in the case of an odd Räçi ascending and it is D han B hava in the case of an even Räçi ascending. Accordingly the Pad for the 12th, or the 2nd from Lagn is called U pa
In calculating Upa Pad the rules mentioned in verses 4 and 5 of the previous chapter be kept in mind.

7-12. Effect from the 2nd from Upa Pad. If the 2nd from Upa Pad is a benefic Rāṣṭ, or receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with a benefic, the same good results (as for wife and sons) will come to pass. If there is a Graha in the 2nd from Upa Pad in its debilitation Rāṣṭ, or debilitation Aśīṣ, or is yuti with a debilitated, or malefic Graha, there will be destruction of wife. If the said occupant be in its exaltation Rāṣṭ, or Aśīṣ, or receives a Drishti from another Graha, there will be many charming and virtuous wives. O Brahmin, if Mithun happens to be the 2nd from Upa Pad, then also there will be many wives. O excellent of the Brahmins, if the Upa Pad, or the 2nd therefrom be occupied by its own Lord, or, if the said Lord is in his other own Bhava, the death of wife will be at advanced age.

13-15. Wife from the 2nd of Upa Pad (up to Sloka 22). If a Graha being constant indicator of wife (i.e. the 7th Lord, or Çukr) is in its own Bhava, there will be loss of wife only at a later stage. If the Lord of Upa Pad, or the constant significator of wife is in exaltation, the wife will be from a noble family. Reverse will be the case, if he is debilitated. O Brahmin, if the 2nd from Upa Pad is related to a benefic, the wife will be beautiful, fortunate and virtuous.

16. Should Çani and Rahu be in the 2nd from Upa Pad, the native will lose his wife on account of calamity, or through death.

17. The native's wife will be troubled by disorder of blood, leucorrhoea (Pradar) etc., if Çukr and Ketu are in the 2nd from Upa Pad.

18. Budh with Ketu in the 2nd from Upa Pad will cause breakage of bones, while Rahu, Çani and Sūrya will cause distress of bones.

19-22. Budh and Rahu in the 2nd from Upa Pad will give a stout-bodied wife. If the 2nd from Upa Pad happens to be one of Budhs Rāṣṭis and is tenanted by Mai gal and Çani, the wife of the native will suffer from nasal disorders. Similarly a Rāṣṭ of Mai gal, becoming the 2nd from Upa Pad and occupied by Mai gal and Çani, will cause nasal disorders to ones wife. Guru and Çani will, if be in the 2nd from Upa Pad, cause disorders of ears and/or eyes to the wife. If Budh and Mai gal are placed in the 2nd from Upa Pad other than their own Rāṣṭis, or, if Rahu is with Guru in the 2nd from Upa Pad, the natives wife will suffer from dental disorders. Çani and Rahu together in one of Çanis Rāṣṭis, which is the 2nd from Upa Pad, will cause lameness, or windy disorders to the natives wife. These evils will not come to pass, if there happens to be a Yuti with, or a Drishti from a benefic (or from another benefic in the case of affliction being caused by a benefic himself).

23-23½. O Brahmin, all these effects be deduced from the natal Lagn, Lagn Pad, the 7th from Upa Pad and the Lords thereof. So say Narada and others.

25-28. About Sons. If Çani, Candr and Budh are together in the 9th from one of the said places (Sloka 23), there will be no son at all, while Sūrya, Guru and Rahu so placed will give a number of sons. Candr so placed will give a son, while a mixture of Grahas will delay the obtainment of a son. The son, caused by the Yuti of Sūrya, Guru and Rahu, will be strong, valorous, greatly successful and will destroy enemies. If Mai gal and Çani are in the said 9th, there will be no son, or a son will be obtained by adoption, or brothers son will come in adoption. In all these cases odd Rāṣṭ will yield many sons, while even Rāṣṭ will cause only a few.

29-30. M any Sons and M any Daughters. O Brahmin, if Simh happens to be Upa Pad and receives a Drishti from Candr, there will be a limited number of children. Similarly Kanya will cause many daughters.

31. Co-born form Lagn Pad (up to Sloka 36). Rahu and Çani in the 3rd, or the 11th from Lagn Pad will destroy the co-born of the native. Rahu and Çani in the 11th will indicate the destruction of elder brothers and/or sisters and in the 3rd younger ones.

32. If Çukr is in the 3rd, or the 11th from Lagn Pad, there would have been an abortion to the mother earlier. Same is the effect, if Çukr is in the 8th from natal Lagn, or from Lagn Pad.

33-36. These are the effects, o Brahmin, as stated by Maharishis for the 3rd and the 11th from Lagn Pad. Should Candr, Guru, Budh and Mai gal be in the 3rd, or the 11th from Lagn Pad, there will be many valorous co-born. Should Çani and Mai gal be in the 3rd, or the 11th from Lagn Pad, or give Drishtis thereto, younger and elder co-born will, respectively, be destroyed. If Çani is alone in one of the said Bhavas, the native will be spared, while the co-born will die. Ketu in the 3rd, or the 11th will give abundant happiness from ones sisters.

37. Other Matters from Lagn Pad (up to Sloka 43). If the 6th from Lagn Pad is occupied by a malefic and is bereft of a Yuti with, or a Drishti from a benefic, the native will be a thief.

38. If Rahu is in the 7th, or the 12th from Lagn Pad, or gives a Drishti to one of the said Bhavas, the native will be endowed with spiritual knowledge and be very fortunate.

39. If Budh is in Lagn Pad, the native will Lord over a whole country, while Guru will make him a knower of all things. Skr in this context denotes a poet/speaker (also see Ch. 29, verse 30).

40. O excellent of the Brahmins, if benefics occupy the 2nd from Upa Pad, or from Lagn Pad, the native will be endowed with all kinds of wealth and be intelligent.

41. One will surely become a thief, if the Lord of the 2nd from Upa Pad is in Dhan Bhava and is there yuti with a malefic Grah.

42-43. O Brahmin, if Rahu is in the 2nd from the Lord of the 7th, counted from Upa Pad, the native will have long and projected teeth. Ketu in the 2nd from the Lord of the 7th, counted from Upa Pad, will cause stammering and Çani in the 2nd from the Lord of the 7th, counted from Upa Pad, will make one look ugly. Mixed will be the effects, if there are mixed Grahas.

Ch. 31. Argala, or Intervention from Grahas

1. O Maharishi Parashar, you have told of auspicious effects, related to Argala. Kindly narrate its conditions and effects.

2-9. Formation of Argala. Maitreya, I explain below Argala to know the definite effects of Bhavas and Grahas. Grahas in the 4th, 2nd and the 11th cause Argalas, while obstructors of the Argala will be those in the 10th, 12th and 3rd from a Bhava, or a Grah. If the Argala causing Grah is stronger than the obstructing one, the former will prevail. Or, if the number of Argalas are more than the obstructing Grahas, then also the Argala will prevail. If there are 3, or more malefics in the 3rd they will cause Vipreet Argala (more effective intervention), which will also be harmless and be very favourable. The 5th is also an Argala place, while the Grah in the 9th will counteract such Argala. A S Rahu and Ketu have retrograde motions, the Argalas and obstructions be also counted accordingly in a reverse manner. Maharishis say, that the Argala, caused by one Grah, will yield limited effect, by two medium and by more than two, excellent effects. A Argala should be counted from a Raçi, or a Grah, as the case may be. The Argala, which is unobstructed will be fruitful, while the one duly obstructed will go astray. The Argala effects will be derived in the Dasha periods of the Raçi, or Grah concerned.

Notes. Argala in Sanskrit is figuratively used to denote an impediment, or obstruction. Some suggest, that the Argala obstruction places are countable from the Argala place instead of from the original place, or Grah. This is not logical and a glance into Gochar Vedha (obstructions during transits) will confirm our findings.

10. Special. The Argala, caused by placement of a Grah in the first one fourth part of the Raçi, is countered by another, placed in the 4th quarter of the respective obstructive Raçi. Similarly 2nd quarters Argala is eliminated by the 3rd quarter placement of another Grah.

Notes. If the Argala causing Grah and the obstructing Grah are in the respective quarters, the obstruction will come to pass. Otherwise not.

11-17. Argala Effects. Should there be Argala for the Arudh Pad, for the natal Lagn and for the 7th from both, the native will be famous and fortunate. A malefic, or a benefic, causing unobstructed Argala, giving a Drishti to Lagn will make one famous. Similarly a malefic, or a benefic, causing unobstructed Argala, giving a Drishti to Dhan Bhava denotes acquisition of wealth and grains, to Sahaj Bhava happiness from co-born, to Bandhu Bhava residences, quadrupeds and relatives, to Putr Bhava sons, grand sons and intelligence, to Arí Bhava fear from enemies, to Yuvati Bhava abundant wealth and marital happiness, to Randhr Bhava difficulties, to Dharm Bhava fortunes, to Karm Bhava royal honour, to Labh Bhava gains and to Vyaya Bhava expenses. The A rgala by benefics will give various kinds of happiness, while benefic effects will be meddling with malefic A rgalas. A rgala by both benefics and malefics will yield results.

Notes. 1. A rgala can be caused by a benefic, which is known, as Subh A rgala. This A rgala can be from a malefic also, so that the benefic, causing A rgala, stalls the malefic role. If the benefics A rgala is obstructed by another, then the benefic will become ineffective in A rgala and the first-mentioned malefic will operate freely.

2. A rgala can be by a malefic with reference to a benefic, so that the native does not enjoy good effects, due to the benefic. This is Pap (malefic) A rgala. If the A rgala is eliminated by a benefic, or a malefic, then the first mentioned benefic will be at liberty to act, according to his own disposition.

18. Should there be (unobstructed) A rgala for Lagn, Putr and D harm Bhava, the native will doubtlessly become a king and fortunate.

Ch. 32. Karakatwas of the G rahas

1-2. I now detail below A tma K arak etc., obtainable from among the 7 G rahas, viz. S ürya to Ç ani. Some say, that R ahu will become a K arak, when there is a state of similarity in terms of longitude between (two) G rahas. Y et some say, that the 8 G rahas, including R ahu, will have to be considered irrespective of such a state.

3-8. A tma K arak Defined. A mong the G rahas from S ürya etc. whichever has traversed maximum number of degrees in a particular R äçi is called A tma K arak. If the degrees are identical, then the one with more minutes of arc and, if the minutes are also identical, then the one with higher seconds of arc, have to be considered. In that case these three are called A nthya K arak, M adhya K arak and U pakheti. In the case of R ahu deduct his longitude in that particular R äçi from 30. The K arakas will have to be decided, as above and, as per further rules given below. O ut of these K arakas, A tma K arak is the most important and has a prime say on the native, just as the king is the most famous among the men of his country and is the head of all affairs and is entitled to arrest and release men.

9-12. Importance of A tma K arak. O Brahmin, as the minister cannot go against the king, the other K arakas, viz. Putr K arak, A matya K arak etc. cannot predominate over A tma K arak in the affairs of the native. If the A tma K arak is adverse, other K arakas cannot give their benefic effects. Similarly, if A tma K arak is favourable, other K arakas cannot predominate with their malefic influences.

13-17. O ther K arakas. The G rah next to A tma K arak in terms of longitude is called A matya K arak. Similarly following one another in terms of longitude are B hratru K arak, M atru K arak, Pitru K arak, Putr K arak, G nati K arak and Stri K arak. These are C har K arakas, or inconstant signifiers. Some consider M atru K arak and Putr K arak, as identical. If two G rahas have the same longitude, both become the same K arak, in which case there will be a deficit of one K arak. In that circumstance consider constant signifier in the context of benefic/malefic influence for the concerned relative.

18-21. Constant K arakatwas. I narrate below the constant K arakatwas, as related to the G rahas. T he stronger among S ürya and Çukr indicates the father, while the stronger among C andr and M ai gãl indicates the mother. M ai gãl denotes sister, brother-in-law, younger brother and mother. B udh rules maternal relative, while G uru indicates paternal grand father. H usband and sons are, respectively, denoted by Çukr and Çani. From K etu note wife, father, mother, parents-in-law and maternal grand father. These are constant K arakatwas.

22-24. B havas R elated. These constant significances are derivable from the B havas, counted from the said constant K arakatwas. T he 9th from S ürya denotes father, the 4th from C andr mother, the 3rd from M ai gãl brothers, the 6th from B udh maternal uncle, the 5th from G uru sons, the 7th from Çukr wife and the 8th from Çani death. T he learned should consider all these and declare related effects accordingly.
25-30. Yog Karakas. O Brahmin, I make below a passing reference to Yog Karakas (mutual co-workers). Grahas become Yog Karakas, if they are in mutual angles identical with own Rāgis, exaltation Rāgis, or friendly Rāgis. In Karm Bhava a Graha will be significantly so. Grahas simply (not being in friendly, own, or exaltation Rāgis) in Lagn, Bandhu and Yuvati Bhava do not become such Yog Karakas. Even, if they be placed in other Bhavas, but with such dignities, as mentioned, shall become Yog Karakas. With such Grahas even a person of mean birth will become a king and be affluent. One born of royal scion, then will surely become a king. Thus the effects be declared, considering the number of such Grahas and the order the native belongs to.

31-34. Bhava Significance. I now narrate the significance of the Bhavas. Tanu Bhava denotes the soul (self), Dhan family, finance, wife etc., Sahaj younger brothers/sisters, Putr progeny and Yuvati wife. It is also said, that a Graha in Putr becomes a Karak for wife. The Karakatwas of the Bhava in order are Sūrya, Guru, Maīgal, Candr, Guru, Maīgal, Çukr, Çani, Guru, Budh, Guru and Çani.

35-37. O excellent of the Brahmins, after knowing the merits of Tanu Bhava etc. the good and bad effects can be declared. Ari, Randhr and V yaya are Trikas, Dusthan, or malefic Bhavas. Sahaj, Ari, Karm and Labh are Upanchayas. Dhan, Putr, R andhr and Labh are Panapharas and Sahaj, Ari, D harm and V yaya are A poklimas. A ssociation with Trikas will inflict evils. Kendras and Konas (Putr and D harm) are auspicious Bhavas, the association with which turns even evil into auspiciousness.

(A Iso see Ch. 34 for more information)

Ch. 33. Effects of Karakans

1. O Brahmin, as laid down by Lord Brahma, I now tell you about the effects of Karakāṇa identical with Mesh etc. (Karakaṇa is the Navāṇa occupied by the A tma Karak Graha)

2-8. Karakaṇa in Various Rāgis. If A tma Karak happens to be in Mesh Navāṇa, there will be nuisance from rats and cats at all times. A malefic joining will further increase the nuisance. Should A tma Karak be in Vrishabh Navāṇa, happiness from quadrupeds will result. Should A tma Karak be in Mithun Navāṇa, the native will be afflicted by itch etc. Should A tma Karak be in Kark Navāṇa, there will be fear from water etc. If A tma Karak happens to be in Simh Navāṇa, fear will be from tiger etc. If A tma Karak happens to be in Kanya Navāṇa, itch, corpulence, fire etc. will cause trouble, while, if A tma Karak is in Tula Navāṇa, he will make one a trader and skilful in making robes etc. V rishik Navāṇa, holding A tma Karak, will bring troubles from snakes etc. and also affliction to mother’s breasts. There will be falls from height and conveyances etc., if it is D hanu Navāṇa, that is occupied by A tma Karak. M akar Navāṇa in this respect denotes gains from water dwelling beings and conch, pearl, coral etc. If it is Kumbh Navāṇa, holding A tma Karak, the native will construct tanks etc. A nd in Meen Navāṇa the A tma Karak will grant final emancipation. The Drishti of a benefic will remove evils, while that of a malefic will cause no good.

9-11. O Brahmin, if there be only benefics in Karakaṇa and the Navāṇa of Lagn receives a Drishti from a benefic, the native will undoubtedly become a king. Should the K endras/K onas from the Karakāṇa be occupied by benefics, devoid of malefic association, the native will be endowed with wealth and learning. T he combination of benefic and malefic influence will in this context yield mixed results. If the U pakhetu (UpaGrah, vide Ch.32 Sloka 5) is in its exaltation, or own, or friendly Rāgi and is devoid of a Drishti from a malefic, the native will go to heaven after death.

12. If the A tma Karak is in the divisions of Candr, Maīgal, or Çukr, the native will go to others wives. Otherwise the contrary will prevail.
13-18. Effects of Grahas in the Karakāç. O Brahmin, if Sūrya is in the Karakāç, the native will be engaged in royal assignments. If the full Candr is there, he will enjoy pleasures and be a scholar, more so, if Çukr gives a Drishti to the Karakāç. If strong Maṅgal is in Karakāç, he will use the weapon spear, will live through fire and be an alchemist. Should strong Budh be Karakāç, he will be skillful in arts and trading, be intelligent and educated. Guru in Karakāç denotes one, doing good acts, endowed with spiritualism and Vedic learning. One will be endowed with a longevity of 100 years, be sensuous and will look after state affairs, if Çukr is in Karakāç. Çani in Karakāç will give such livelihood, as due to the natives family. Rahu in Karakāç denotes a thief, a bowman, a machinery maker and a doctor, treating poisonous afflictions. If Kētu be in Karakāç, one will deal in elephants and be a thief.

19-22. Rahu-Sūrya in Karakāç. Should Rahu and Sūrya be in Karakāç, there will be fear from snakes. If a benefic gives a Drishti to Rahu-Sūrya in Karakāç, there will be no fear, but a malefic Drishti will bring death (through serpents). If Rahu and Sūrya occupy benefic Shad Vargas, being in Karakāç, one will be a doctor, treating poisonous afflictions, while the Drishti from Maṅgal on Rahu-Sūrya in Karakāç denotes, that the native will burn either his own house, or that of others. Budh Drishti on Rahu-Sūrya in Karakāç will not cause the burning of ones own house, but that of others. If Rahu and Sūrya happen to be in Karakāç and are in a malefics Rāgī, receiving a Drishti from Guru, one will burn a house in ones neighbourhood, while the Drishti of Çukr will not cause such an event.

23-24. Gulkī in Karakāç. Should the full Candr give a Drishti to Gulkī, placed in the Karakāç, the native will lose his wealth to thieves, or will himself be a thief. If Gulkī is in Karakāç, but does not receive a Drishti from others, one will administer poison to others, or will himself die of poisoning. Budh Drishti in this context will give large testicles.

25-29. Effects of Drishtis on Kētu in Karakāç. If Kētu is in Karakāç, receiving a Drishti from a malefic, ones ears will be severed, or one will suffer from diseases of the ears. Çukr, giving a Drishti to Kētu in Karakāç denotes one, initiated into religious order. One will be devoid of strength, if Budh and Çani give a Drishti to Kētu in Karakāç. If Budh and Çukr give a Drishti to Kētu in Karakāç, one will be the son of a female slave, or of a female remarried. With Çani Drishti on Kētu in Karakāç one will perform penance, or be a servant, or will be a pseudo-ascetic. Çukr and Sūrya together, giving a Drishti to Kētu in Karakāç, will make one serve the king. Thus, o Brahmin, are told briefly the effects of Karakāç.

30-31. Effects of the 2nd from Karakāç. If the 2nd from Karakāç falls in the divisions of Çukr, or Maṅgal, one will be addicted to others wives and, if Çukr, or Maṅgal give a Drishti to the 2nd from Karakāç, the tendency will last till death. If Kētu is the 2nd from Karakāç in a division of Çukr, or Maṅgal, addiction to others wives will not prevail, while the position of Guru will cause such an evil. Rahu in the 2nd from Karakāç will destroy wealth.

32. Effects of the 3rd from Karakāç. A malefic in the 3rd from Karakāç will make one valorous, while a benefic in the 3rd from Karakāç will make one timid.

33-35. Effects of the 4th from Karakāç. If the 4th from Karakāç falls to be occupied by Çukr and Candr, one will own large buildings, like palaces etc. Similar is the effect of an exalted Graha in the said 4th. A house, made of stones, is denoted by the occupation of the 4th from Karakāç by Rahu and Çani. Maṅgal and Kētu in the 4th from Karakāç indicate a house, made of bricks, while Guru in the 4th from Karakāç denotes a house, made of wood. Sūrya in the 4th from Karakāç will give a house of grass. If Candr is in the 4th from Karakāç, one will have union with his wife in an uncompounded house.

36-40. Effects of the 5th from Karakāç. If Rahu and Maṅgal are in the 5th from Karakāç, one will suffer from a pulmonary consumption, more so, if Candr gives them a Drishti. The Drishti of Maṅgal on the 5th from Karakāç will bring boils, or ulcers, Kētu Drishti on the 5th from Karakāç will cause dysentery and other diseases, caused by (impure) water. If Rahu and Gulkī happen to be in the 5th from Karakāç, there will be fear from mean people and poison. Should Budh be in the 5th from Karakāç, the native will be an ascetic of the highest order, or one, holding staff. Sūrya in the 5th from Karakāç denotes one, using a knife. Maṅgal in the 5th from Karakāç denotes one, using a spear. Çani denotes a bowman, if Çani is placed in the 5th from Karakāç. Rahu in the 5th from Karakāç denotes a machinist. Kētu in the 5th from Karakāç denotes a watch maker. Çukr in the 5th from Karakāìç will make one a poet and an eloquent speaker.

41-45. Effects of Karakāìç and the 5th from there. If Guru and Candr are in Karakāìç, or the 5th thereof, the native will be an author. Çukr will make one an ordinary writer, while Budh will indicate, that the writing skills are less than those of an ordinary writer. Should Guru be alone, one will be a knower of everything, be a writer and be versed in Vedas and Vedanta philosophy, but not an oratorian, or a gramarian. Mai gal denotes a logician, Budh a Mimamsaka (follower of Karma Mimansa), Çani indicates, that one is dull-witted in the assembly, Sūrya denotes, that one is a musician, Candr denotes a follower of Sankhya philosophy (of Maharishi Kapila, who enumerated 25 true principles with emphasis on final bliss) and indicates, that one is versed in rhetorics and singing and Ketu, or Rahu denotes, that one is a Jyotishi. Should Guru be related to the positions of Karakāìç or the 5th from there, while the Karakāìç is caused by others than him, the effects, as stated, will effectively come to pass. Some say, that the 2nd from Karakāìç should also be similarly considered.

46. Effects of the 6th from Karakāìç. If the 6th from Karakāìç is occupied by a malefic, the native will be an agriculturist, while he will be indolent, if a benefic is in the 6th from Karakāìç. The 3rd from Karakāìç should also be similarly considered.

47-48. Effects of the 7th from Karakāìç. If Candr and Guru are in the 7th from Karakāìç, the native will beget a very beautiful wife. Çukr in the 7th from Karakāìç denotes a sensuous wife, while Budh in the 7th from Karakāìç indicates a wife, versed in arts. Sūrya in the 7th from Karakāìç will give a wife, who will be confining domestic core, while Çani in the 7th from Karakāìç denotes a wife of a higher age bracket, or a pious and/or sick wife. Rahu in the 7th from Karakāìç will bring a widow in marriage.

49. Effects of the 8th from Karakāìç. If a benefic, or the Grah, owning the 8th from Karakāìç, happens to be in the 8th from Karakāìç, the native will be long-lived, while a malefic, placed in the 8th from Karakāìç, will reduce the life span. Drishti/Yuti of both benefics and malefics will yield a medium span of life.

50-56. Effects of the 9th from Karakāìç. If the 9th from Karakāìç receives a Drishti from, or is occupied by a benefic, the native will be truthful, devoted to elders and attached to his own religion. If a malefic gives a Drishti to, or occupies the 9th from Karakāìç, one will be attached to his religion in boyhood, but will take to falsehood in old age. If Çani and Rahu, one will betray his elders and be adverse to ancient learning. If Guru and Sūrya, one will betray his elders and will be disobedient to them. Should Mai gal and Çukr give a Drishti to, or occupy the 9th from Karakāìç and are joining in six identical Vargas, a female, ill-related to the native, will die. Budh and Candr giving a Drishti to, or occupying the 9th from Karakāìç and joining in six identical Vargas will cause imprisonment of the native, due to association with a female not of his own. If Guru is alone, related to the 9th from Karakāìç by Drishti, or by Yuti, the native will be addicted to females and be devoted to sensual enjoyments.

57-60. Effects of the 10th from Karakāìç. If the 10th from Karakāìç has a benefic, the expenses will be on good account, while a malefic in the 10th from Karakāìç will cause bad expenses. If the 10th from Karakāìç is vacant, then also good effects will follow. If there happens to be a benefic Grah in exaltation, or in own Bhava in the 10th from Karakāìç, or, if Ketu is so placed and receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with a benefic, one will attain heaven after death. One will attain full enlightenment, if Ketu is in the 12th from a Karakāṃ, or is identical with Mesh, or Dhanu and receives a Drishti from a benefic. If Ketu is in the 12th from Karakāṃ, or is there yuti with a malefic, one will not attain full enlightenment. If Sūrya and Ketu are in the 12th from Karakāṃ, the native will worship Lord Shiva. Candr and Ketu denotes a worshiper of Gauri. Çukr and Ketu of Lakshmi and a wealthy person. Māigal and Ketu of Lord Subramanya. Rahu will make one worship Durgā, or some mean deity. Ketu alone denotes Subramanyas, or Ganeshs worshipper. If Ķani is in the 12th from Karakāṃ in a malefics Rāçi, one will worship mean deities. Çukr and Ķani in the 12th from Karakāṃ in a malefics Rāçi will also make one worship mean deities. Similar inferences can be drawn from the 6th Navāṃ, counted from A matya Karakās Navāṃ.

75-76. Miscellaneous Matters (up to Sloka 84). O Brahmin, if there are two malefics in a Kon from Karakāṃ, the native will have knowledge of Mantras and Tantras (formulas for the attainment of super-human powers). If a malefic simultaneously gives a Drishti to two malefics in a Kon from Karakāṃ, the native will use his learnings of Mantras and Tantras for malevolent purposes, while a benefics Drishti will make him use the learnings for public good.

77-84. If Candr is in the Karakāṃ, receiving a Drishti from Çukr, the native will be an alchemist and, if receiving a Drishti from Budh the native will be a doctor capable of curing all diseases. If Candr is in the 4th from Karakāṃ and receives a Drishti from Çukr, the native will be afflicted by white leprosy. Should Rahu and Māigal be in the 4th, or 5th from Karakāṃ, the native will suffer from black leprosy. Should Rahu and Māigal be in the 4th, or 5th from Karakāṃ, the native will suffer from pulmonary consumption and, if simultaneously there happens to be Candrs Drishti on the 4th, or the 5th, this affliction will be certain. Māigal alone in the 4th, or the 5th will cause ulcers. If Ketu is in the 4th, or the 5th, one will suffer from dysentery and affictions, due to (impure) water. Rahu and Guliak will make one a doctor, curing poisonous afflictions, or will cause troubles through poison. Should Ķani be alone in the 4th, or 5th, the native will be skillful in archery. Ketu lonely placed in the 4th, or the 5th will make one a maker of watches etc. Budh lonely placed in the 4th, or the 5th will make one an ascetic of the highest order, or an ascetic, holding staff. Rahu, Sūrya and Māigal, respectively, in these places denote a machinist, a knife user and a spear, or arrow user.

85-86. Candr and Guru in the Karakāṃ, or in the 5th therefrom denotes a writer well versed in all branches of learning. The grade of writership will comparatively descend in the case of Çukr and even further in the case of Budh.

87-92 ½. Grahas in the 5th from Karakāṃ. Should Çukr be in the 5th from Karakāṃ, the native will be eloquent and a poet. Guru denotes, that he be an exponent and be all knowing, but be unable to speak in an assembly. He will be further a grammarian and a scholar in Vedas and Upanishads. Ķani will make one ineffective in an assembly, while Budh will make him skilful in Karma Mīmsāṇa. Māigal in Karakāṃ, or the 5th therefrom will make one a justice, while Candr in Karakāṃ, or the 5th therefrom denotes a Sāntkhya Yogi, a rhetor, or a singer. Sūrya in the 5th from Karakāṃ will make one learned in Vedanta and music. Ketu will make one a mathematician and skilful in Jyotish. Should Guru be related to the said Ketu, these learnings will be by inheritance. All these as well apply to 2nd and 3rd from Karakāṃ, and the Karakāṃ itself apart from applying to the 5th from Karakāṃ.

93-93 ½. Should Ketu be in the 2nd, or 3rd from Karakāṃ, the native will be defective in speech, more so, if a malefic gives a Drishti to Ketu, as above.

94-99. If malefics be in Karakāṃ, or Arudh Lagn and the 2nd and 8th from these places, there will be Kemadrum Yogs, the effects of which will be still severer, if Candrs Drishti happens to be there. The effects, due for these Yogs, will come to pass in the Dasha periods of the Rāçi, or Grahas concerned. Kemadrum Yog will operate additionally, if there are malefics in the 2nd and 8th from the Rāçi, whose Dasha will be in currency. The results of such Yog will also be inauspicious. If the 2nd and 8th in the Kundali, cast for the beginning of a Dasha, have malefics, then also Kemadrum prevails throughout the Dasha.
Ch. 34. Yoga Karakas

1. O Brahmin, thus I have told you about the effects, derivable through Karakāṇa. Now listen to the effects, arising out of lordships of Grahas over Bhavas.

2-7. Nature due to Lordships of Grahas. Benefics, owning Kendras, will not give benefic effects, while malefics, owning Kendras, will not remain inauspicious. The Lord of a Kon will give auspicious results. The Lord of Lagn is specially auspicious, as Lagn is a Kendr, as well as a Kon. Putr and Dharma Bhava are specially for wealth, while Yuvati and Karm Bhava are specially for happiness. A ny Grah, owning Sahaj, A ri, or Labh Bhava, will give evil effects. The effects, due to the Lords of Vāya and R andhr Bhava, will depend on their association. In each group the significance will be in the ascending order. Randhrs Lord is not auspicious, as he owns the 12th from Dharma Bhava. If the Lord of Randhr Bhava simultaneously owns Sahaj, Yuvati, or Labh Bhava, he will prove specifically harmful, while his simultaneous ownership of a Kon will bestow auspicious effects. The Grah, owning a predominant Bhava, will stall the effects, due to another, owning a less significant Bhava and will give his own results. Randhrs lordship of Sūrya and Candra is not evil.

8-10. Natural Benefics and Malefics. Guru and Cukr are benefics, while Candra is mediocre in benefice and Budh is neutral (a benefic, when associated with a benefic and a malefic, when related to a malefic). Malefics are Sūrya, Cani and Maīgal. Full Candra, Budh, Guru and Cukr are stronger in the ascending order. Weak Candra, Sūrya, Cani and Maīgal are stronger (in malefic disposition) in the ascending order. In revealing maleficence, due to rulership of Kendras, Candra, Budh, Guru and Cukr are significant in the ascending order.

11-12. Lordships of Kendras and Konas. If there be an exchange between a Lord of a Kendr and a Lord of a Kon, or, if a Lord of a Kendr is yuti with a Lord of a Kon, they cause a Yog. One born in such a Yog will become a king and be famous.

13. If one and the same Grah gets the lordships of a Kon, as well as a Kendr, or, if a Grah is in a Kendr, or in a Kon, it will prove specially a Yog Karak.

14. Lordship of Kendr. It has been said, that a malefic, owning a Kendr, will become auspicious, which is true, only when it simultaneously Lords over a Kon and not by merely owning a Kendr.

15. If the Lords of a Kendr, or a Kon own simultaneously an evil Bhava, he does not cause a Raj Yog by mere relations stipulated (as per Ch. 34, Slokas 11 and 12).

16. Rahu and Ketu. Rahu and Ketu give predominantly the effects, as due to their yuti with a Bhava Lord, or, as due to the Bhava they occupy.

17. If Rahu and/or Ketu are in Kendr, receiving a Drishti from, or in association with the Lord of a Kon, or of a Kendr, it will become Yog Karak.

18. O Maharishi Parashar, please narrate, according to the Rāgis rising, as to which Grah is a Yog Karak and which is inauspicious.

19-22. Grahas and Mesh Lagn. O Brahmin, listen to these with examples. Even though Maīgal is the Lord of Randhr Bhava, he will be helpful to auspicious Grahas. Cani, Budh and Cukr are malefics. Auspicious are Guru and Sūrya. The mere Yuti of Cani with Guru will not produce auspicious results (although they own a Kon and a Kendr). If Guru is at the disposal of a malefic, he will surely give inauspicious results. Cukr is a direct (independent) killer. Cani etc. will also inflict death, if associated with an adverse Grah (Cukr).

25-26. Grahas and Mithun Lagn. Maīgal, Guru and Sūrya are malefics, while Cukr is the only auspicious Grah. The Yuti of Guru with Cani is similar to that for Mesh Lagn. Candra is the prime killer, but it is dependant on her association.
27-28. Grahas and Kark Lagn. Çukr and Budh are malefics. Mai gal, Guru and Candr are auspicious. Mai gal is capable of conferring a full-fledged Yog and giving auspicious effects. Çani and Sûrya are killers and give effects, according to their associations.

29-30. Grahas and Simh Lagn. Budh, Çukr and Çani are malefics. A suspicious effects will be given by Mai gal, Guru and Sûrya. Gurus Yuti with Çukr (though, respectively, K on and K endr Lords) will not produce auspicious results. Çani and Candr are killers, who will give effects, according to their associations.

31-32. Grahas and Kanya Lagn. Mai gal, Guru and Candr are malefics, while Budh and Çukr are auspicious. Çûkrs Yuti with Budh will produce Y og. Çukr is a killer as well. Sûryas role will depend on his association.

33-34. Grahas and Tula Lagn. Guru, Sûrya and Mai gal are malefics. A suspicious are Çani and Budh. Candr and Budh will cause R aj Y og. Mai gal is a killer. Guru and other malefics will also acquire a disposition to inflict death. Çukr is neutral.

35-36. Grahas and Vrischik Lagn. Çukr, Budh and Çani are malefics. Guru and Candr are auspicious. Sûrya, as well as Candr are Y og K arakas. Mai gal is neutral. Çukr and other malefics acquire the quality of causing death.

37-38. Grahas and Dhanu Lagn. Only Çukr is inauspicious. Mai gal and Sûrya are auspicious. Sûrya and Budh are capable of conferring a Y og. Çani is a killer, Guru is neutral. Çukr acquires killing powers.

39-40. Grahas and Makar Lagn. Mai gal, Guru and Candr are malefics, Çukr and Budh are auspicious. Çani will not be a killer on his own. Mai gal and other malefics will inflict death. Sûrya is neutral. Only Çukr is capable of causing a superior Y og.

41-42. Grahas and Kumbh Lagn. Guru, Candr and Mai gal are malefics, while Çukr and Çani are auspicious. Çukr is the only Grah, that causes R aj Y og. Guru, Sûrya and Mai gal are killers. Budh gives meddling effects.

43-44. Grahas and Meen Bhava. Çani, Çukr, Sûrya and Budh are malefics. Mai gal and Candr are auspicious. Mai gal and Sûrya will cause a Y og. Though Mai gal is a killer, he will not kill the native (independently). Çani and Budh are killers.

45-46. General. Thus the auspicious and inauspicious effects, derivable through the Grahas, due to their lordship, according to the rising Râçi, have to be estimated. Apart the effects, due to Nabhash Y ogas etc., should also be known, which I narrate, as under.

3-5. Raj Yugas are to be known from the Karaka Lagna and the natal Lagna. On the one hand the pair of Atma Karaka and Putr Karaka should be considered and on the other hand the natal Lagnas Lord and Putras Lord should be taken into consideration. The effects, due to such association, will be full, or a half, or a quarter, according to their strengths.

6-7. Maha Raj Yuga. Should Lagnas Lord and Putras Lord exchange their Rasis, or, if Atma Karaka and Putr Karaka (Char) are in Lagna, or in Putra Bhava, or in the exaltation Rashi, or in own Rashi, or in own Navas, receiving a Drishti from a benefic, Maha Raj Yuga is produced. The native so born will be famous and happy.

15. If the 3 Lagnas (natal, Hora and Ghatik) are occupied by Grahas in exaltation, or in own Rashi, or, if the natal Lagna, the Dreshkan Lagna and the Navali Lagna have exalted Grahas, Raj Yuga is formed.

16. If Chandr and a benefic are in the A rudh Lang, as Guru is in the 2nd from the natal Lagna and both these places are receiving Drishtis from Grahas in exaltation, or Grahas in own Rashi, there will be a Raj Yuga.

17. If Lagna, Dhan and Bandhu Bhava are occupied by benefics, while a malefic is in Sahaj Bhava, one will become a king, or equal to a king.

18. The native will be wealthy, if one among Chandr, Guru, Cukr and Budh is exalted in Dhan Bhava.

19. If Cti, Randhr and Sahaj Bhava are occupied by debilitated Grahas, as Lagnas Lord is exalted, or is in own Bhava and gives a Drishti to Lagna, there is a Raj Yuga.

21. If K arms Lord, placed in his own Bhava, or in its exaltation Rāçi, gives a Drishti to Lagn, a Raj Yog is formed. Similar is the case, if benefics are in K endras.

25. If Bhava, H ora and G hatik Lagnas, their D reshkanas and Navāī čas, or the said Lagnas and their Navāī čas, or the said Lagnas and their D reshkanas receive a D rishti from a G rah, a Raj Yog is formed.
26-27. If A rudh Pad is occupied by an exalted G rah, particularly Candr in exaltation, or by Guru and/or Çukr (with, or without exaltation), while there is no Argala by a malefic, the native will become a king. If the A rudh Pad is a benefic Rāçi, containing Candr, while Guru is in D han B hava, the same effect will prevail.
28. Even, if one among Aris, Randhrs and Vyayas Lords, being in debilitation, gives a Drishti to Lagn, there will be a Raj Yog.
29-31. The native will become a king, if a G rah, ruling Bandhu, K arm, D han, or Labh, gives a Drishti to Lagn, while Sukr gives a Drishti to the 11th from A rudh Lagn, as A rudh Lagn is occupied by a benefic. The same effect will be obtained, if a debilitated G rah gives a Drishti to Lagn and is placed in A ri, or Randhr Bhava. A gain similar result will prevail, if a debilitated G rah, placed in Sahaj, or Labh B hava, gives a Drishti to Lagn.
32. I now tell you of the Raj Yogas, based on the Grahas with different dignities and on the Drishtis and Y utis of the Grahas.
33-34. D harms Lord is akin to a minister and more especially Putrs Lord. If these two Grahas mutually give a Drishti, the native will obtain a kingdom. Even, if these two are yuti in any B hava, or, if they happen to be placed in mutually 7th places, one born of royal scion will become a king.
35. The native will attain a kingdom, if a Bandhu, K arm Bhava and Karms Lord is in Bandhu B hava and, if these Grahas give a Drishti to Putrs and D harms Lords.
36. If the Lords of Putr, K arm, Bandhu and Lagn are yuti in D harm B hava, one will become a ruler with fame, spreading over the four directions.
37. Should the Lord of Bandhu, or of K arm Bhava join either the Putrs Lord, or D harms Lord, the native will obtain a kingdom.
38. If Putrs Lord is in Lagn, Bandhu, or K arm Bhava, yuti with D harms Lord, or Lagn Lord, the native will become a king.
39. Should G rup be in his own Rāçi identical with D harm B hava and yuti with either Çukr, or Putrs Lord, the native will obtain royal status.
40. T wo and a half Ghatis from midday, or from mid-night is auspicious time. A birth during such an auspicious time will cause one to be a king, or equal to him.
41. Should Candr and Çukr be mutually in Sahaj and Labh B hava and receiving Drishtis from each other, while they are placed elsewhere, a Raj Yog is obtained.
42. Should Candr, endowed with power, be V argottāi č, and receives a Drishti from four, or more G rahas, the native will become a king.
43. O ne will become a king, if Lagn in Uttamāi č receives a Drishti from four, or more G rahas, out of which Candr should not be one.
44. If one, or two, or three G rahas are in exaltation, one of a royal scion will become a king, while another will be equal to a king, or be wealthy.
45. If four, or five Grahas occupy their exaltation Rāçi, or Mooltrikon Rāçi, even a person of base birth will become king.
46. If six Grahas are exalted, the native will become emperor and will enjoy various kinds of royal paraphernalia.
47. Even, if one among Guru, Çukr and Budh is in exaltation, while a benefic is in a Kendr, the native will become a king, or be equal to him.
48. If all benefics are relegated to Kendras, while malefics are in Sahaj, A ri and Labh Bhava, the native, though may be of mean descent, will ascend the throne.

Ch. 40. Yogas For Royal Association

1. If K arms Lord is yuti with, or receives a Drishti from the dispositor of A matya K arak, or even, if K arms Lord is yuti with, or receives a Drishti from A matya K arak himself, the native will be a chief in the kings court.
2. If K arm and Labh Bhava are devoid of malefic occupation and devoid of Drishti from a malefic, while Labh Bhava receives a Drishti from its own L ord, the native will be a chief in the kings court.
3. Should A matya K arak and the dispositor of A tma K arak be together, the native will be endowed with great intelligence and will be a kings minister. (K arakendr is interpreted here, as the dispositor of A tma K arak. Similarly A matyesa means the dispositor of A matya K arak)
4. If A tma K arak is strong and is with a benefic, or A matya K arak is in its own B hava, or in exaltation, one will surely become a kings minister.
5. There is no doubt in ones becoming a kings minister and famous, if A tma K arak is in T anu, or Putr, or D harm B hava.
6. If A tma K arak, or A matya K arak is placed in a Kendr, or in a K on, the native will beget royal mercy, royal patronage and happiness thereof.
7. Should malefics be in the 3rd and the 6th from Atma K arak, or from Arudh Lagn, or in Sahaj and A ri B hava, one will become A rmy chief.
8. If A tma K arak is in a Kendr, or in a K on, or in exaltation, or in its own B hava and gives a Drishti to D harm's L ord, the native will be a king's minister.
9. If the Lord of the R äçi, where Candr is placed becomes A tma K arak and, if this L ord is placed in T anu B hava along with a benefic, the native will become a king's minister at his advanced age.
10. Should the A tma K arak be in Putr, Y uvati, K arm, or D harm B hava and happen to be with a benefic, one will earn wealth through royal patronage.
11. If the A rudh of D harm B hava happens to be itself the J anm Lagn, or, if A tma K arak is placed in D harm B hava, the native will be associated with royal circles.
12. One will gain through royal association, if Labh Bhava is occupied by its own L ord and is devoid of a Drishti from a malefic. The A tma K arak should at the same time be yuti with a benefic.
13. A n exchange of R äcis between K arms L ord and Lagns L ord will make the native associated with the king in a great manner.
14. If Çukr and Candr are in the 4th from K arakäi ç L agn, the native will be endowed with royal insignia.
15. Should Lagns L ord, or the A tma K arak be yuti with Putrs L ord and be in a Kendr, or in a K on, the native will be a king, or minister.

Ch. 41. Combinations for Wealth

1. I now tell you of special combinations, giving wealth. One born to these Y ogas will surely become wealthy.
2. Y ogas for Great Affluence (up to Sloka 8). Should a R äci of Çukr be Putr B hava and be occupied by Çukr himself, while M al gal is in Labh B hava, the native will obtain great riches.
3. Should a Rācī of Budh be Putr Bhava and be occupied by Budh himself, as Labh Bhava is occupied by Candr, Maī gal and Guru, the native will be very affluent.

4. Should Simh be Putr Bhava and be occupied by Śūrya himself, as Čani, Candr and Guru are in Labh Bhava, the native will be very affluent.

5. Should Śūrya and Candr be in Labh Bhava, as Čani is in Putr Bhava identical with his own B hava, the native will be very affluent.

6. Should Guru be in Putr Bhava identical with his own Rācī, as Budh is in Labh Bhava, the native will be very affluent.

7. If a Rācī of Maī gal happens to be Putr Bhava with Maī gal therein, while Çukr is in Labh Bhava, the native will become very affluent.

8. If Kark happens to be Putr Bhava, containing Candr therein, while Çani is in Labh Bhava, the native will become very affluent.

9. Yogas for Wealth (up to Sloka 15). Should Śūrya be in Simh identical with Lagn and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Maī gal and Guru, one will be wealthy.

10. Should Candr be in Kark identical with Lagn and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Budh and Guru, one will be wealthy.

11. Should Maī gal be in Lagn identical with his own Rācī and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Budh, Çukr and Čani, the native will be rich.

12. Should Budh’s Rācī be Lagn with Budh therein and should Budh be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Çani and Guru, the native will be rich.

13. Should Guru be in Lagn identical with his own Rācī and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Budh and M angal, the native will be rich.

14. If Çukr happens to be in Lagn identical with his own Rācī and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Çani and Budh, one will be wealthy.

15. If Čani is in his own Rācī identical with Lagn and receiving a Drishti from, or being yuti with Maī gal and Guru, the native will be wealthy.

16. Other Qualified Grahas. Dharms Lord and Putās Lord are capable of bestowing wealth. Similarly Grahas, yuti with Dharms Lord and/or Putrs Lord are capable of bestowing wealth. There is no doubt, that these Grahas will give wealth during their Dasha periods.

17. The Yogas, mentioned above (up to Sloka 16) should be delineated after knowing favourable, or unfavourable dispositions of the participant Grahas and their strength and weakness.

18. Effects of the Divisional Dignities of the Lords of Kendras. If the Lord of a Kendr is in Parijatāç, the native will be liberal, if in Uttam āç, will be highly liberal, if in Gopurāç, will be endowed with prowess, if in Simhasanāç, will be honourable, if in Paravatāç, will be valorous, if in Devalokāç, will be the head of an assembly, if in Brahmlokāç, will be a sage and, if in Irravatāç, will be delighted and be celebrated in all quarters.

20-22. Effects of the Divisional Dignities of Putrs Lord. If Putrs Lord is in Parijatāç, the native will take to the branch of learning, befitting his race, if in Uttamāç, will have excellent learning, if in Gopurāç, will receive world-wide honours, if in Simhasanāç, will become a minister, if in Paravatāç, will be endowed with Vedic Knowledge, if in Devalokāç, will be a Karm Yogi (performer of actions, worldly and religious rites), if in Brahmlokāç, will be devoted to the Lord and, if in Irravatāç, will be pious.

23-27. Effects of the Divisional Dignities of Dharms Lord. If Dharms Lord is in Parijatāç, the native will visit holy places, if in Uttamāç, has been visiting holy places in the past births and he will do the same within this life-time, if in Gopurāç, will perform sacrificial rites, if in Simhasanāç, will be mighty and truthful, conqueror of his senses and will concentrate only on the Brahman, giving up all religions, if in Paravatāç, will be the greatest of ascetics, if in Devalokāç, will be an ascetic, holding a cudgel (Lagudi), or he will be a religious mendicant, that has renounced all mundane attachments and carrying three long staves, tied together, in his right hand (Tridandin) and, if in Brahmlokāç, will perform A swamedh Yagya (Horse Sacrifice) and will attain the state of Lord Indra, if in Irravatāç, will be a synonym of Dharma, or virtues just, as Lord Ram and Y udhishthira.
28. Lords of Kendras and Konas Related. The Kendras are known, as Vishnu Sthanas (Bhavas of Lord Vishnu), while the Konas are called Lakshmi Sthanas. If the Lord of a Kendr establishes a relationship with the Lord of a Kon, a Raj Yog is obtained.

(A sixth kind of relationship can also be extended in this context to Navāìç positions, though there is no specific classic sanction for this. For example in the case of a Makar native Maìgal in the Navāìç of Çukr and Çukr in the Navāìç of Māìgal will confer a superior Raj Yog. This form of relationship will be equally superior, like the first 3 relationships, mentioned in the earlier paragraph).

29-34 Effects of the Divisional Dignities of Related Lords of Kendras and Lords of Konas. If the Lord of a Kendr and the Lord of a Kon, having a relationship, as indicated in Sloka 28, happen to be in Parijat ċ, the native will be king and will protect men, if in Uttamā ċ, will be an excellent king, endowed with elephants, horses, chariots etc., if in Gopurā ċ, will be a tiger of kings, honoured by other kings and, if in Simhasana ċ, will be an emperor, ruling over the entire earth. With the said Raj Yog relationship of the said Grahas in Simhasana ċ were born Harish Candr, Manu, Bali, Anu Deva and many emperors. In the present Yuga so born is Yudhishtira (Dharm Raj of Mahabharat). Salivahanas birth and that of others will also come with this Yog. With such Lords, placed in Paravatā ċ, Manu etc. were born. The Incarnations of Lord Vishnu took place, when such Lords were placed in Devolakā ċ. With such Lords, placed in Brahmalokā ċ, Lord Brahma was born and, placed in Iravatā ċ, the Swayambhu Manu was born. (Manu is the first of the 14 Manus, identified, as the second creator, who produced the Prajapatis. To Manu the code of laws, Manu Smriti is ascribed).

Ch. 42. Combinations for Penury

1. O Lord, you have stated many Yogas, related to acquisition of wealth. Please tell me such Yogas, causing utter poverty.

2. The native will be penniless, if Lagns Lord is in Vyaya Bhava, while Vyayas Lord is in Lagn along with the Lord of a Marak, or receives a Drishti from such a Grah.

3. The native will be penniless, if Lagns Lord is in Ari Bhava, while Aris Lord is in Lagn, yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from a Marak Lord.

4. Should Lagn, or Candr be with Ketu, while Lagns Lord is in Randhr Bhava, the person concerned will be penniless.

5. If Lagns Lord along with a malefic is in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava, while D hans Lord is in an enemies Raç, or in debilitation, even a native of royal scion will become penniless.

6. If Lagns Lord is yuti with the Lord of A ri, Randhr, or V yaya B hava, or with Çani and, if Lagns Lord is devoid of a Drishti from a benefic, the native will be penniless.

7. Should Putrs and Dharms Lords be, respectively, found in Ari and Vyaya Bhava and receive a Drishti from Marak Grahas, the native will be penniless.

8. If malefics, excepting the Lords of Karm and Dharm B hava, happen to be in Lagn, associated with, or receiving a Drishti from M arak G rahas, the native will become penniless.

9. Note the Grahas, that are ruling the Raçīs, occupied by the Lords of A ri, Randhr and V yaya B hava. If the said dispositions are in such evil B havas in turn and are associated with, or receive a Drishti from malefics, the native will be miserable and indigent.

10. The Lord of the N avāìç, occupied by Candr, joining a M arak G rah, or occupying a M arak B hava, will make one penniless.

11. Should the Lord of the natal Lagn and that of the N avāìç Lagn be yuti with, or receive a Drishti from M arak G rahas, one will be penniless.

12. If inauspicious B havas are occupied by benefics, while auspicious B havas are occupied by malefics, the native will be indigent and will be distressed even in the matter of food.
13. A Grahh, associated with one of the Lords of A\(i\), Randhr and Vyaya Bhava, being bereft of a Drishti from the Lord of a Kon, will in its Dasha periods cause harm to the natives financial aspects.

14. If the 8\(th\)/12\(th\) from Atma Karak, or Randhr/Vyaya Bhava receive a Drishti from the A\(tma\) Karak\(s\) Nav\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\) Lord and the Lord of J\(a\)nma L\(a\)gn, the native will be bereft of wealth.

15. The native will be a spendthrift, if the 12\(th\) from Atma Karak receives a Drishti from the dispostor of A\(tma\) Karak, or, if Vyaya Bhava receives a Drishti from the L\(o\)rd of L\(a\)gn.

16-18. Now I tell you some Yogas for poverty along with conditions of their nullifications. Should M\(a\)ngal and \(\ddot{c}\)ani be together in D\(h\)an Bhava, the native’s wealth will be destroyed. Should Budh give a Drishti to M\(a\)ngal and \(\ddot{c}\)ani in D\(h\)an Bhava, there will be great wealth. There is no doubt in it. S\(u\)rya in D\(h\)an Bhava, receiving a Drishti from \(\ddot{c}\)ani, will cause penury, while, if S\(u\)rya is in D\(h\)an Bhava and does not receive a Drishti from \(\ddot{c}\)ani, riches and fame will be obtained. The same effects (poverty) will be declared, if \(\ddot{c}\)ani is in D\(h\)an Bhava, receiving a Drishti from S\(u\)rya.

Ch. 43. Longevity

2-3. O Brahmin, for the benefit of mankind I narrate methods of ascertaining longevity. Knowing that longevity is difficult even for gods. Many exponents have laid down various methods of longevity calculations. Following is the summary of such schools of thought.

4-8. Pindayu. The Grahas contribute to longevity, according to their being in exaltation, or debilitation and also based on their strengths and weaknesses and positions in A\(h\)v\(\ddot{a}\)\(ni\) etc. and in the various R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)is. First of all Pindayu is based on the positions of the Grahas. O Brahmin, listen carefully to what I say: 19, 25, 15, 12, 15, 21 and 20 are the number of years, contributed by the Grahas, from S\(u\)rya etc., when in exaltation. These are half of the above in debilitation. And, if the Grahas are in between exaltation and debilitation, the rule of three process should be used. Deduct the actual position of the Grah from its deep exaltation point. If the product is less than 6 R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)is, deduct it again from 12 R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)is. The product concerned should be multiplied by the number of years allotted to the Grah and divided by 12 to get the Grahs actual contribution.

9. Rectifications. Excepting \(\ddot{c}\)ukr and \(\ddot{c}\)ani, the contributions, made by others, should be halved, if they are eclipsed by S\(u\)rya. One third should be reduced, if the Grah is in its inimical R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\). This does not apply to the one in retrogression (see V\(a\)kra Charam).

10-11. Deductions for Grahas in the Visible Half of the Zodiac. Full, half, one third, one fourth, one fifth and one sixth are the deductions of contributions, made by malefics, placed in the visible half of the zodiac. Benefics in such cases lose only half of what malefics lose. Should there be more than one Grah in a Bhava, the deduction, due to the strongest, will only prevail and not deductions, due to other Grahas in that particular Bhava. Waning Candr is a benefic for this purpose.

12-13. Malefics in L\(a\)gn. In case T\(a\)nu B\(h\)ava is occupied by malefics, adopt the following procedure. Convert L\(a\)gn\(s\) Sphuta into minutes of arc and multiply it by the years etc., contributed by the occupant, and divide by 21600. The years etc. so arrived be deducted from the respective contribution, which will be the net span, donated by the Grah. If there is benefics Drishti on L\(a\)gn, containing malefics, then the loss is only half.

14-15. L\(a\)gn Contribution. The number of years, contributed by L\(a\)gn, will correspond to the number of R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)is it gained (from M\(e\)sh), while the degrees L\(a\)gn has gained in the particular R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\) will also correspondingly donate (30\(\ddot{e}\)=1 year). If the L\(a\)gn\(s\) Lord in the N\(a\)v\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)\(s\) is stronger than L\(a\)gn\(s\) Lord, then the contribution should be computed only based on the number of N\(a\)v\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\)\(s\) gained (from M\(e\)sh), otherwise the computation will be for the R\(\ddot{a}\)\(c\) L\(a\)gn.
16-17. Nisargayu. O Brahmin, now I tell you about Nisargayu. 1, 2, 9, 20, 18, 20 and 50 are the years, allotted to Candr, Maïgal, Budh, Çukr, Guru, Sürya and Çani from the period of birth.

18-19. Aîçayu. Now I will tell you about Aîçayu contributions by Lagn and Grahas. The years correspond to the number of Naväìças, counted from Mesh. Multiply the longitude in question by 108. If the product exceeds 12, expunge multiples of 12 and consider the final product in Räçis, degrees etc., as years, months etc.

20-22. The same reductions, as per Pindayu, apply to Aîçayu as well; i.e. half for a combust Grah, one third for inimical placement and the ones, due for placements in the half of the zodiac, counted from the 12th backwards. Some scholars suggest further corrections for Aîçayu, viz. to increase threefold the contribution of a Grah in exaltation, or in own Bhava and double the contribution, if the contributor is in his own Naväì ça, or in his own Dreshkan. If doubling and trebling is warranted, only trebling be done. In case of reductions also only halving is to be done, if both halving and reducing a third are required. That is how the final life-span of men be understood.

23. Longevity for Other Living Beings. For other living beings as well such computations can be made. The said figure should be multiplied by the figure, corresponding to its full span of life and divided by the figure, corresponding to the full span of life for human beings.

24-29. Full Life Span of Various Living Beings. Now I’ll tell you about the full life-span figures for various living beings. Gods and sages enjoy endless life-span (in astronomical proportions, as against ordinary mortals). The full life-span of eagles, owls, parrots, crows and snakes is one thousand years. For falcon, monkey, bear and frog the full span of life is 300 years. Demons full life-span is 150 years, while it is 120 for human beings, 32 for horses, 25 for donkeys and camels, 24 for oxen and buffaloes, 20 for peacocks, 16 for goats and rams. 14 for swans, 12 for cuckoo, dog and dove, 8 for hens etc. and 7 for birds etc.

30-31. Choice of Longevity. I have narrated 3 different methods of longevity. Listen to me about the choice among the three systems. According to which of the three, Lagn, Sürya, or Candr is stronger than the other two, Aîçayu, Pindayu, or Nisargayu should be, respectively, chosen.

32. Doubtful Cases. If two among Lagn, Sürya and Candr gain equal strength, then longevity should be worked out, as per both systems and the average of both should be considered. If all the three are equally strong, the average of the three should be considered.

33-40. Other Clues to Longevity. O excellent of the Brahmins, I will now give you details of other methods in the matter of longevity, as under. This is based on the positions of Lagns Lord, Randhr’s Lord, Çani, Candr, natal Lagn and Hora Lagn. These six are grouped into three groups thus: the Lords of Lagn and of Randhr Bhava on the one hand, Çani and Candr on the other hand and the natal Lagn and Hora Lagn on yet the other hand. Out of a group of two, if the two are in Movable Räçis, long life is denoted. One in a Fixed Räçi and the other in a Dual Räçi will also bestow long life. One in a Movable Räçi and the other in a Fixed Räçi will give medium life. If both are in Dual Räçis, then again medium life will be obtained. Short life is denoted, if one is in a Movable Räçi, as the other is in a Dual Räçi, or, if both are in Fixed Räçis. The type of life, denoted by three, or two groups be only considered. If the three groups denote different scales, then the one, indicated by the pair of natal Lagn and Hora Lagn should be only considered. In case of three different indications, if Candr is in Lagn, or Yuvati Bhava, then the one, indicated by the Çani-Candr pair will only come to pass.

41-44. Further Clarifications. If long life is denoted by all the said three groups, the span is 120 years, if by two groups, it is 108 years and, if only by one group it is 91 years. If medium life is arrived at by three groups, it is 80 years, if indicated by 2 groups, it is 72 years and, if by one group, it is 64 years. If short life is denoted by the said three groups, it is only 32 years, if indicated by two groups, the life-span is 36 years and, if by one group, the life-span is 40 years. These are rectified, as under.

45-46. Rectifications. If the contributor is in the beginning of a Räçi, his donation will be full and it will be nil, if he is at the end of a Räçi. For intermediary placements rule of three process will apply. Add the longitudes of the contributors and the sum so arrived at must be divided by the number of contributors. The latest product should be multiplied by the number of basic years and divided by 30. This will yield the net longevity.
47. Special Rule for Çani. Should Çani be a contributor, the class of longevity declines. Some advocate contrarily an increase of class in this context. If Çani is in its own Räç, or in exaltation, change in class will not occur. Even, if he receives a Driṣhti from, or is yuti with only a malefic, no change occurs.

48. Special Rule for Guru. If Guru is in Lagn, or in Yuvati Bhava and receives a Driṣhti from, or is yuti with only benefics, the class of longevity will increase.

49-50. Increase and Fall in Class of Longevity. From very short life to short life, from short life to medium life, from medium life to long life and from long life to extremely long life are the increases in the classification of longevity, when Guru warrants an increase. The reverse is true, if Çani warrants a fall in the span of life.

51. (Maitreya says) You have narrated various kinds of longevity computations. Please favour me by denoting subtle classes thereof and poor and long life-spans.

52. (Maharishi Parashar replies) These are seven-fold, viz. Bal Rışṭ, Y og Rışṭ, short, medium, long, super-natural (Dīvya) and immortality (A mrītyu).

53-54. The life-span in Bal Rışṭ is 8 years, in Y og Rışṭ 20 years, in short, medium and long lives, respectively, 32, 64 and 120 years. Super-natural life-span is 1000 years. Above this super-natural life-span of 1000 years it is A mrītyu, which can be acquired only by those, who deserve it.

55. Limitless Longevity. Should Kark be Lagn with Guru and Candr therein, while Çukr and Budh are in Kendras and others are in Sahaj, A ri and Labh Bhava, the native will obtain limitless longevity.

56. Super-Natural Longevity. One having benefics in Kendras and/or Konas, while malefics are in Sahaj, A ri and Labh Bhava will obtain super-natural life-span. Randhr Bhava in this case should be one of the Räçis, owned by a benefic.

57. Living until the End of the Yuga. One born in Kark Lagn will live till the end of the Yuga, if Guru is in a Kendr and happens to be in Gopurāṇi, while Çukr is in a K on and happens to be in Paravatāṇi.

58. Living the Life-Span of a Sage. Guru in Simhasanāṇi, being in Lagn, Çani in Devalokāṇi and Māgal in Paravatāṇi. If these are so, one will enjoy the life-span, as due to a sage.

59. Good Yogas increase the life-span and bad Yogas decrease the same. Hence I tell you such Yogas, as to know of full, medium and short span combinations.

60. If a Kendr contains a benefic, while Lagns Lord is yuti with, or receives a Driṣhti from a benefic, or Guru in particular, the native will live a full span of life.

61. Should Lagns Lord be in a Kendr yuti with, or receiving a Driṣhti from Guru and Çukr, full life-span will result.

62. If at birth three Grahas are exalted, out of which the Lords of Lagn and Randhr Bhava are inclusive, as Randhr Bhava is devoid of a malefic in it, full life-span will result.

63. Long life is denoted, if three Grahas are in Randhr Bhava, in exaltation, own, or friendly divisions, while Lagns Lord is strong.

64. If Çani, or Lagns Lord is yuti with any exalted Graha, long life will result.

65. Long life will be enjoyed, if malefics are in Sahaj, A ri and Labh Bhava, while benefics are in Kendras.

66. If A ri, Y uvati and Randhr Bhava are occupied by benefics, while malefics are in Sahaj and Labh Bhava, full life-span will follow the birth.

67. If Randhrs Lord is friendly to Sūrya, while malefics are in A ri and V yaya Bhava, as Lagns Lord is in a Kendr, the native will live the full span of life.

68. O excellent of the Brahmins, if a malefic is in Randhr Bhava, while Karms Lord is exalted, one will be long-lived.

69. Long life will follow, if Lagn is a Dual Rāç, while Lagns Lord is in a Kendr, or in exaltation, or in a Kon.

70. Should Lagn be a Dual Rāçi, while two malefics are in a Kendr with reference to a strong Lagns Lord, long life is indicated.

71-73. If the stronger among Lagns Lord and Randhrs Lord is placed in a Kendr, long life is indicated and, if in a Panaphara, medium life is indicated, if in A poklima, short life will come to pass. According to Lagns Lord being friendly, neutral, or inimical to Sūrya, long, medium, or short life will result.

74. Should Maígal and Sahajs Lord, or Randhrs Lord and Çani be combust, or be yuti with malefics, or receive a Drishti from malefics, there will be short life.

75. If Lagns Lord is in Ari, Randhr, or V yaya Bhava, yuti with malefics and devoid of Y uti with and/or Drishti from a benefic, short life will come to pass.

76. If malefics are in Kendras, devoid of Y uti with, or a Drishti from benefics, while Lagns Lord is not strong, only short life will result.

77. O excellent of Brahmins, if V yaya and D han Bhava are occupied by malefics and devoid of a Drishti from a benefic, the native will be short-lived.

78. If the Lords of Lagn and Randhr Bhava are bereft of dignities and strength, short life will come to pass. If the Lords of Lagn and Randhr Bhava are helped by others, while being so, medium life-span will come to pass.

Ch. 44. Marak Grahas

1. O Maharishi Parashar, you have mentioned a lot about longevity. Be kind enough to throw light on Marakas, or killers.

2-5. O Brahmin, Sahaj and Randhr Bhava are the two Bhavas of longevity. The Bhavas, related to death, are the 12th from each of these, i.e. D han and Y uvati Bhava are Marak Bhavas.

3. Out of the two, D han Bhava is a powerful Marak Bhava. The Lords of D han and Y uvati Bhava, malefics in D han and Y uvati Bhava and malefics, yuti with D hans L ord and yuti with Y uvatis L ord are all known, as Marakas. The major and sub-periods of these Grahas will bring death on the native, depending on whether he is a long life, medium life, or short life person.

6-7. The D asha of a benefic Grah, related to V yayas Lord may also inflict death. End may descend on the native in Randhrs Lords D asha. The D ash of a Grah, which is an exclusive malefic, may also cause death.

9. Should Çani be ill-disposed and be related to a Marak Grah, he will be the first to kill in preference to other Grahas.

10-14. O Brahmin, I tell you further about Marakas. Narrated earlier are three kinds of life-spans, viz. short, medium and long. Short life is before 32 years, later on up to 64 it is medium life and from 64 to 100 it is long life. Beyond 100 the longevity is called supreme. O excellent of the Brahmins, it is impossible to decide upon longevity till the native is 20 years old. Till such year the child should be protected by sacred recitations, religious offerings (of G hé etc.) to consecrated fire, as prescribed in the V edas etc. and through medical treatments, for premature death may descend on the child due to sins of father and mother, or of its own (in the previous birth).

15-21. I further mention about the Marak Grahas. One born with short life combinations may face death in the D asha, denoted by Vibbat star (3rd from the birth star), one of medium life may die in the D asha, denoted by Pratyak star (5th from the birth star). In the D asha, denoted by V adh star (7th from the birth star), one with long life may obtain his end. The D asha of the Lord of the 22nd Dreshkan, or 23rd, or 3rd, or 5th, or 7th asterisms may also cause death. The Lords of the 2nd and the 12th, counted from Kark, may bring death. This is true, when Candr is a malefic. If he happens to be a benefic, there will be diseases (not death). Death may come to pass in the D asha of A ris Lord and in the subperiods of A ris, Randhrs and/or V yayas Lords. Should there be many M arakas and, if these M arakas are strong, there will be diseases, miseries etc. in major and sub-periods. Thus these are Marakas and are primarily related to bring death upon the native. According to their dispositions there may be death, or difficulties.

22-24. Rahu and K etu, as M arakas. If R ahu, or K etu are placed in Tanu, Y uvati, Randhr, or V yaya Bhava, or happen to be in the 7th from a M arak L ord, or are placed with such a G rah, they acquire powers of killing in their major, or sub-periods. For one born in Makar, or in Vrischik, Rahu will be a Marak. Should Rahu be in Ari, Randhr, or V yaya Bhava, he will give difficulties in his Dasha periods. He will not, however, do so, if Rahu receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with a benefic.

25-31. Sahaj Bhava and Death. O excellent of Brahmins, if Surya, being with strength, is in Sahaj Bhava, one will obtain his death, due to a king (legal punishments). Candr in Sahaj Bhava will cause death, due to tuberculosis, while wounds, weapons, fire and thirst will cause death through Maïgal in Sahaj Bhava. If Sahaj Bhava receives a Drishti from, or is occupied by Cani and Rahu, death will be through poison, water, or fire, or fall from heights, or confinement. Death will surely come to descend through insects, or leprosy, if Candr and Gulik occupy, or give a Drishti to Sahaj Bhava. Budh, giving a Drishti to, or occupying Sahaj Bhava, will bring death, followed by fever. Guru in Sahaj Bhava, or giving a Drishti to Sahaj Bhava, will cause death by swelling, or tumours. Urinary diseases will cause death, if C andr is in, or gives a Drishti to Sahaj Bhava. Many Grahas, giving a Drishti to, or occupying Sahaj Bhava, will bring death through many diseases.

32. If Sahaj Bhava is occupied by a benefic, death will be in an auspicious place (like a shrine) and, if Sahaj Bhava is occupied by a malefic, death will be in sinful places. Mixed occupation of Sahaj Bhava will yield mixed results with regard to the place of death.

33. Consciousness will prevail at the time of death, if Guru, or Çukr are placed in Sahaj Bhava. With other Grahas in Sahaj Bhava there will be unconsciousness before death.

34. According to Sahaj Bhava being a Movable, a Fixed, or a Dual Raçi, death will be, respectively, in a foreign place (other than native birth place), in ones own house, or on the way.

35-36. Occupants of Randhr Bhava. Note the occupant of Randhr Bhava. If it is Surya, death will be through fire, if Candr is in Randhr Bhava, through water, if Maïgal, through weapons, if Budh, through fever, if Guru, through diseases, if Çukr, through hunger and, if Cani, through thirst.

37. If Randhr Bhava is occupied by, or receives a Drishti from a benefic, while Dharms Lord is yuti with a benefic, the native will die in a shrine. If Randhr Bhava is occupied by, or receives a Drishti from a malefic, while Dharms Lord is yuti with a malefic, death will be in a place, other than a shrine.

38-39. Fate of the Human Physical System. Should there be a benefics Dreshkan in Randhr Bhava (22nd Dreshkan), the body will be burnt in fire (as prescribed in Shastras). If a malefics Dreshkan happens to be in Randhr Bhava, the body will be thrown away in water. If the Dreshkan in Randhr Bhava is owned by a mixed Grah, the dead body will only dry up. If the Dreshkan in Randhr Bhava is a serpent Dreshkan, the body will be eaten away by animals, crows etc.

40. Serpent Dreshkanas. The 2nd and 3rd Dreshkan in Kark, the initial one in Vrischik and the last one in M een are designated, as serpent Dreshkanas.

41-42. Pre-natal Abode. O excellent of Brahmins, the stronger of the two luminaries, Surya and Candr, occupying a Dreshkan of Guru, denotes the descent from the world of gods. If the stronger of the luminaries occupies the Dreshkan of Çukr, or Candr, the descent is from the world of the Manes, if the stronger of the two luminaries is in the Dreshkan of Surya, or Maïgal, the descent is from the world of Yama (world of the death) and, if in Dreshkan of Budh, or Cani, the descent is from the hell.

43-45. A scent after Death. A according to the following Grahas in Vyaya, Yuvati, Ari, or Randhr Bhava, the native will attain one of the different worlds after death: Guru heaven, Candr, or Çukr the world of Manes, Maïgal and/or Surya earth (rebirth), Budh and/or Cani hell. In case the said Bhavas are not occupied, the native will go to the world, indicated by the stronger of the Dreshkan Lords, related to Ari and Randhr Bhava. The relative Grahas exaltation etc. will denote the high, medium and low status the native will obtain in the said world.

46. Other Grahas and Raçis, becoming Marakas, are being discussed in the chapter, related to Dasas.
Ch. 45. A vasthas of Grahas

1. O Maharishi Parashar, you have earlier stated, that the A vasthas, or states of the Grahas are to be considered in the context of the effects of the Grahas. Be so kind to tell me about this.

2. O excellent of Brahmins, various kinds of A vasthas of the Grahas have been expounded. Out of these, I will give you the summary of Baal (infant) and other states of the Grahas.

3. Baal, Kumar, Yuv, Vriddh and Mrit A vastha (Baal Adi A vasthas). Infant, youthful, adolescent, old and dead are the states of the Grahas, placed in the ascending order at the rate of six degrees in odd Räcis. In the case of even Räcis this arrangement is in reverse order. (Vriddh - A dvanced, Mrit - In extremis)

4. Results. One fourth, half, full, negligible and nil are the grades of the results, due to a Grah in infant, youthful, adolescent, old and dead A vasthas.

5. Awakening, Dreaming and Sleeping States. If a Grah is in its own Räci, or in exaltation, it is said to be in a state of awakening (alertness). In the Räci of a friend, or of a neutral it is in dreaming state, while in an enemy's Räci, or in debilitation it is in a state of sleeping.

6. According to a Grah, being in Awakening, Dreaming, or Sleeping states, the results, due to it will be full, medium, or nil.

7. Other Kinds of States. There are nine kinds of other A vasthas, viz. Dipt, Swasth, Pramudit, Shanta, Din, Vikal, Dhukhhit, K hal and Kop.

8-10. If a Grah is in its exaltation Räci, it is in Dipt A vastha, if in its own Räci, it is in Swasth, if in a great friends Räci, it is in Pramudit, if in a friendly Räci, it is in Shanta, if in a neutral Räci, it is in Din, if a Grah is yuti with a malefic, it is in Vikal, if in is an enemy's Räci, it is in Dhukhhit, if in a great enemy's Räci, it is in K hal and, if a Grah is being eclipsed by Surya, it is in Kop. Depending on such a state of the Grah, the Bhava, occupied by it will obtain corresponding effects.

11-18. Yet other A vasthas. Lajjit, Garvit, Kshudhit, Trushit, Mudit and Kshobhit are the other kinds of A vasthas, due to the Grahas. Placed in Putr Bhava, if a Grah is associated with Rahu, or Ketu, or with Śūrya, Ėani, or Maṅgal, it is in Lajjit A vastha. If a Grah is in exaltation, or in the Mooltrikon, it is Garvit. If a Grah is in an enemy's Räci, or yuti with an enemy, or receives a Drishti from an enemy, or even, if a Grah is yuti with Ėani, the A vastha is Kshudhit. If a Grah is in a watery Räci and receives a Drishti from a malefic, but does not receive a Drishti from a benefic, the A vastha is called Trushit. If a Grah is in a friendly Räci, or is yuti with, or receives a Drishti from a benefic, or is yuti with Guru, it is said to be in Mudit A vastha. If a Grah is yuti with Sūrya and receives a Drishti from, or is yuti with a malefic, or receives a Drishti from an enemy, it is said to be in Kshobhit. The Bhavas, occupied by a Grah in Kshudhit, or in Kshobhit, are destroyed.

19-23. The learned should estimate the effects, due to a Bhava, in the manner, cited above, after ascertaining the strength and weakness. Weak Grahas cause reduction in good effects, while stronger ones give greater effects. If a Grah, posited in Karm Bhava, is in Lajjit, Kshudhit A vastha, or Kshobhit A vastha, the person will always be subjected to miseries. If a Grah in Putr is in Lajjit, there will be destruction of progeny, or there will be only one surviving child. Surely the wife of the native will die, if there is a Grah in Yuvati in Kshobhit, or in Trushit A vastha.

24-29. Effects of Garvit, Mudit, Lajjit, Kshobhit, Kshudhit and Trushit A vastha. A Grah in Garvit A vastha will cause happiness through new houses and gardens, regalhood, skill in arts, financial gains at all times and improvement in business. A Grah in Mudit A vastha will give residences, clothes, ornaments, happiness from lands and wife, happiness from relatives, living in royal places, destruction of enemies and acquisition of wisdom and learning. A Grah in Lajjit will give aversion to God, loss of intelligence, loss of child, interest in evil speeches and listlessness in good things. A Grah in Kshobhit will give acute penury, evil disposition, miseries, financial debacles, distress to feet and obstruction to income, due to royal wrath. A Grah in Kshudhit will cause downfall, due to grief and passion, grief on account of relatives, physical decline, troubles from enemies, financial distress, loss of physical strength and an eclipsed mind, due to... miseries, A Grah in Trushit A vastha will cause diseases through association with females, leading over wicked deeds, loss of wealth, due to ones own men, physical weakness, miseries, caused by evil people and decline of honour.

30-37. Calculation of Shayan A di A vasthas. Now I will tell you of the A vasthas, viz. Shayan, U pavesan, Netrapani, Prakash, Gaman, A gaman, Sabha, A gam, Bhojan, Nritiya Lips, Kautuk and Nidr and the Chesthas of such A vasthas. Note the number of the star, occupied by the Grah, for which an A vastha is to be calculated. Multiply that number by the number, denoted by the Grah (Sūrya 1 to Ċani 7). The figure so arrived at should again be multiplied by the number of the Navāi č, where the Grah is in. Add to this the number of the birth asterism (ruling star, the one, occupied by Ċandr), the number of Ghatis of birth and the number of Rāçis, Lagn gained from M ēsh (M ēsh 1, Vrishabh 2 and so forth). This figure should be divided by 12 and the remainder will indicate the corresponding A vastha of the Grah. The sub-state in the said A vastha can be found out in the following way. Multiply the figure (Sayan 1 to Nidr 12), denoted by the A vastha concerned, by the same figure and increase it by the figure, denoted by the Anka value for the first syllable of the natives personal name. Divide the product so obtained by 12. The remainder thereof should be further increased by constant additives of the Grahas in the following way: Sūrya 5, Ċandr 2, M āl gal 2, Budh 3, G ērū 5, Ċukr 3, Ċani 3, Rahu (Ketu) 4. The product so arrived at should be divided by 3. In the process of calculation, if it happens, that the remainder is 1, it is Drishti, if 2, it is Chesht and, if 0, it is Vichesht.

Notes. Shayan A di are of supreme importance, as compared to the other kinds of A vasthas. In place of Navāi č, given above, some translators interpret the word A àç, as degree, occupied by the Grah, which is obviously not correct. In this connection the readers attention is drawn to Balabhadr’s Hora Ratna, Ch. 3, wherein the author, Balabhadr himself, gives an example for Sūrya, being in the 7th Nakṣatra of Simh and thus he considered only 7, as multiplier. He quotes A dhībhuṭ Sagara, as his authority for calculation of Sayan A di.

A gaman A vastha is known, as Gamanecch by some exponents.

Anka value is 1 for a, ka, cha, òa, dha, bha and va, 2 for i, kha, īha, na, ma and ña, 3 for u, ga, jha, ta, pa, ya and ça, 4 for e, gha, əa, tha, pha, ra and sa, 5 for o, ca, ña, da, ba, la and ha.

38-39. Effects of Chesht etc. If the sub-state is Drishti in an A vastha, the results, being stated for the A vastha, will be medium, the effects will be full in Chesht and negligible in Vichesht. The good and bad effects of Grahas should be deciphered, based on the strength and weakness of the Grahas. In exaltation the Grahas reveal effects in a pronounced manner, due to A vasthas.

40-51. Effects of Sūryas A vasthas. If Sūrya is in Sayan A vastha, the native will incur digestive deficiency, many diseases, stoutness of legs, bilious vitiation, ulcer in the anus and heart strokes; if in U pavesan, will suffer poverty, will carry loads, will indulge in litigations, be hard-hearted, wicked and will lose in his undertakings; if is in Netrapani, will always be happy, wise, helpful to others, endowed with prowess and wealth, very happy and will gain royal favours; if in Prakash, will be liberal in disposition, have plenty of wealth, be a significant speaker in the assembly, will perform many meritorious acts, be greatly strong and endowed with charming beauty; if in Gaman, will be disposed to live in foreign places, be miserable, indolent, bereft of intelligence and wealth, be distressed, due to fear and will be short-tempered; if in A gaman, will be interested in others wives, be devoid of his own men, be interested in movements and skilful in doing evil deeds, be dirty, ill-disposed and will be a talebearer; if in Sabh, will be disposed to help others, be always endowed with wealth and gems, be virtuous, endowed with lands, new houses and robes, be very strong, very affectionate to his friends and very kindly disposed; if in A gam, will be distressed, due to enemies, fickle-minded, evil-minded, emaciated, devoid of virtuous acts and intoxicated with pride; if in Bhojan, will experience pains in joints, will lose money on account of others females, will have strength, declining off and on, be untruthful, will incur head-aches, eat remnant food and will take to bad ways; if in Nritiya Lips, will be honoured by the learned, be a scholar, will have knowledge of poetry etc. and will be adored by kings on the earth; if is K autuk, will always be happy, will be endowed with Vedic Knowledge and will perform Y agyas, will move amidst kings, have fear from enemies, will be charming-faced and be endowed with knowledge of poetry; if in Nidr, will have a strong tendency towards being drowsy, will live in foreign (distant) places, will incur harm to his wife and will face financial destruction. Sūrya in U pavesan will make one an artisan, black in complexion, devoid of learning and miserable. One will serve others. In Netrapani there will be all kinds of happiness, if Sūrya is in Putā, D harm, K arm, or Y uati. In other Bhavas Netrapani of Sūrya will give eye diseases and enmity with all. If Sūrya is in Prakash, the native will be meritorious, religious and liberal, will enjoy pleasures, be equal to a prince and will enjoy the status of K uber, the God of wealth. However, the Prakash of Sūrya, placed in Y uati, or Purū will cause loss of the first child and will produce many litigations. If Sūrya is in G aman, the native will incur disease of the feet and will be very mean. If in A gaman, Sūrya in V yaya, or in Y uati will destroy progeny and will give very limited wealth. If in A gaman, Sūrya will give many miseries, an ugly appearance and foolishness. However, he will give wealth. Sūrya in Bhojan in D harm will cause many hindrances to spiritual and religious undertakings. In other Bhavas Sūrya in Bhojan will cause head and ear diseases, apart from joint pains. Though Māharishi P arashar states, that the native with Sūrya in K autuk A vastha will have fear from enemies, B al B hadr exempts such evil effect for the A ri B hava position. Sūrya in K autuk in other Bhavas will give a number of daughters, two wives, itch, excellence, liberality etc. If Sūrya is in Nīḍā, the native will be predisposed to incur piles and elephantiasis, will experience a lack of peace and he will be liable to lose his first child.

52-63. Effects of Candrās Avasthas. If Candr is in Sayan, the native will be honourable, sluggish, given to sexual lust and he will face financial destruction; if in U pavesan, will be troubled by diseases, be dull-witted, not endowed with mentionable wealth, will be hard-hearted, will do unworthy acts and will steal others wealth; if in Netrapani, will be troubled by great diseases (long lasting in nature), be very garrulous, wicked and will indulge in bad deeds. Should Candr be in Prakash, the native will be famous in the world, will have his virtues exposed through royal patronage, will be surrounded by horses, elephants, females and ornaments, will visit shrines. If Candr is in G aman with decreasing rays, the native will be sinful, cruel and always troubled by afflictions of sight. If Candr is in G aman with increasing rays, the native will be distressed, due to fear. If Candr is in A gaman, the native will be honoured, will suffer diseases of the feet, will secretly indulge in sinful acts, will be poor and devoid of intelligence and happiness; if in Sабh, will be eminent among men, honoured by kings and kings of kings, will be very beautiful, will subdue the passion of women and will be skilful in sexual acts, will be virtuous; if in A gam, will be garrulous and virtuous and, if the said Candr is of dark fortnight, the native will have two wives, he will be sick, highly wicked and violent; if in Bhojan, will be endowed with honour, conveyances, attendants, social status, wife and daughters, provided Candr is Full Purna; if in Bhojan and is of dark fortnight, auspicious effects will fail to come; if in Nṛtiya Līps and is endowed with (fortnightly) strength, will be strong, will have knowledge of songs and will be a critic of beauty of things; if in Nṛtiya Līps and of dark fortnight, i.e. not endowed with strength, the person will be sinful; if in K autuk, the native will attain kingship, lordship over wealth and skill in sexual acts and in sporting with harlots. Should waxing Candr, being yuti with Guru, be in Nīḍr, the native will be quite eminent. If waxing Candr is in Nīḍr, but devoid of G urus Y uti, the native will lose his wealth on account of females and female jackals will be crying around his abode (as though it were a cemetery).

64-75. Effects of the A vasthas of Māgal. If Māgal is in Sayan, the native will be troubled by wounds, itch and ulcer. If Māgal is placed in U pavesan, the native will be strong, sinful, untruthful, eminent, wealthy and bereft of virtues. If Māgal is placed in Lāgn and happens to be in Netrapani, there will be penury; if placed in other Bhavas, Netrapani will confer rulership of a city. Should Mangal be in Prakash, the native will shine with virtues and will be honoured by the king. Mangal in Prakash in Putr will cause loss of children and of wife. If Māgal is in Prakash in Putr and happens to be there with Rahu, a severe (positional) fall will descend on the native. Should Mangal be in G aman, the native will be always roaming, will have fear of multiple ulcers, will incur misunderstandings with females, will be afflicted by boils, itch etc. and will incur financial decline. If Māgal happens to be in A gaman A vastha, the native will be virtuous, endowed with precious gems, will adore a sharp sword, will walk with the gait of an elephant, will destroy his enemies and will remove the miseries of his people. If Māgal is placed in Sabh and happens to be in exaltation, the native will be skilful in conducting wars, will hold the flag of righteousness aloft and will be wealthy; if Maïgal happens to be in Sabh in Putr, or Dharm, the native will be bereft of learning; if Maïgal is in Sabh in Vyaya, childlessness and no wife and no friends will result; if Maïgal is in other Bhavas in Sabh, the native will be a scholar in a kings court (poet laureate), be very wealthy, honourable and charitable. If Maïgal is in A gam, the native will be devoid of virtues and good deeds, will be distressed by diseases, will acquire diseases of the root of the ears (Karan Mularogam & Padamulam Urumulam etc.) and severe gout pains, will be timid and will befriend evil lot. If M angal is with strength, while in Bhojan A vastha, the native will eat sweet-food; if devoid of strength, will indulge in base acts and be dishonourable. If Maïgal is in Nritya Lips, the native will earn wealth through the king and will be endowed with fullness of gold, diamonds and corals in his house; if in Kautuk, will be curious in disposition and will be endowed with friends and sons; if in Kautuk and simultaneously exalted, will be honoured by the king and the virtuous and will be virtuous himself; if in Nidā, will be short-tempered, devoid of intelligence and wealth, will be wicked, fallen from virtuous path and troubled by diseases. Should Maïgal be in Upavesan in Lagn, the native will be extremely sinful and he will incur several diseases, will be indigent and not peaceful. If U pavesan occurs for Maïgal in Dharm, the native will lose his whole wealth apart from his wife and progeny. Maïgal in Netrapani in Lagn will give poverty and will destroy the natives wife and progeny; if Maïgal is in Netrapani in other Bhavas, this confers on the native all kinds of wealth and happiness from wife and children. The D han, or Y uvati position of Maïgal in Netrapani will cause fear from lions and snakes apart from giving earnings from lands. Furthermore the natives wife will predecease him.
Should Maïgal be in Prakash in Putr, or in Y uvati, the native will lose his wife and all children.
If Maïgal is placed in Prakash in Prakash and is yuti with Čani, the native will kill cows. Should Maïgal be in Gaman in Lagn, the native will be active in his assignments, will incur diseases of the joints, burning pains in the eyes and will obtain dental afflictions and the like, he will have fear from dogs and will adore the guise of a female. In other Bhavas Maïgal in Gaman will bring royal favours, leadership and luxuries of life. Maïgal in A gam will cause piles and diseases of the rectum. If Maïgal is in Bhojan, or in Sayan in Putr, or in R andhr, there will be untimely death for the native. In other Bhavas Bhojan of Maïgal will confer wealth. Should Maïgal be in Nritya Lips and happens to be in Lagn, D han, Y uvati, or K arm, the native will receive all kinds of happiness; there will be miseries in abundance, if Maïgal is in Nritya Lips and placed in R andhr, or D harm, apart from incurring untimely death. In other Bhavas Nritya Lips of Maïgal will make the native akin to Kuber. Maïgal in Y uvati, or in D harm in Kautuk will give several diseases and death of the first child and wife. In other Bhavas Kautuk will confer scholarship, various kinds of wealth, two wives and more female children. In Nidr Maïgal in Lagn, D han, Sahaj, D harm, K arm, or L abh will give scholarship, foolishness and poverty. Putr, or Y uvati placement of Maïgal in Nidr will give many miseries and many male children. Should Rahu join Maïgal in Nidr in any Bhava, the native will have many wives, be miserable and will suffer from some diseases on the surface of the feet.

76-86. Effects of Budh’s A vasthas. Should Budh in Sayan be in Lagn, the native will be lame and will have reddish eyes (like the black bee); if Budh is in Sayan in other Bhavas, the native will be addicted to licentious (disregarding certain rules) pleasures and be wicked. If Budh is in U pavesan in Lagn, the native will possess (the seven principle) virtues; if Budh in U pavesan is in Lagn, receiving a Dri shiti from a malefic, or D ri shitis from malefics, or is yuti with malefics, penury will result; if Budh in U pavesan is in Lagn, receiving a Dri shiti from a benefic, or Dri shitis from benefics, or is yuti with benefics, financial happiness will follow. If Budh is in Netrapani, the native will be devoid of learning, wisdom, well wishers and satisfaction, but he will be honourable; if Budh is in Prut in Netrapani, the subject will be bereft of happiness from wife and sons, will be endowed with (more) female children and will gain abundant finance through royal patronage. If Budh is in Prakash, the native will be charitable, merciful and meritorious, he will cross the boundaries of ocean in respect of many branches of learning, he will be endowed with the great faculty of discrimination and will destroy evil people; if in Gaman, will visit the courts of kings on many occasions and Goddess Lakshmi will dwell in his abode; if in A gaman, the same effects, due to his being in Gaman, will fructify; if in Sabh and happens to be in exaltation, will be affluent and meritorious at all times, will be equal to Kuber, or will be a king, or a minister, will be devoted to Lord Vishnu and Lord Shiva, will be virtuous and will attain full enlightenment. Should Budh be in A gam, the native will serve base men and will gain wealth thereby, will have two sons and one fame bringing daughter. 149. Should a malefic in Yuvati be in Nidr, auspicious effects will follow, provided, that there is no Drishti from another malefic.

150. Declare without a second thought auspicious effects, following the location of a malefic in Putr Bhava, but only with Nidr, or in Sayan.

151. Untimely death, due to royal wrath, will come to pass, if there is a malefic in Randhr Bhava in Nidr, or in Sayan.

152. If in the case of a malefic in Randhr Bhava in Nidr, or Sayan there happens to be a benefic Drishti, or the Yuti of a benefic, (untimely) death will be in the river Ganges, i.e. Gangetic belt, shrines etc.

155. Thus the good and bad effects should be guessed, assessing the strength and weakness of the Grahas, concerning all the Bhavas.

C h. 46. D ashas of G rahas

1. Maitreya said. O Venerable Mahaishi Parashar! You are omniscient. There is no subject, with which you are not conversant. Therefore now please favour me with guidance about the different kinds of D ashas (periods) of the various Grahas.

2-5. Mahaishi Parashar replied. O Brahmin! D ashas are of many kinds. Amongst them Vimshottari is the most appropriate for the general populace. But the other D ashas, followed in special cases, are A stottari, Shodshottari, Dwadashottari, Panchottari, Shatabdik, Chaturashiti-sama, Dwisaptati-sama, Shastihayani, Shat-trimshat-sama. Our ancients have described these different kinds of D ashas, based on Nakshatras.

6-11. O Brahmin! Some Mahaishis have made a mention of Kala and Chakr D asha, but they have recognized the Kala Chakr D asha, as supreme. The other kinds of D ashas, propagated by the sages, are Char, Sthir, Kendr, Karak, Brahma Grah, Manduk, Shul, Yogardh, Drig, Trikon, Raci, Panchswara, Yogini, Pind, Nausargik, A sht V arg, Sandhya, Pachak, Tara etc. But in our view all these D ashas are not appropriate.

V imshottari
12-14. Beginning from Kritika, the Lords of Dhashas are Surya, Candr, Majgal, Rahu, Guru, Çani, Budh, Ketu and Çukr in that order. Thus, if the Nakshatras from Kritika to the Jann Nakshatr are divided by nine, the remainder will signify the Lord of the commencing Dasha. The remaining Dhashas will be of the Grahas in the order, given above. In Kali Yuga the natural life-span of a human being is generally taken, as 120 years. Therefore Vimshottari Dasha is considered to be the most appropriate and the best of all Dhashas.

15. The periods of Dhashas of Surya, Candr, Majgal, Rahu, Guru, Çani, Budh, Ketu and Çukr are 6, 10, 17, 18, 16, 19, 17, 7 and 20 in that order.

16. To find out the remainder of the Dasha, operating at the time of birth, first find out the expired portion of the Dasha of the concerned Graha. This is done, as follows. Multiply the Dasha period of the Graha concerned by the period of the stay of Candr in Janm Nakshatr, that has expired and divide that amount by the total period of the stay of Candr in that Nakshatr. The figure in years, months etc. so arrived at will be the expired period of the Dasha. If this figure is deducted from the total period of the Dasha, we will get the balance of Dasha at the time of birth.

A shtottari

17-20. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin, the sages have recommended the adoption of A shtottari, when Rahu not being in Lagn, in any other Kendr, or Trikon to the Lord of the Lagn. From 4 Nakshatras from A rdra commences the Dasha of Surya, from 3 after that begins the Dasha of Candr, 4 after that will bring the Dasha of Majgal, 3 after that the Lord of Dasha will be Budh, 4 therefrom will have Çani, as the Dasha Lord, 3 thereafter the Lord will be Guru, Rahu will be the Lord of the Dasha 4 Nakshatras after that and then Çukr will take over the lordship of the Dasha 3 Nakshatras from the last one mentioned above. The Lord of the Dasha at birth will be determined by counting in this order up to the Jann Nakshatr. The duration of A shtottari Dasha for Surya, Candr, Majgal, Budh, Çani, Guru, Rahu and Çukr are 6, 15, 8, 17, 10, 19, 12 and 21 in that order. Thus in this Dasha system only 8 Grahas play the role of Dasha Lords, Ketu having been denied this privilege.

21-22. The Dhashas of the various Grahas have been specified above. In the case of malefic Grahas the Dasha span of one Nakshatr is ½ of the Dasha of the Graha. It is 1/3rd in the case of benefics. Thus the expired portion of the Dasha is calculated, according to the method, followed for Vimshottari Dasha, by multiplying the Bhayat, i.e. the expired period of the stay of Candr in the Jann Nakshatr, by the Dasha portion of the Jann Nakshatr and dividing it by Bhabhog, i.e. the total period of the stay of Candr in the Jann Nakshatr. Then the balance of Dasha at birth can also be ascertained. If Uttarashadha happens to be the Jann Nakshatr, the duration of its first three Padas is taken, as Bhabhog and the Dasha calculations should be done accordingly. The Dasha and calculations for Abhijit Nakshatr are done by taking the 4th Pad of Uttarashadha plus the 15th part of the beginning of Shravan. For Shravan the Bhabhog would be the total of its duration in Ghatikas minus the 1/15th part of the beginning of Shravan.

Shodshottari

23. It will be advisable to adopt the Shodshottari, if the birth is in the day in Krishna Paksh (dark half of the month), or at night in Shukla Paksh (bright half).

24-26. The Dasha may be adopted, when the Lagn is in the Hora of Candr with birth in the Krishna Paksh, or, when Lagn is in the Hora of Surya with birth in the Shukla Paksh. Count the number of Nakshatras from Pushya to the Jann Nakshatr. Divide this number by 8. The remainder will indicate the Dhashas of Surya, Majgal, Guru, Çani, Ketu, Candr, Budh and Çukr. The Dhashas of the above Grahas are of 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 years.

D wadashottari
27-28. This Dasha system will be appropriate for one, whose Lagn is in the Navāç of Çukr. Count from Janm Nakshat to Revati. Divide this number by 8. The remainder will indicate the Dasha of the Grahas concerned. The Dasha order is Sūrya, Guru, Ketu, Budh, Rahu, Mangal, Çani, Candr. The Dashes will be of 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19 and 21 years of the Grahas.

Panchottari

(29-30) This Dasha is considered suitable for those, whose Lagn is Kark and also in the Kark Dvadashiç. Count from Anuradha up to the Janm Nakshat and divide the number by 7. The remainder will indicate the Dasha. The order of the Dasha Lords is Sūrya, Budh, Çani, Mangal, Çukr, Candr and Guru. The Dashes of the Grahas are 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 years.

Shatabdik

(31-32) This Dasha system has been considered appropriate, if Lagn is Vargottama. This happens, when Lagn in the Rāç Kundali and the Nakshat Lagn are in the same Rāç.
(33-34) Count from Revati to the Janm Nakshat and divide this number by seven. The remainder will indicate the Lords of Dashes in this order: Sūrya, Candr, Çukr, Budh, Guru, Maïgal and Çani. Their Dashes will be of 5, 5, 10, 10, 20, 20 and 30 years.

Chaturashiti-sama

35-36. Chaturashiti-sama Dasha is considered appropriate in cases, where the Karms Lord is placed in Karm. Count from Swati to the Janm Nakshat and divide this number by 7. The remainder will indicate the Dasha Lords in the following order: Sūrya, Candr, Çukr, Budh, Guru, Maïgal and Çani. The Dasha period of each Grah is 12 years.

Dwisaptati-sama

37-39. This Dasha system is considered suitable in cases, where the Lord of Lagn is in Lagn, or in Yuvati. Count from Mul to the Janm Nakshat and divide the number by 8. The remainder will determine the Dasha Lords in the following order: Sūrya, Candr, Maïgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, Çani and Rahu. In this Dasha system all the eight Grahas have Dashes of 9 years each.

Shastihayani

40-41. This Dasha may be adopted in cases, where Sūrya is posited in Lagn. The order of Dasha Lords in this system is, as follows: Guru, Sūrya, Mangal, Candr, Budh, Çani and Rahu. The following shows the Nakshatras, falling under the various Dasha Lords. The Dashes of Guru, Sūrya and Mangal are of 10 years. The remaining Grahas have Dashes of 6 years each. Guru (Ashvini, Bharani, Kritika, Punarvasu), Sūrya (Rohini, Mrigashira, Ardra, U.Ashadha), Mangal (Pushya, Aslesha, Magha, Revati), Candr (P.Phalguni, U.Phalguni, Hast), Budh (Swati, Vishakah, Anuradha), Çukr (Jyeshtha, Mul, P.Ashadha), Çani (Abhijit, Shravan, Dhanishtha), Rahu (Shatabhisha, P.Bhadra, U.Bhadra).

Shat-trimshat-sama

42-43. Count from Shravan to the Janm Nakshat and divide the number by 8. The remainder 1 etc. will indicate the Dasha Lords, whose order will be, as follows: Candr, Sūrya, Guru, Maïgal, Budh, Çani, Çukr and Rahu. Their Dashes will be 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 years. If the birth is during the day and Lagn is in the Hora of Sūrya and, if the birth is at night and Lagn is in the Hora of Candr, adoption of this system would be preferable.
Kaal

44-49. 5 Ghatikas before the sight of the semi-disk of the setting Sūrya and 5 Ghatikas after that and 5 Ghatikas before and after the rising of Sūrya, that is 10 Ghatikas in the evening and 10 Ghatikas in the morning, respectively. The total period of both these Sandhyas (twilight) is said to be 20 Ghatikas. The 20 Ghatikas of the night have been given the name Purna and the 20 Ghatikas of the day have been given the name Mugdha. The Sandhya at the time of sunrise is called Kanda and the Sandhya at the time of sunset is said to be Sudh. Both of these Sandhyas are of 10 Ghatikas each. If the birth is in Purna, or Mugdha, its past Ghatikas should be multiplied by 2 and the product should be divided by 15. The figure so arrived at should be converted into years, months etc. By multiplying it by the serial number of Sūrya and other Grahas in their normal order, we will get the Kaal Dasha of these Grahas. If the birth is during Sandhya, then its past Ghatikas should be multiplied by 4 and the product divided by 15. The figure so arrived at in terms of years, months etc. should be multiplied by the serial number of Sūrya and the other Grahas to get the Kaal Dasha of all the nine Grahas.

Chakr

50-51. If the birth is at night, the Dasha will commence from Lagn Rāçi. If the birth is during the day, the Dasha will start from the Rāçi, in which the Lord of Lagn is placed. If the birth is during Sandhya, the Dasha will begin from the Rāçi of the second Bhava. The Dasha of each Rāçi is 10 years. As it is the Dasha system of the 12 Rāçis in the Zodiac, it has been named, as Chakr Dasha.

Kaal Chakr

52-53. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin! Now, after making obedience to Lord Shiva, I shall describe the Kala Chakr Dasha. Whatever was related by Lord Shiva to Goddess Parvati, is being explained by me for the use of sages to be utilized for the welfare of the people.

54-55. By drawing vertical and horizontal lines, prepare 2 Kundalis, Savya and Apsavya, of 12 apartments (Kosthas) each. From the second Kostha in each Kundali fix the Rāçis Mesh, Vrishabh, Mithun, Kark, Simh, Kanya, Tula, Vrischik, Dhanu, Makar, Kumbh, Meen. Then Nakshatras may be incorporated in the manner, indicated hereafter. These Kundalis, indicative of the 12 Rāçis, are called Kala Chakr.

56-58. Write Ashvini, Bharani and Kritika in the Savya Chakr and Rohini, Mrigashira, Ardra in the Apsavya. Then incorporate the three following Nakshatras, Punarvasu, Pushya and A slesha in the Savya and Magha, Purvaphalguni and Uttaraphalguni in the A psavya. Then incorporate the three following, Hast, Chitra and Swati in the Savya and Vishakha, A nuradh and Jyeshtha in the A psavya. Then incorporate Muhl, Purvashadha and Uttarashadha in the Savya and Shravan, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha in the A psavya. Finally incorporate the last three Nakshatras, Purvabhadrapad, Uttarabhadrapad and Revati in the Savya Chakr. Now there will be 15 Nakshatras in the Savya and 12 Nakshatras in the A psavya, (because for the 12 Rāçis there are 12 Padas of 3 Nakshatras, the Navāl ċaś). The Padas of A shvini, Punarvasu, Hast, Muhl, Purvabhadrapad, Kritika, A slesha, Swati, Uttarashadha and Revati of the Savya should be reckoned in the same manner, as the Padas of A shvini.

59. Now I shall describe in detail, how the Deha and Jiva should be reckoned in the Padas (quarters) of the Nakshatras.
60. In the first Pad of Ashvini Mesh is indicative of Deha (body) and Dhanu is indicative of Jiva (life). And the Lords of Mesh, Vrishabh, Mithun, Kark, Simh, Kanya, Tula, Vrischik and Dhanu are Lords of the Dasha in the order, as described before.

61. In the second Pad of Ashvini Makar is Deha and Mithun is Jiva and the Lords of the nine Räçis from Makar to Mithun are Lords of the Dasha in the order.

70. O Brahmin! I have thus given you the description of Savya Chakr. Now I shall give the description of Apsavya Chakr. Prepare a similar chart of 12 apartments and from the 2nd apartment onwards place the Räçis from Vrishabh onwards in the reverse order. In this chart Deha and Jiva would be the same for Rohini, Magha, Vrishakah and Shravan, as for Rohini.

In the 2nd Vrishabh is Deha and Mithun is Jiva and the Lords of the Räçis Mithun, Vrishabh, Dhanu, Makar, Kumbh, Meen, Vrishabh and Mithun will be the Dasha Lords.

79. In the 3rd Pad of Mrigashira Kark is Deha and Meen is Jiva and the Lords of the Räçis Kark, Simh, Kumbh, Mithun, Vrishabh, Dhanu, Meen, Vrishabh and Mithun will be the Dasha Lords.

80. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin! The description of the Deha and Jiva of the Padas of the Apsavya Nakshatras and the Dasha Lords is the same, as narrated by Lord Mahadeva to Goddess Parvati.

81. Maitreya said. O Venerable Maharishi Parashar! Now please guide me about the Dasha spans of the Dasha Lords, described by you. Please also demonstrate, how the commencement of the Dasha, its expired and the remaining periods at the birth are to be calculated.

82. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin! The description of the Deha and Jiva of the Padas of the Apsavya Nakshatras and the Dasha Lords is the same, as narrated by Lord Mahadeva to Goddess Parvati.

83. Maitreya said. O Venerable Maharishi Parashar! Now please guide me about the Dasha spans of the Dasha Lords, described by you. Please also demonstrate, how the commencement of the Dasha, its expired and the remaining periods at the birth are to be calculated.

84. Maharishi Parashar said. 5, 21, 7, 9, 10, 16 and 4 years are the Dasha spans of Sûrya, Candr, Mangal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Sani.
85-86. The span of life of a person is determined from the Padas (Aṣas) of the Nakshatras at the time of birth, or the time of query and the years allotted to the 9 Rājs, commencing from it (the Pad of the Nakshatras). Some sages are of the view, that the person will enjoy full span of life (Purna A yu), if his birth is at the commencement of the Padas, will have middle span of life (Madhaya A yu), if the birth is in the middle of the Padas and short span of life (Alap A yu), or will face death-like sufferings, if the birth is at the end of the Padas of the Nakshatras.

87-88. According to this principle, we should be acquainted with the Padas of the Nakshatras. Now I shall tell you, how the calculations are made, according to the proportion of the Padas of a Nakshatras. The number of Aṣavini etc., whichever may be the past Nakshatras, should be divided by 3. Thereafter the remainder should be multiplied by 4. To the figure so made available the Pad of the present Nakshatras should be added. The product will be the Navāṣa from Mesh onwards.

89. The number of years (Purna A yu) are, as under. For the Aṣa in Mesh 100 years, in Vrishabh 85 years, in Mithun 83 years, in Kark 86 years. The number of years will be the same for Rājas, situated the 5th and 9th to them.

90-91. Multiply the past Ghatikas, Palas etc. of the Pad of the Nakshatras, in which a person is born, by the existing Dasha years and divide it by 15. The result will indicate the expired period of the Dasha in years, months etc. By deducting it from the total number of years allotted, we get the balance of Dasha at birth. The Dasha should be taken, as commencing from that Rāja.

92. Multiply the past Ghatikas, Palas etc. of the present Pad of the Nakshatra by the number of years and divide the product by the fourth part of Bhabhog. The years etc. so obtained may then be deducted from the total Dasha period. The result will be the balance of Dasha at birth in years, months etc.

93. The past Kalas (minutes) of the Navāṣa, in which Chandr may be placed, should be multiplied by the years, allotted to the Dasha and the product should be divided by 200. The resulting years etc. will be the expired portion of the Dasha. By deducting them from the total number of years the balance of the Dasha at birth is obtained.

94-95. In the Savya Chakr the first Aṣa is called Deha and the last Jiva. The opposite is the case in the Apsavya Chakr. Therefore the calculations should be based on the Deha etc. in the Savya Chakr and on the Jiva etc. in Apsavya. We give below the Savya and Apsavya Kal Chakr Charts. For Example. The birth is in Mrigashira 4th Pad. It is in the Apsavya Kāal Chakr. The Lord of Deha is Maṅgala and that of Jiva is Guru. The Bhabhog of Mrigashira is 59/31 (59 Ghatikas 31 Palas) and Bhayat is 58/15 (58 Ghatikas 15 Palas). ½ of the Bhabhog comes to 14/52/44. That would be the value of one Pad. Multiplying this by 3 will get Ghatikas of 3 Padas, namely 44/38/15. Deducting this from Bhayat, the past Ghatikas, Palas etc. of the 4th Pad will be 13/36/45. The full Dasha years are 100. Multiplying this by 13/36/45 we get 1300/3600/4500 = 1361/15. This divided by 15 will give the expired period at birth, namely 90 years and 9 months. See the Kaal Chakr. There we count from Jiva etc. to Deha. In the 4th Pad of Mrigashira Jiva is in Dhanu and Deha in Mesh. Therefore, by deducting the total of years from Dhanu to Mithun, namely 77, from 90 years 9 months, we get the expired period of Vrishabh, namely 13 years and 9 months. By deducting this from the present 16 years of Āṣa, we will get 2 years and 3 months, as the balance of Dasha at birth. Accordingly, like Vimshottari Dasha, the order of Dasha will be Vrishabh, Mesh, Dhanu, Vrischik etc.

For Example. Suppose, that at the time of birth of a person in Kritika Nakshatras the longitude of Chandr (Candr Spast) is 14750. This converted into Kalas will be 2090 at birth. The Dasha should be taken, as commencing from that. Divide the Kalas by 800 (1 Nakshatras). The result will be the 2nd Nakshatra, namely Bharini and the remainder will be 490. These will be the past Kalas of Kritika. There are 200 Kalas in one Pad (Navāṣa). Divide 490, the past Kalas of Kritika, by 200. We will then get 2, as past Padas and the remainder 90 will represent the past Kalas of the present Nakshatras. By multiplying this by 83, the Dasha years, we will get 7470, which, divided by 200, will indicate the expired portion of the Dasha, as 37 years, 4 months and 6 days. By deducting the years of Dehāṣa, commencing from Vrishabh, in the order Vrishabh, Mesh, Meen, Kumbh (16+7+10+4 = 37), we will get 0 years, 4 months and 6 days. This will be the expired portion of Makar. Deducting this from 4, the Dasha period of Makar, we get the balance of the Dasha of Makar, namely 3 years, 7 months and 24 days. See in this connection the Savya Kaal Chakr.

Gati of Rācis in the Kaal Chakra

96-98. There are three kinds of movements (Gati) of the Rācis in the Kaal Chakra, namely Manduki, Markati and Simhavlokan. The movement of one Rāci by jumping over one Rāci is known, as Manduki Gati. Backward movement to the previous Rāci is called Markati Gati. The movement of a Rāci to the 5th and 6th Rāci is said to be Simhavlokan.

99-100. Movement from Kanya to Kark and from Simh to Mithun is Manduki Gati. Movement from Simh to Kark is Markati Gati. Movement from Meen to Vrishik and from Dhanu to Mesh is called Simhavlokan Gati.

Effects of Dasha of Rācis, as a Result of these Gati

101-102. The effects of the Dasha of the Rācis with Manduki Gati in the Savya Chakra are distress to friends, relations, parents and elders and there is likely to be cause for trouble from poison, weapons, thieves and enemies. In the Manduki Dasha of the Gati of a Rāci from Simh to Mithun there is the likelihood of the death of the mother, or self, trouble from Government and possibility of brain fever.

103. The effects of the Dasha of Rāci with Markati Gati in the Savya Chakra are loss of wealth, agricultural products and animals, death of father, or an elderly close relation and feeling of lethargy.

104-105. The effects of the Dasha of the Rācis with Simhavlokan Gati in the Savya Chakra are possibility of injury from animals, loss of amity with friends, distress to near relations, drowning in a well, fall from animals, possibility of harm from poison, weapons and diseases and destruction of residential dwelling.

106-108. In the Dasha of the Rācis with the Manduki Gati in the Apsavya Chakra the effects will be distress to wife and conditions, loss of children, possibility of feverish conditions and loss of position. In the Dasha of the Rācis with the Markati Gati there may be danger from watery places, loss of position, distress from father, punishment from Government and wandering in the forests; with the Simhavlokan there may be destruction of the dwelling and death of father etc.

109-111. If the movement is from Meen to Vrishik, the native may suffer from fever; if from Kanya to Kark, there may be loss of brothers and kinsmen; if from Simh to Mithun, there may be ill health of the wife; if from Simh to Kark, the native may die; if from Dhanu to Mesh, there may be death of uncles and similar relations. If the Rāci is yuti with a malefic, adverse conditions may be expected in the Dasha of the Rāci. Favourable effects will be felt in its Dasha, if the Rāci is yuti with a benefic.

112-113. O Brahmin! In the Kaal Chakra Dasha favourable and unfavourable effects may be predicted, after taking into account the directions of the Rācis and Grahas.

114-119. If the movement is from Kanya to Kark, good results are realized in places, located in the East and at that time journeys to the places in the North prove fruitful. Unfavourable effects will be felt in places, located in the West and the South. It will be advisable not to undertake journeys in those directions in the Dasha of these Rācis. If the movement is from Simh to Mithun, no journey should be undertaken to places, located in the East. However, the journeys to the South-West will prove fruitful in the Dasha of those Rācis. If the movement is from Kark to Simh, journeys during that period to the South will prove unfavourable and result in loss and the native has to return from the South to the West. If the movement is from Meen to Vrishchik, there will distress, if the native goes to the North. The same would happen, if the movement is from Dhanu to Makar. There may be ill health, imprisonment, or death, if the movement is from Dhanu to Mesh. There may be gains, comforts and property and marriage, if the movement is from Dhanu to Vrishchik. It will not be advisable to undertake journeys to the West during the related period, if the movement is from Simh to Kark. Favourable results should be predicted, if the Räçis are yuti with benefics and adverse, if the Räçis are yuti with malefics.

120-122. According to the above-mentioned Kaal Chakr, the person, born in the Aiças of the various Räçis, will be, as under. Mesh Aič brave and a thief, Vrishabh wealthy, Mithun learned, Kark king, Simh respected by king, Kanya learned, Tula minister, or adviser, Dhanu sinful, Kumbh businessman, Meen wealthy.

123-128. If the Dëha, or Jiva Räçis are yuti with Sûrya, Mâî gal, Çani, or Râhu, the native will die.
Worse results may be expected, if the Dëha and Jiva Räçis are yuti with two, or all of them. If there is a malefic in Dëha Räçi, the native suffers ill health; a malefic in a Jiva Räçi will make the native very timid. If the Dëha and/or Jiva Räçis are yuti with two malefics, there will be distress and diseases. Three malefics in the Dëha and/or Jiva Räçis will cause premature death.
Four malefics in the Dëha and Jiva Räçis will cause definite death. If both the Dëha and Jiva Räçis are occupied by malefics, there will be fear from king and thieves and death of the native.
If Sûrya is in the Dëha, or Jiva Räçi, there will be danger from fire. Candr in the Dëha, or Jiva Räçi will cause danger from water, Mâî gal fear from weapons, Budh fear from windy troubles, Çani fear from Gulma (a disease), Râhu and Ketu fear from poison. If the Dëha, or Jiva Räçis are occupied by Budh, Guru and Çukr, the native will be wealthy, will enjoy all kinds of comforts and will have good health. Mixed results may be expected, if the Dëha and Jiva Räçis are occupied by both benefics and malefics.

129-130. In the Dasha of the Räçis, owned by malefics, the body and soul will be in distress. The effects will be favourable in the Dasha of the Räçis, owned by benefics. If a malefic Räçi is occupied by a benefic Grah, or, if a benefic Räçi is occupied by a malefic Grah, the effects will be of a mixed nature.

Effects of Kaal Chakr Dasha of the Räçis in Lagn and other Bhavas.

131-132. In the Kaal Chakr Dasha of the Räçi in Lagn the body remains healthy and the native spends a life with many kinds of comforts. If the Lagn Räçi is a benefic one, the good effects are realized fully. If the Lagn Räçi is a malefic Räçi, there is likelihood of ill health. If a Grah in exaltation, or in its own Räçi occupies Lagn, the native is respected by the king, or government and acquires wealth.

133-134. In the Chakr Dasha of the Räçi in Dhan the native receives good food, enjoys happiness of wife and children, gains wealth, achieves progress in the educational sphere, becomes a clever conversationalist and moves in good society. If the Räçi is a benefic, good effects are realized in full, otherwise the effects would be of a mixed nature.

135-136. Happiness from co-borns, valour, patience, comforts, acquisition of gold, ornaments and clothes and recognition by the king, or government, are the effects in the Kaal Chakr Dasha of the Räçi in Sahaj. If the Räçi is a benefic, the good results are realized in full, otherwise adverse effects may also be experienced.

137-138. Good relations with kinsmen, acquisition of land, houses, or a kingdom, conveyances and clothes and enjoyment of sound health, are the effects of the Chakr Dasha of the Räçi in Bandhu. If the Räçi is a benefic one, the good effects are realized in full. If it is a malefic Räçi, adverse results are also experienced.

health, good relations with friends, achievement of fame, good progress in the educational sphere, patience and valour are the effects of the Chakr Dasha of the Räçi in Putr. If the Räçi is a benefic one, the good results are enjoyed in full. If the Rāci is a malefic one, adverse effects are also experienced.

141-142. Danger from the king, fire and weapons and the possibility of suffering from diabetes, Gulma and jaundice are the effects in the Chakr Dasha of the Rāci in A rī. If the Rāci is a malefic one, the above adverse effects will be experienced in full. There will be some mitigation of the evil effects in the case of a benefic Rāci.

143-144. Marriage, conjugal happiness, being blessed with children, gain of agricultural products, cows and clothes, favours and recognition from the king and achievement of fame, are the effects in the Chakr Dasha of the Rāci in Yuvati. The beneficial results will be experienced in full, if the Rāci is a benefic one. Meagre good effects will be realized in the case of a malefic Rāci.

145-146. Destruction of a residential house, distress, loss of wealth, poverty and danger from enemies are the effects of the Chakr Dasha of the Rāci in Randhr. The adverse effects will be realized in full, if the Rāci is a malefic one. Some mitigation in evil effects may be expected in the case of a benefic Rāci.

…Char

158-166. Now I will tell you about the working out of the Dasha years of Vrischik and Kumbh. If both the Lords of the two Rācīs, Vrischik and Kumbh, are placed in their own Rācīs, their Dasha will be of 12 years. O therwise the Dasha will be of the number of years, indicated by the number, counted from that Rāci to the Rāci, occupied by its Lord. If one Grah be in his own Rācī and the other in any other Rācī, the Dasha will be of the number of years counted, from the above first Rācī to the other. If the Lords are in different Rācīs, the counting is to be done up to the Rācī, which is stronger. The Rācī, which has a Grah, placed in it, is considered more powerful than the Rācī without a Grah in it. If both are with Grahas in them, the one with more Grahas would be considered more powerful. If both Rācīs are occupied by an equal number of Grahas, the strength of the Rācī itself should be taken into account. The principle for considering the Bal of the Rācī is, that the Fixed Rācī is considered stronger than the Movable one and the Dual Rācī is considered more powerful than the Fixed Rācī. If there is equality in the strength of the Rācīs, then to determine the number of years of Dasha counting should be done up to the Rācī with bigger number. If one Rācī is occupied by a Grah in exaltation, the counting should be done up to that Rācī only. If both are with Grahas in them, 1 should be added in the number of years in the case of a Rācī with an exalted Grah and 1 should be deducted from the number of years in the case of a Rācī with a Grah in debilitation. The prediction should be made after calculating the Dasha in this manner.

167. If the Rācī in Dharma Bhava is in an odd Pad, the counting should be from the Rācī in the Lagn onwards. The counting would be in the reverse order, if the Pad is even. The Dasha of Rācīs have to be fixed, keeping this in view.

For Example. In the above Tula is the Rācī in Dharm Bhava in an odd Pad. Amongst the Lords of Lagn, Cāni and Rahu, Rahu is associated with a Grah. Therefore Rahu is more powerful than, Cāni. Therefore counting should be done up to Rahu. Kumbh is in even Pad, therefore counting has to be done from Kumbh up to Rahu in the reverse order, by which the Char Dasha for Kumbh would come to 8 years. Mesh is in odd Pad. Therefore the Char Dasha for Mesh will be one year. The Dasha of other Rācīs should be calculated in the same manner.

Sthir

168-169. Maharishi Parashar said. Now I am going to describe the Sthir Dasha. In this Dasha system 7, 8 and 9 years are the Dasha spans of the Movable (Char), Fixed (Sthir) and Dual (Dvisva Bhava) Rācīs. In this system the Dasha of the 12 Rācīs begins from the Brahms Grah A shrit Rācī. The Dasha are counted onwards from the odd Rācīs and in the reverse order from the even Rācīs.
170-173. Maitreya said. O great Sage! Now please enlighten me how the Brahm Grah is picked out in a chart. Maharishi Parashar said. From amongst the Lords of A rî, Randhr and Vyaya the Grah, who may possess the greatest strength and is placed in Lagn, or in Yuvati with strength, the one, placed in an odd Räçi within sixth Bhava from the Bhava concerned, is called the Brahm Grah. The Lord of Randhr in Randhr is also accepted, as Brahm Grah. If Çani, or Rahu/Ketu obtain Brahmatva (qualifications of Brahm Grah), they become Brahm Grah. If a number of Grahas obtain Brahmatva, the one with the largest number of degrees would become Brahm Grah. If there is parity in the degrees of such Grahas, the most powerful amongst them would become Brahm Grah.

Yogardha

174. The spans of Dashas of the Räçis in the Yogardha Dasha system are half of the total of the spans of Char and Sthir Dashas. The Dasha will commence from the Räçi of Lagn, or Yuvati, whichever is stronger. The order of the Dashas of the 12 Räçis will be counted onwards, if the opening Dasha Räçi is an odd one. If it be an even Räçi, the Dashas will be in reverse order.

Kendradi

175-176. In this system there are Dashas of Fixed Räçis in the Kendr etc. from Lagn, or from Yuvati, whichever is stronger. If Lagn, or Yuvati with strength is placed in an odd Räçi, the Kendr etc. are counted in the onward order. If it be in an even Räçi, the counting will be in the backward, or reverse order. In them also the Dashas would be in the order of comparative strength of the Räçis. The order of Dashas would be the same, as reckoned from the A tma Karak. The spans of Dashas would be the same, as they are in the Char Dasha. In calculating the years of Dashas of Grahas, counting is done from the Dasha to his own Räçi. The years of Dashas would be the number, arrived at by counting up to the Räçi of the Dasha, which is stronger, or more in number.

177. If a Grah owns two Räçis, the Dasha years will be equal to the number, which is greater, when counted from the Räçi, occupied by him.

Notes. Under this system Dashas are of two kinds, namely Lagn Kendradi and Atma Karak Kendradi. There are also Kendradi Räçi Dasha, or Kendradi Grah Dasha in both the Dasha systems, mentioned above.

Karak

178. The system, under which the first Dasha is of the Atma Karak and the subsequent Dashas are of the remaining 7 Karakas in their order is known, as Karak Dasha. In this system the Dasha years are equal to the number of Räçis, enumerated from Lagn up to the Karak concerned.

Manduk

179-180. Under the Manduk Dasha system the Dasha commences from Lagn, or Yuvati Bhava, whichever is stronger. If the Räçi of commencement is an odd Räçi, the Dashas of 3 Movable, 3 Fixed and 3 Dual Räçis will be counted in the onwards order. They will be in the reverse order in the case of an even Räçi. In this system the Dasha years will be the same, as in Sthir Dasha. In this system every Dasha is of the next 3rd Räçi.

Shula

181-182. Some sages have designed the Shula Dasha for determining the time of death. In this system the Dasha commences from Dhan, or Randhr, whichever is stronger. If the Räçi is an odd one, the order of the Dasha Räçis will be onwards. It will be backwards in the case of an even Räçi. The Dasha years in this system are, as adopted for the Sthir Dasha. There is a possibility, that death appears in the Dasha of the Marak Räçi, which has greater strength.

Trikon

183-184. In this system the first Dasha commences from the strongest amongst the Räçis in Kon (Trikon) to Lagn (Tanu, Putr and D harm). This system is similar to the Char Dasha. Here also the Dashas of the Räçis will be in the onwards order in the case of odd Räçis and in the reverse order in the case of even Räçis. The Dasha years will be similar to that of Char Dasha. It has been named Trikon because of the commencement of the Dasha from the Räçis in Konas.

Dirga

185-187. In this system the order of the Dashas is, as follows: the Räçi, occupying D harm, the Räçis, receiving a Drishti from the Räçi in D harm, the Räçi in K arm, the Räçis, receiving a Drishti from the Räçi in K arm, the Räçi in Labh and the Räçis, receiving a Drishti from the Räçi in Labh. As this system is mostly based on Drishtis, it has been named, as Dirga Dasha. Three different processes are adopted for the Movable, Fixed and Dual Räçis from D harm, K arm and Labh. According to them, Räçi, which receives a Drishti from the Movable Räçi, is counted backwards and the Räçi, receiving a Drishti from the Fixed Räçi, is counted onwards. In the case of the Dual Räçi, if it is odd, the counting is onwards and the order is backwards in case of an even Räçi for the Räçis, receiving a Drishti.

Notes. The intention is, that from the point of view of Drishti the process of Räçi, receiving a Drishti, should be started from the Räçi, which is nearest. In this connection readers may refer to Räçi Drishtikathan Adhyaya, Ch. 8, Verse 9 and the table after that.

Lagnadi Räçi Dasha

188-189. In this system there are Dashas of all the 12 Räçis, including Lagn, in every Nakshatr. Consequently the Bhayat at birth may be multiplied by 12 and then the product should be divided by Bhabhog. The Räçi, degree etc. so available may be added to the longitude of Lagn. From the Räçi, becoming available by doing so, will start the Dasha of the 12 Räçis. (If that Räçi is odd, the counting will be onwards. It will be in the reverse order, if the Räçi is even)

190. For finding the balance of Dasha at birth, multiply the expired degree etc. by the Dasha years of the first Dasha Räçi and divide it by 30. The years etc. so arrived at may be deducted from the Dasha years. The result will indicate the balance of Dasha at birth in years, months etc.

Panch Swar Dasha

191-194. Beginning from A karadhi 5 Swaras (a, i, u, e, o), write underneath them the Varnas in 6 lines. Leave out the letters ïa, a and ëa, because they are not used in names. If they are found in any name, ga may be substituted for ïa, ja for a and da for ëa for working out the Dashas and making predictions. In this manner the Swar, under which the first Varna of the name of the native is found, will determine the order of the Dashas of the five Swaras. Dashas are of 12 years for all the five Swaras. In the Dasha of every Swar there will be Antar Dasha of all the five Swaras in the same order.
Yogini

195-199. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin! I have already given you the description of Panch Swar Dasha. Now I will acquaint you with the Yogini Dasha, as described by Lord Mahadeva. There are 8 Yoginis, namely Mangal, Pingal, Dhanya, Bhramari, Bhadrika, Ulka, Siddha and Sankat.

Candr, Surya, Guru, Mangal, Budh, Cani, Cukr and Rahu are born from them. Add 3 to the Janm Nakshatras and divide it by 8. The remainder will indicate the Yogini Dasha of Mangal, etc. The Dasha are of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 years. The balance of Dasha at birth should be worked out from the Bhayat and Bhabhog etc., as already explained earlier.

Pind, Aïç and Nisarg

201-202. The Pind, Aïç and Nisarg Dasha will be the same, as Pindayu, Aïçayu and Nisargayu, the method of determination of which has already been explained previously. The order of Dasas will be, as follows. The first will be of Lagn, Surya, or Candr, whoever is stronger. The subsequent Dasha will be of Grahas in Kndr to them, then of Grahas in Panaphara Bhavas and lastly in Apoklima Bhavas. The Dasha and Antar Dasha of Lagn and the seven Grahas will also be in the same order.

203. The effects of these Dasas will be in accordance with A shtak Varg Bal, which subject will be dealt with later. These Dasha are also called A shtak Varg Dasha.

Sandhya

204. Sandhya is the Dvadasha A yurdaya of the Param A yurdaya (maximum possible life-span). In Sandhya Dasha the Dasha of all the Rasis from Lagn onwards is of 1/12 the years of Param A yurdaya.

Pachak Dasha in Sandhya Dasha

205-206. By multiplying the Dasha years of Sandhya Dasha by 6 and dividing the product by 31, the years, months etc. so arrived at may be put in one apartment of a Table. Thereafter half of these years, months etc. may be written in the next three apartments. The remaining 8 apartments may be filled in by one third of the aforesaid years, months etc. In this manner Pachak Dasha in Sandhya Dasha of every Bhava can be worked out and predictions may be made from it.

Tar

207-209. O Brahmin! Some sages have given consideration to Tar Dasha, which is like Vimshottari. In this Dasha Jam, Sampat etc. in their order replace Surya, Candr etc., placed in Kndras. This Dasha is applied in those cases only, where there are Grahas in Kndras. If there are a number of Grahas, the first Dasha will belong to the strongest amongst them.

210. O Brahmin! I have now completed the description of the different kinds of Dasha. I will give the description of their Antar Dasha (sub-periods) later.

Ch. 47. Effects of Dasha

1. Maitreya said. O Maharishi Parashar! You have told me about the different kinds of Dasha. Now be kind enough to enlighten me with the effects of Dasha.
2. Maharishi Parashar replied. O Brahmin! There are two kinds of effects of Dāshas: general and distinctive. The natural characteristics of the Grahas cause the general effects and the distinctive effects are realized by their placements etc.

3-4. The effects of the Dāshas of the Grahas are in accordance with their strength. The effects of a Graha in the first Dṛśṭakāṇ is realized at the commencement of the Dasha. The Graha in the second Dṛśṭakāṇ makes its effects felt in the middle of the Dasha. The effects of the Graha in the third Dṛśṭakāṇ are experienced at the end of the Dasha. If the Graha is retrograde, these effects would be in the reverse order. The Dasha effects of Rahu and Ketu, who are always retrograde, will always be realized in the reverse order.

5-6. The effects are favourable, if at the commencement of the Dasha the Dasha Lord is in Lagn, in his exaltation, own, or a Shant Rāçi. The results are unfavourable, if the Dasha Lord is in A ṛ, R andhr, or V yaya Bhava, in his debilitation, or in an inimical Rāçi.

7-11. During the Dasha of Śūrya there is acquisition of wealth, great felicity and honours from the Government, if at the time of birth Śūrya is in his own Rāçi, in his exaltation Rāçi, in a Kendr, in Labh, be associated with the Lord of Dharma, or the Lord of Karm and strong in his Varg. The native will be blessed with a son (children), if Śūrya is with the Lord of Putr. The native will acquire elephants and other kinds of wealth, if Śūrya is associated with the Lord of Dhan. The native will enjoy comforts of conveyances, if Śūrya is associated with the Lord of Bandhu. He attains a high position, like that of Army Chief, by the beneficence of the king and enjoys all kinds of happiness. Thus during the Dasha of a strong (and favourable) Śūrya there are acquisitions of clothes, agricultural products, wealth, honours, conveyances etc.

12-15. During the Dasha of Śūrya there will be anxieties, loss of wealth, punishment from Government, defamation, opposition by kinsmen, distress to father, (in)auspicious happenings at home, distress to paternal and maternal uncles etc., anxiety and inimical relations with other people for no reason whatsoever, should Śūrya be in his Rāçi of debilitation, be weak in A ṛ, R andhr, or V yaya, or be associated with malefic Grahas, or with the Lord of A ṛ, R andhr, or V yaya. There will be some favourable effects at times, if in the above situations Śūrya receives a Drishti from benefic Grahas. The effects will always be unfavourable, when malefic Grahas give a Drishti to Śūrya.

16-22. O Brahmin! After describing the effects of the Dasha of Śūrya in brief, I will now come to the effects of Vimshottari Dasha of Candr. During the Dasha of Candr from its commencement to the end there will be opulence and glory, good fortune, gain of wealth, auspicious functions at home, dawn of fortune, attainment of a high position in Government, acquisition of conveyances, clothes, birth of children and acquisition of cattle, should Candr be in her exaltation, in her own Rāçi, in a Kendr, in Labh, Dharma, or Putr, be associated with, or receives a Drishti from benefics, be fully powerful and is associated with the Lord of Karm, Dharma, or Bandhu. There will be extraordinary gains of wealth and luxuries, if such a Candr is in Dhan Bhava.

23-26. Should Candr be waning, or in her debilitation Rāçi, there will be loss of wealth in her Dasha. If Candr is in Sahaj, there will be happiness off and on. If Candr is associated with malefics, there will be idiocy, mental tension, trouble from employees and mother and loss of wealth. If waning Candr is in A ṛ, R andhr, or V yaya, or is associated with malefics, there will be inimical relations with Government, loss of wealth, distress to mother and similar evil effects. If a strong Candr is placed in A ṛ, R andhr, or V yaya there will be troubles and good times off and on.

27-32. If Mālgal is in his exaltation, in his Multrikon, in his own Rāçi, in a Kendr, in Labh, or Dhan Bhava with strength, in a benefic Aīç (Navāīç) and is associated with a benefic, there will be during his Dasha acquisition of kingdom (attainment of a high administrative, or political position in Government, gain of wealth and land, recognition by Government), gain of wealth from foreign countries and acquisition of conveyances and ornaments. There will also be happiness and good relations with co-borns. If Mālgal with strength is placed in a Kendr, or in Sahaj, there will be gain of wealth through valour, victory over enemies, happiness from wife and children. There will, however, be a possibility of some unfavourable effects at the end of the Dasha.
33. If Mangal is in his debilitation Rāçi, weak, in an inauspicious Bhava, or is associated with, or receives a Drishti from malefics, there will be in his Dasha loss of wealth, distress and similar unfavourable effects.

34-39½. In order to clarify the effects of the Dasha of Rahu I shall first mention the exaltation and debilitation Rācis of Rahu and Ketu. The exaltation Rāçi of Rahu is Vrishabh. The exaltation Rāçi of Ketu is Vrishik. The Multrikonas of Rahu and Ketu are Mithun and Dhanu. The own Rācis of Rahu and Ketu are Kumbh and Vrischik. Some sages have expressed the view, that Kanya is the own Rāçi of Rahu and Meen is the own Rāçi of Ketu. Should Rahu be in his exaltation Rāçi etc., there will be during the Dasha of Rahu great happiness from acquisition of wealth, agricultural products etc., acquisition of conveyances with the help of friends and Government, construction of a new house, birth of sons (children), religious inclinations, recognition from Government of foreign countries and gain of wealth, clothes etc. If Rahu be associated with, or receives a Drishti from benefics, be in a benefic Rāçi and be in Tanu, Bandhu, Yuvati, Karm, Labh, or Sahaj, there will be during his Dasha all kinds of comforts by the beneficence of the Government, acquisition of wealth through a foreign Government, or sovereign and felicity at home.

40-43. If Rahu is in Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava, there will be during his Dasha all kinds of troubles and distress. If Rahu is associated with a malefic, or a Marak Grha, or is in his debilitation Rāçi, there will be loss of position, destruction of his residential house, mental agony, trouble to wife and children and misfortune of getting bad food. There will be loss of wealth at the commencement of the Dasha, some relief and gain of wealth in his own country and distress and anxieties during the last portion of the Dasha.

44. Now I am going to describe the effects of the Dasha of Guru, the great benefic and preceptor of the Gods.

45-48. If Guru is in his exaltation, his own Rāçi, his Multrikon, in Karm, Putr, or Dharm Bhava, in his own Navāç, or in his exalted Navāç, there will be during his Dasha: acquisition of kingdom, great felicity, recognition by Government, acquisition of conveyances and clothes, devotion to deities and Brahmins, happiness in respect of his wife and children and success in the performance of religious sacrifices (oblations).

49-51. If Guru is in his debilitation Rāçi, combust, associated with malefics, or in Ari, or Randhr, there will be during his Dasha loss of residential premises, anxiety, distress to children, loss of cattle and pilgrimage. The Dasha will give some unfavourable effects at its commencement only. During the later part of the Dasha there will be good effects, like gain of wealth, awards from and recognition by Government.

52. Now I will describe to you the effects of the Dasha of Çani, who is considered the vilest and most inferior amongst all the Grahas.

53-56. If Çani is in his exaltation, in his own Rāçi, his Multrikon, in Karm, Putr, or Dharm Bhava, in his own Navāç, or in his exalted Navāç, there will be during his Dasha: acquisition of kingdom, great felicity, recognition by Government, acquisition of conveyances and clothes, devotion to deities and Brahmins, happiness in respect of his wife and children and success in the performance of religious sacrifices (oblations). Çani is in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava, there will be during his Dasha all kinds of troubles and distress. If Çani is associated with a malefic, or a Marak Grha, or is in his debilitation Rāçi, there will be loss of position, destruction of his residential house, mental agony, trouble to wife and children and misfortune of getting bad food. There will be loss of wealth at the commencement of the Dasha, some relief and gain of wealth in his own country and distress and anxieties during the last portion of the Dasha.

57-60. If Çani is in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya Bhava, there will be during his Dasha all kinds of troubles and distress. If Çani is associated with a malefic, or a Marak Grha, or is in his debilitation Rāçi, there will be loss of position, destruction of his residential house, mental agony, trouble to wife and children and misfortune of getting bad food. There will be loss of wealth at the commencement of the Dasha, some relief and gain of wealth in his own country and distress and anxieties during the last portion of the Dasha.

58. Now I am going to describe the effects of the Dasha of Budh, who is called a Kumar (in his teens) amongst all the Grahas.

59-62. If Budh is in his exaltation, in his own Rāçi, or in Multrikon, or friendly Rāçi, in his own, or exalted Navāç and in Sahaj, or Labh, there will be during his Dasha recognition by Government, opulence and glory, name and fame, success in the educational sphere, acquisition of conveyances and ornaments etc., gain of wealth, favours from Government, attainment of a high position, like Commander of an Army, acquisition of a kingdom, benevolence of goddess Lakshmi, gain of property and birth of children.

61. Now I am going to describe the effects of the Dasha of Budh, who is called a Kumar (in his teens) amongst all the Grahas.

62-65. If Budh is in his exaltation, in his own, in a friendly Rāçi, or in Labh, Putr, or Dharm, there will be during his Dasha acquisition of wealth, gain of reputation, improvement in knowledge, benevolence of Government, auspicious functions, happiness from wife and children, good health, availability of sweetish preparations, profits in business etc. If Budh receives a Drishti from a benefic, is in Dharm, or is the Lord of Karm, the aforesaid beneficial results will be experienced in full and there will be great felicity all-round.

66-70. If Budh is associated with a malefic, there will be during his Dasha punishment by Government, inimical relations with kinsmen, journey to a foreign country, dependence on others and the possibility of urinary troubles. If Budh is in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya, there will be loss of wealth, due to indulgence in lascivious activities, possibility of suffering from rheumatism and jaundice, danger of thefts and malevolence of Government, loss of land and cattle etc. At the commencement of the Dasha of Budh, there will be gains of wealth, betterment in the educational sphere, birth of children and happiness. In the middle of the Dasha, there will be recognition from Government. The last part of the Dasha will be distressful.

71. Now I will tell you about the Dasha of Ketu, who is a headless trunk (Kabandha) amongst all the Grahas.

72-77. If Ketu is in a Kendr, a Trikon, or in Labh, in a benefic Räçi, in his exaltation, or in his own Räçi, there will be during his Dasha cordial relations with the king, desired headship of a country, or village, comforts of conveyances, happiness from children, gain from foreign countries, happiness from wife and acquisition of cattle. If Ketu is in Sahaj, Ari, or Labh, there will be in his Dasha acquisition of a kingdom, good relations with friends and opportunities for the acquisition of elephants. At the commencement of the Ketu Dasha there will be Raj Yog. During the middle portion of the Dasha there will be possibilities of fearfulness and in the last part there will be sufferings from ailments and journeys to distant places. If Ketu is in Dhan, Randhr, or Vyaya, or receives a Drishti from a malefic, there will be imprisonment, destruction of kinsmen and residential premises and anxieties, company of menials and diseases.

78. Now I will describe the effects of the Dasha of Çukr, who is the incarnate of intoxication, ecstasy, delight and pride amongst all the Grahas.

79-82. If Çukr is in his exaltation, in his own Räçi, or in a Kendr, or a Trikon, there will be during his Dasha acquisition of fancy clothes, ornaments, conveyances, cattle and land etc., availability of sweet preparations every day, recognition from the sovereign, luxurious functions of songs and dances etc. by the benevolence of Goddess Lakshmi. If Çukr is in his Multrikon, during his Dasha there will definitely be acquisition of a kingdom, acquisition of a house, birth of children and grandchildren, celebration of marriage in the family, attainment of a high position, like the Commander of an Army, visits of friends, recovery of lost wealth, property, or kingdom.

83-84 ½. If Çukr is in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya, there will be during his Dasha inimical relations with kinsmen, distress to wife, losses in business, destruction of cattle and separation from relations.

85-87. If Çukr is in Bandhu, as Lord of Dharm, or Karm, there will be during his Dasha physical pains and troubles. To get alleviation from those troubles the native should perform Shatarudriya, or Mrityunjaya Japa in the prescribed manner and give in charity a cow, or female buffalo.

88-89. Similar are the effects of Çukr in his sub-periods. If Çukr is Lord of Dhan, or Yuvati, there will be during his Dasha physical pains and troubles. To get alleviation from those troubles the native should perform Shatarudriya, or Mrityunjaya Japa in the prescribed manner and give in charity a cow, or female buffalo.

Distinctive Effects of the Nakshatr Dasha, or of the D ashas of the Lords (Vimshottari) of various Bhavas

1. If the Lord of Karm is placed in an auspicious Bhava in his exaltation Räçi etc., his Dasha effects will be favourable. The effects will be adverse, if the Lord of Karm is in his debilitation Räçi and occupies an inauspicious Bhava. This proves, that an inauspicious Grah in his exaltation Räçi etc. will not produce unfavourable results, if placed in an auspicious Bhava and a benefic, being in his debilitation Räçi and being placed in an inauspicious Bhava, will produce adverse effects. Now I will describe the effects of the Dasha of the Lords of various Bhavas, who are related to each other.

2-4. There will be physical well-being in the Dasha of the Lord of Lagn, distress and possibility of death in the Dasha of the Lord of Dhan, unfavourable effects in the Dasha of the Lord of Sahaj, acquisition of house and land in the Dasha of the Lord of Bandhu, progress in educational sphere and happiness from the children in the Dasha of the Lord of Putr and danger from enemies and ill health in the Dasha of the Lord of Ari.

5-8. There will be distress to wife and the possibility of the death of the native in the Dasha of the Lord of Yuvati, the possibility of death and financial losses in the Dasha of the Lord of Randhr, improvement in the educational sphere, religious-mindedness and unexpected gains of wealth in the Dasha of the Lord of Dharma, recognition from and awards by the Government in the Dasha of the Lord of Karm, obstacles in gains of wealth and the possibility of diseases in the Dasha of the Lord of Sahaj and distress and danger from diseases in the Dasha of the Lord of Vyaya. A Graha, placed in an auspicious Bhava, like Trikon etc., at the commencement of the Dasha, produces favourable results in his Dasha. The Graha, placed in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya at that time, yields only adverse results during his Dasha. It is therefore essential, that the placement of a Graha at the time of birth and at the commencement of the Dasha should both be taken into account for the assessment of the Dasha effects.

14-17 ½. The Dasha of Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya's Lord also becomes favourable, if they get associated with the Lord of a Trikon. If the Lord of a Kendr is in a Trikon, or the Lord of a Trikon is in a Kendr, the Dasha of the Graha, yuti with either of them, becomes favourable. The Dasha of a Graha, receiving a Drishti from the Lord of a Kendr, or Trikon is also favourable. If Dharma's Lord is in Lagn and Lagns Lord is in Dharma, the Dashas of both of them will produce extremely beneficial results. There will be acquisition of a kingdom in the Dashas of Laghs Lord and Karms Lord, if Karms Lord is in Lagn and Lagns Lord is in Kendr.

18-20. The Dasha of Sahaj, Ari and Labhs Lord, of the Grahas, placed in Sahaj, Ari and Labh and of the Grahas, yuti with the above, will prove unfavourable. The Dasha of the Grahas, associated with the Lords of Marak Bhavas, namely Dhan and Yuvati, in Dhan, or Yuvati and the Dashas of the Grahas, placed in Randhr, will produce unfavourable effects. Thus the Dashas should be considered favourable, after taking into account the placement of a Graha and his relationship of one Graha with the other. (Rahu and Ketu give favourable results in Sahaj, Ari and Labh).

Ch. 49. Effects of the Kaal Chakr

1-5. Maharishi Parashar said. O Brahmin! I am now going to describe to you the effects of the Kaal Chakr Dasha.

During the Dasha of the Rāj, owned, or occupied by Sūrya, there will be ill health, due to the blood, or bile troubles; ... The Effects of the Dashas on the Basis of the Navāïç of each Rāçi

6-7. In the Kaal Chakr Dasha of Mesh in Mesh Navāïç there will be distress, due to troubles, caused by the pollution of blood. 8-10. In the Dasha of Makar Naväç in Vrishabh there will be tendency to perform undesirable deeds along with more adverse effects. In the Kumbh Naväç will be profits in business, in the Meen success in all ventures, in the Dasha of Vrishikh Naväç danger from fire, in the Dasha of Tula Naväç recognition from Government and reverence from all, in the Dasha of Kanya Naväç danger from enemies, in the Dasha of Kark Naväç distress to wife, in the Dasha of Simh Naväç diseases of eyes and in the Dasha of Mithun Naväç obstacles in earning livelihood. Vrishabh birth of children, ... Mithun increase in enemies, ... Kark love with some woman, ... Simh aggravation of diseases and in the Dasha of Kanya Amça birth of children.

20-22. In Simh in the Dasha of the Tula Amça there will be financial gains, ... Vrishikh good relations with kinsmen, ... Dhanu happiness from father, ... Makar disputes with mother, ... Kumbh birth of a son and financial gains, ... Meen entanglement with enemies, ... Vrishikh disputes with women, ... Tula danger from water and in Dasha of the Kanya Amça more financial gains.

23-24. In Vrishik in the Dasha of Kark Amça there will be financial gains, ... Simh opposition to the king, ... Mithun acquisition of land, ... Vrishabh financial gains, ... Mesh danger from reptiles, ... Meen danger from water, ... Kumbh profits in business, ... Makar profits in business, ... Makar possibility of suffering from diseases and in the Dasha of Dhanu Amça financial gains.

25-27. In Dhanu in the Dasha of Mesh Amça there will be financial gains, ... Vrishabh acquisition of more land, ... Mithun success in ventures, ... Kark success all round, ... Simh increase in the accumulated wealth, ... Kanya disputes, ... Tula financial gains, ... Vrishikh affliction with diseases, ... Dhanu happiness from children.

28-29. In Makar in the Dasha of Makar Amça there will be happiness from children, ... Kumbh gain of agricultural products, ... Meen well being, ... Vrishikh danger from poison, ... water and in the Dasha of Meen Amga good fortune all-round. In this manner on the Kaal Chakr, prepared on the basis of Pad of the Janm Nakshatr, the D ashas of the Navãìç Räçis and their duration can be assessed and prediction can be made for the whole life of the native. Appropriate remedial measures (recitation of Mantras, oblations etc.) should be taken to alleviate the adverse effects, caused by malefic Dashas.

35-37. The effects of Dasha in Raj Yog etc. have already been described in Vol. I of this book. The same should be applied in a judicious manner in the Kaal Chakr. These are in brief effects of Kaal Chakr Dasha.

Ch. 50. Effects of the Chara etc. Dasahas

1-3. Maharishi Parashar said, O Brahmin! I have already described the Chara etc. D ashas. Now I am going to tell you the effects of these D ashas. The effects of the D ashas of the Räçis should be judged from the strength of the Lords of Räçis and whether they are benefics, or malefics. If the Lord of a Räçi possesses full strength, the effects of the Dasha of the Räçi will be realized in full. The effects of the Dasha will be of medium nature, if the strength is medium. If the Lord of Räçi possesses little strength, the effects will be experienced accordingly.

4-10. If there are malefics in the 8th, the 5th and the 9th from a Dasha Räçi, the effects of the Dasha of that Räçi will be distressful. If there are malefics in the 3rd and the 6th from a Dasha Räçi, the effects of the Dasha will be victory over enemies and happiness. If there are benefics, or malefics in the 11th from the Dasha Räçi, there will be conquests and happiness in the Dasha. If the Dasha Räçi is occupied by, or is owned by a benefic, the effects of its Dasha will be beneficial. If a Dasha Räçi, owned by a benefic, is occupied by a malefic, favourable effects will be experienced in the first part of the Dasha and they will be adverse in the latter part. If a Dasha Räçi, owned by a malefic is occupied by a benefic, the effects of the Dasha will be the same. A Dasha Räçi, owned and occupied by a malefic will always yield unfavourable results. The reverse will be the case in the case of the Dasha Räçi, owned and occupied by a benefic. If a Dasha Räçi, owned by a benefic, is occupied by both benefic and malefic Grahas, the effects of Dasha will be adverse in its first part and favourable in the latter part.

11-17. The assessment of the effects of the Dasha of the Dasha Räçi should be made after taking into account the disposition of the Grahas in the Räçi at birth and the disposition of Grahas during the Dasha. If the Dasha Räçi is well disposed both at the time of birth and during its Dasha, the beneficial results will be realized in full. If it is ill-disposed during the Dasha, the effects will be of mixed nature. If the Dasha Räçi is ill-disposed both at the time of birth and during its Dasha, only evil effects will be experienced.

18-19. The effects of the Dasha will be favourable, if it is occupied by a benefic and there is also a benefic in the Räçi previous to it. If the Räçi is occupied by a malefic, the effects will be of adverse nature. If there are benefics in Putr and D harm, the effects of its Dasha will be favourable. The reverse will be the case, if Putr and D harm are occupied by malefics.

20-21. Kumbh, Vrishabh, Simh and Vrischik are Badhak Bhavas for the four Movable Räçis: Mesh, Kark, Tula and Makar. In other words the 11th Räçi to a Movable Räçi is its Badhak Bhava. If there is a malefic in the Bhava, occupied by its Lord, or in Badhak Bhava of that Räçi, there will be occasions of great sorrow, imprisonment and diseases during the Dasha.

22. The Dasha of a Räçi will be favourable, if it is occupied by its own Lord, or an exalted Grah. The Dasha of a Räçi, not occupied by any Grah, will be adverse.

23-25. There will be great danger, imprisonment during a journey, displeasure of Government and danger from enemies in the Dasha and Antar Dasha of the Räçi, from which its Badhak Bhava, V yaya, A r and R andhr are occupied by R ahu. There will be loss, due to the displeasure of the king and danger therefrom in the Antar Dasha of the Räçi, that is occupied by Surya, Mägal, R ahu and Çani. There will be the possibility of death, if the 5th and the 9th from the Antar Dasha Räçi are occupied by a debilitated, or malefic Grah.
26-28. There will be enjoyment, acquisition of chiefship of a town, or village, birth of a son, financial gains, well-being, dawn of fortune, attainment of the position of a Commander of an Army and progress all-round, if there is an exalted Graha in the Trikon from the Antar Dasha Räçi. There will be in his Dasha financial gains, well-being and birth of a son, if the Graha, who is the Lord of the Dasha, happens to be in a benefic Räçi and receives a Drishti from Guru.

29-32. Vrishabh, Tula, Makar, Kumbh and Mithun are the inimical Räçis of Śūrya. The inimical Räçis of Candr and other Grahas may be reckoned similarly. If a Graha is in an inimical Räçi, his Dasha will be full of adversities. The effects of the Dasha of Räçis and Grahas should be judged after taking into account the above rules.

33-34. The Dasha of that Graha will be favourable, who is Raj Yog Karak, who is disposed between two benefics (that is there are benefics in the 2nd and the 12th Bhavas to that Graha) and who has benefics in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Bhavas from him. A malefic Graha becomes favourable, if he is disposed between benefics.

35-36. The whole of the Dasha of a Graha, who is related to a friendly and benefic Graha at the commencement and the end of the Dasha, will be favourable. In an unfavourable Dasha the Antar Dasha of a benefic (Graha, or Räçi), becomes favourable. The Dasha of a Graha, or Räçi, who has benefics in the 5th, or the 9th from it, is also favourable. In this manner the effects of the Dasha should be judged, after taking into account the dispositions of the Graha, or Räçi at the commencement and at the end of the Dasha.

37-39. The Dasha of the Grahas and Räçis, who have benefics in the Trikon from them is favourable. If the Dasha of a benefic Räçi commences in a benefic Räçi, it will be very favourable. If an evil Dasha commences in a benefic Räçi, it is also favourable. Therefore the commencement of a Dasha should always be kept in view in assessing the results of the Dasha. There will be loss of fortune, if at the commencement of the Dasha there is a malefic Räçi, or, if the Lord of the Dasha Räçi is in debilitation.

40-41. There will be loss of fortune, wealth and agricultural products and infliction with disease during the Dasha of the Räçi, occupied by a debilitated Graha, or, if there is a debilitated Graha in the 5th from it, or in the 9th from it, or whose Lord is debilitated, or related to a debilitated Graha.

42-43. Four Räçis from Kumbh and four Räçis from Vrischik belong to Rahu and Ketu, respectively. If Rahu and Ketu are in any one of the aforesaid Räçis, the Dasha will be productive of beneficial results.

43-45. If a Graha, whose Dasha is otherwise considered favourable, is placed in a Marak Bhava, or, if the Räçi, in which his Dasha comes to an end, receives a Drishti from Çukr, or Candr, there will be in his Dasha displeasure of government and loss of wealth.

46-47. There will be loss of everything, imprisonment, death, exile from the country and great distress at the end of the Dasha of Rahu. The above effects will definitely be realized, if there are malefics in the 5th and the 9th from Rahu. Beneficial and adverse effects should be predicted in this manner.

48-50. The same would be the effects in the Dasha of the Räçi, occupied by malefics, like Rahu etc. The association of a Marak Graha with the Räçi at the time of commencement of its Dasha is not productive of good effects. If such a Graha is Rahu, there will be imprisonment, or loss of wealth.

51-52. The natural characteristics of the Bhava, occupied by Rahu, are harmed at the commencement of the Dasha. If such a Bhava is Dhan, there will be loss of wealth. If Candr and Çukr are in Vyaya, there will be losses, due to the displeasure of government. If Māl gal and K etu are so disposed, there will be death, or danger from fire. There will be acquisition of a kingdom, if Çukr and Candr are in Dhan at the commencement of the Dasha. This means, that the effects of the Bhava, in which Candr and Çukr are placed at the commencement and end of a Dasha, are strengthened. Thus their disposition in A rī, Randhr and Vyaya will produce only adverse effects.

53-55. Similarly the sages have described the effects of the Bhava with Argal. If there is an auspicious Argal causing benefic, or malefic Graha of a Räçi and Lagn receives a Drishti from him, that Räçi will prevail. Here Lagn is the secondary condition. If the Graha, causing uninterrupted Argal, gives a Drishti to a Räçi, that Räçi will prevail. In other words good effects will be derived in the Dasha of that Räçi. The Dasha of the Räçi, which does not receive a Drishti from an auspicious Argal, or the Dasha of a Räçi with Vipreet Argal will not be favourable. The Dasha of that Räçi, which receives a Drishti from a benefic, will be favourable.

56-59. Financial gains will be derived in the Dasha of the Räçi, which is occupied by its benefic Lord, or by an exalted Graha, which receives a Drishti from him. There will be loss of wealth, if such a Graha is in the 12th Bhava to the Räçi (or Bhava). There will be destruction of all good effects, distress to children and father and mental agony in the Dasha of the Räçi, if there are malefics in the 5th and the 9th from the Räçi. Evil effects will be experienced in the Dasha of the Räçi, which is occupied by Randhrs Lord, Vyayas Lord, Surya, Maigal, or Çani.

60-63. The Dasha of the Räçi will cause distress to children, exile to a foreign country and continuous disturbances in life, if Rahu and Ketu are in the Trikon to the Räçi. There will be danger from enemies, from the king and disease in the Dasha of the Räçi, which is so posited, that the 6th and the 8th from it are occupied by malefic, debilitated, or combusted Grahas. There will be destruction of house, land and agricultural fields, if there is a malefic, or debilitated Graha in the 4th from the Räçi. There will be loss of house, due to negligence, if such a Graha is Maital. There will be heart pain and danger from government, if the Graha is Çani and there will be losses all round and danger from poison and thieves, if the Graha is Rahu.

64-66½. There will be pilgrimage to holy places in the Dasha of the Räçi, who has Rahu in the 10th to it. There will be gain of earnings, religious rites, gain of wealth, renown for good deeds and success in efforts and ventures in the Dasha of the Räçi, which is so posited, that the 10th and the 9th from it are occupied by benefics. There will be birth of children, happiness from wife and recognition by the Government in the Dasha of the Räçi, from which the 3rd, the 7th and the 9th are occupied by benefic, or exalted Grahas. During the Dasha of the Bhavas (Räçis), occupied by Putrs, Labhs, Karms, Bandhus, Dharmas and Lagns Lord, there will be growth of these Bhavas. The good effects will be in proportion to the strength of the Bhavas and the Grahas, occupying them.

67-70. In the Dasha of a Räçi (Bhava) there will be well-being, increase in opulence and glory and devotion to deities and Brahmans, if it is occupied by Guru, Çukr, or the Lord of a Trikon. There will be acquisition of more conveyances and cattle etc. in the Dasha of the Räçi (Bhava), which is so posited, that the 4th from it is occupied by an exalted Graha, or Lord of a Trikon. Candr there will give things, like grains, Ghee etc. Full Candr will favour with a treasure and jewels etc. Çukr there, will provide enjoyment from music etc.

71-72. There will be enjoyment of the palanquin-like conveyance in the Dasha of the Räçi (Bhava), from which the 4th is occupied by Guru. There will be success in all ventures, great opulence and glory, acquisition of a kingdom during the Dasha of a Räçi (Bhava), which has the Yog of the Lord of Lagn, Dharmas Lord, Karms Lord, an exalted Graha, or benefics. The effects of the Dasha of various Bhavas should be judged in this manner.

73-77. The effects of the Dasha of each Räçi, or Graha (Nakshatr Dasha) depend on their 18 different kinds of conditions. They are deep exaltation, exaltation, dispositions on their either side, Multi-trikon, own, A dhimita, Tatkalik Mitras, neutral, enemys, Adishatrus Räçi, deep debilitation, debilitated, or enemys Varg, own Varg, disposition in a Kendr, disposition in a Trikon, defeated in war between Grahas, deep combustion.

78-837. Acquisition of kingdom, enjoyment and acquisition of more property are the effects of the whole Dasha of the Graha, who is in deep exaltation and is fully equipped with all the six kinds of Graha, placed in his Räçi of exaltation. The Dasha of a Graha in deep debilitation is called Rik. Diseases, loss of wealth and danger of death are the effects of the Dasha of such a Graha. The Dasha of the Graha, who is in a condition in between deep exaltation and deep debilitation is known, as Arohini (descending). The Dasha of the Graha in exaltation, or in a friends Räçi is called Madhya (of middle order). This Dasha also yields moderately good effects. The Dasha of a Graha, placed in a condition in between deep debilitation and deep exaltation, is called Rohini (ascending). The Dasha of a Graha, placed in between the debilitated and enemy Navais is called A-dham (evil). Dangers of various kinds, distress and sorrows are the results of the Dasha of such a Grah. These Dashas give results, according to their nomenclature.

84-87. The Dashas of other Grahas become auspicious and augment the fortune, if the Lord of Dharma and Guru are in any way related with Yog, Kendra, or the Bhava concerned etc. The Grah with Yog of good fortune at birth produces good effects, when he is free from retrogression and becomes direct. The weakness, inabilitys and Yogas of other Grahas should also be taken into account in judging their effects. All those Dashas give full, medium and little effects in accordance with the disposition of the Grahas in the Kendra, Panaphara and Apoklima.

88-89½. The Grahas in Shirshodaya, Ubhayodaya and Prishthodaya Raças, yield their results, respectively, at the commencement, in the middle and at the end of the Dasha. All the Grahas yield auspicious results in the Antar Dasha of Naisargik (natural, constant) and Tatkalik (according to position) friends. The results will be adverse in the Antar Dasha of inimical Grahas.

Aantar Dasha of Raças

90-96. There are Aantar Dashas of the 12 Raças, commencing from the Raçi, in which the Lord of the Dasha is placed. There will be auspicious results, like acquisition of kingdom in the Aantar Dasha of a Raçi, which is occupied by its own Lord, or a friendly Grah. There will be inauspicious results, like loss of wealth, disputes, danger from diseases etc. in the Aantar Dasha of the Raçi, which may be Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya, or is occupied by a malefic, debilitated Grah, or a Grah, placed in an inimical Raçi. The Raçi, which contained more auspicious marks in the Aśṭak Varga will yield benefic effects in its Aantar Dasha. Adverse will be the effects of the Aantar Dasha of the Raçi, which contains more inauspicious marks. For assessing the results the Raçi, from which the Dasha commences, should be treated, as Lagn and the Bhavas thereafter should be assumed to have the characteristics, as if they are so from Lagn. Thus the 2nd Bhava from that Raçi will be the Bhava of the wealth, the 3rd of co-borns and so on. There will be gains, or losses of Dhatu etc., assigned to the Raças and the Grahas, in the Aantar Dasha of the Raças concerned. In judging the effects of the Aantar Dashas of the Grahas their benefic and malefic nature, relations with the malefic, or benefic, Drishtis on them and their disposition in Ari, Randhr, or Vyaya etc. should all be kept in view.

97. The results of the Aantar Dashas Pratyantar Dashas of the Raças should be assessed in the manner, explained in this chapter.

Ch. 51.

Working out of Aantar Dasha of Grahas and Rañas in Vimshottari etc.

Dasha systems

1. For finding out the span of the Aantar Dasha of a Grah in the Dasha of the same, or another Grah multiply the Dasha years of the former with the Dasha years of the latter and divide the product by the total Dasha years of all the Grahas. For finding out the span of the Pratyantar Dasha of the same, or any other Grah in the Aantar Dasha of another Grah multiply the years etc. of the Aantar Dasha with the Dasha years of the other Grah and divide the product by the total Dasha years of all the Grahas. The figure so available in months etc. will represent the Pratyantar Dasha of the former.

2. In every Dasha the first Aantar Dasha belongs to the Lord of the Dasha. Then the further Aantar Dashas belong to the other 8 Grahas in the same order, as followed for the Dasha. The same applies to Pratyantar Dasha.
3-4. The Antar Dasha of Chara Grahas in Chara etc. Dasha

3-4. The Antar Dasha of the Charadi Kendradi Dasha of the Grahas are worked out by dividing the Dasha years by 9. The first Dasha will invariably be of the Lord of the Dasha. Thereafter there will be Antar Dashes of Grahas, placed in Kendras, Panapharas and A poklimas, respectively, according to their strength.

Antar Dasha of Räçis

5. The Antar Dashas of Räçis is worked out by dividing the Dasha years by 12. Pratyantar Dashas are also calculated in the same manner.
6. The Antar Dasha will start from the Dasha Räçi, or from the Räçi 7th therefrom, whichever is stronger. The Antar Dashes are in the onwards order, if the Dasha Räçi is odd and in the reverse order, if it is even.
7-12. O Brahmin! Now I will acquaint you with the special characteristics of the order of the Antar Dashas of the Räçis. If the Dasha Räçi is a Movable one, the Antar Dasha of the 12 Räçis are in the onwards, or reverse order. If the Dasha A sraya Räçi is a Fixed one, the Antar Dasha will belong to it. Thereafter there will be Antar Dasha of Räçis in Kendr to it, Räçis in Kendr to the 5th from it and Räçis in Kendr to the 9th from it. In the case of all kinds of Räçis, namely Movable, Fixed, or Dugal, the order will be onwards, if the Dasha A sraya Räçi is an odd one and in the reverse order, if it is an even one. The so called Dasha A sraya Räçi is known as Pak Räçi. In the first order Räçi, which is Pak Räçi, is also called Bhog Räçi. Later, if the Dasha Prad Räçi is even, then the Bhog Räçi will be that, which is at the same Räçi distance, as the Dasha A sraya Räçi is from the Dasha Prad Räçi. For the Char, Sthir and Trikon Dasha, the Pak and Bhog Räçi should be determined in this manner. If Pak and Bhog Räçis are associated with malefics, there will be pain in the body and mental agony. There will be enjoyment, if they are associated with benefics. In the Kaal Chakr Dasha, like the Vimshottari Dasha system, the span of Dasha should be multiplied by the span of the Dasha of the Räçi, whose Antar Dasha is required and the product should be divided by the total Dasha years of (all) the Räçis. The years, months etc. as arrived at will represent the Antar Dasha of the Räçi concerned.

Ch. 52. Effects of the Antar Dasha in the Dasha of Sürya (Vimshottari)

56-58. Maharishi Parashar said to Maitreya. O Brahmin! The effects of Antar Dashas in the Kala Chakr, which have been described above, are based on Savya Chakr. The effects of Antar Dashas in the Dashas of the Räçis in the Apsavya Chakr have to be assessed, after taking into account the benefic and malefic natures of the Lords of the Räçis. People have to enjoy the good, or suffer the bad results, according to their good, or bad actions in the previous births. Everybody suffers, or enjoys accordingly. The peculiarity in this respect is, that inauspicious results have been ascribed to malefics. But, if during the Antar Dasha the Grah concerned is a friend of the Lord of the Dasha, the results of the Antar Dasha will be favourable. If the Grah concerned is a benefic, but an enemy of the Lord of the Dasha, his Antar Dasha effects will not prove favourable. This is how the Antar Dasha effects have to be analyzed and conclusions arrived at.

1-4. Maitreya said: O Venerable Sage! You have described many kinds of effects, relating to the Grahas and Bhavas, after incorporating the views of many sages and A charayas, but it is not possible to say with certainty, if a particular effect is quite correct, after considering the contradictions in the effects by the movements of the various Grahas. As because of sinful deeds, committed by people in Kaliyuga, their minds have become blunt, be kind enough to describe a method, which would enable even the shallow minded persons to ascertain their happiness and sorrows and determine their longevity on the basis of the positions of the Grahas in transit.

5-6. The sage replied: O Brahmin! You have put a very intelligent question. I will now describe the Shastra for the benefit of all, the Shastra, in which there will be no contradictions in judging the effects of happiness and sorrows and for determination of the longevity. You now listen to me carefully.

7-11. If the 12 Bhavas, including Lagn, are occupied by, or aspected by benefic Grahas, they yield auspicious results, according to their characteristics, but this happens, where the Grahas concerned are in their exaltation Räçi, own Räçi, or posited in a benefic Bhava. There will be no good effects, if such Grahas are in depression, or posited in an inauspicious Bhava. Similarly the Bhavas, associated with, or aspected by malefics in depression, or posited in malefic Bhavas, yield adverse results, according to their characteristics. If such Grahas be in their exaltation Rāj, the effects will not be adverse. This is how the general effects have been described by the Daivajnas. I have only repeated those effects. The main purposes of this Jyotish Shastra are to determine the longevity and joys and sorrows of the people, but because the movements of the Grahas are so subtle, even sages, like Vashista and Brihaspati, have not been able to be quite definite in this respect. Then how can a common man, particularly in Kaliyuga, do so.

12. There are two divisions, or parts of the Jyotish Shastra, namely general and particular. I have already dealt with the general part. I now come to the other part, which deals with this subject in particular.

13-15. As the effects of the twelve Bhavas are judged from Lagn and Candr, effects of the twelve Bhavas, and the various Grahas in the same manner. Therefore the auspicious places from the seven Grahas, named, as Karan, beginning from Sūrya and Lagn (total 8), should be marked by dots (Bindus) and auspicious places, named, as Sthan, by small vertical lines (Rekhas) and on the basis of their assessment should the judgment of the horoscope and predictions be made.

Notes. The above arrangement is known, as AșhtakaVarg. The meaning of AșhtakaVarg is literally the group of eight things. In other words it is the combination of the good and bad positions of a Grah with reference to the seven Grahas and Lagn. So it is the combination of the benefic and malefic marks (the Rekhas and the Bindus) in a planets chart with reference to the position of the eight Grahas (here Lagn is to be treated, as a Grah).

16. Five Grahas in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and the 12th Bhavas from Sūrya are Karanprad (dot significators). Similarly four Grahas in the 7th and 4th, three Grahas in the 6th and 9th, six Grahas in the 5th, 2 Grahas in the 10th and one Grah in the 11th are dot significators.

17-19. Thus Lagn, Candr, Guru, Çukr and Budh in the 1st, 2nd and 8th from Sūrya; Sūrya, Māgal, Čani, Candr and Guru in the 12th; Budh, Candr, Çukr, Guru in the 4th; Lagn, Candr, Çukr in the 9th; Sūrya, Čani and Māgal in the 6th; Lagn, Budh, Guru and Candr in the 7th; Çukr in the 11th; Sūrya, Čani, Çukr, Guru and Māgal in the 3rd; Guru and Çukr in the 10th; Sūrya, Čani, Candr, Lagn, Māgal and Çukr in the 5th are Karanprad, or dot indicators.

20-22. In Candrs AșhtakaVarg 6 Grahas in the 9th and the 2nd, 5 Grahas in the 4th, 8th and the 1st, one Grah in the 10th and the 3rd, 4 Grahas in the 5th, 3 Grahas in the 6th and the 7th and 1st, eight in the 12th are Karanprad. Thus Lagn, Sūrya, Māgal, Čani and Çukr, these five in the 1st; Lagn, Budh, Sūrya, Candr, Çani and Çukr, these 6 in the 2nd; Gru in the 3rd, Sūrya, Čani, Candr, Lagn and Māgal, these 5 in the 4th; Çukr, Budh, Gru, these 3 in the 6th; Māgal, Lagn and Čani, these 3 in the 7th; Māgal, Lagn, Čani, Çukr and Candr, these five in the 8th; Lagn, Sūrya, Māgal, Čani, Budh and Gru, these 6 in the 9th; Čani only in the 10th; none in the 11th; all the eight in the 12th from their own places are Karanprad. These Grahas in the other Bhavas are Rekha prad (line significators).

23-27. In the AșhtakaVarg of Māgal 6 Grahas in the 12th, 4th and 7th, 5 Grahas in the 5th, 6 Grahas in the 2nd, 7 Grahas in the 9th, 5 Grahas in the 1st and 8th, 4 Grahas in the 3rd, 3 Grahas in the 10th and 2 Grahas in the 6th are Karan prad. In the 11th no Grah is Karanprad. In other words all the Grahas in the 11th from their own places are Rekha prad. Thus Sūrya, Candr, Budh, Guru and Çukr, these five in the 1st; Lagn, Sūrya, Candr, Budh, Guru and Čani, these 6 in the 2nd; Çukr, Māgal, Guru and Čani, these 4 in the 3rd; Sūrya, Candr, Budh, Gru, Çukr and Lagn, these 6 in the 4th; Candr, Māgal, Gru, Çukr and Lagn, these 5 in the 5th; Māgal and Čani, these 2 in the 6th; Budh, Candr, Sūrya, Çukr, Gru and Lagn, these 6 in the 7th; Budh, Candr, Sūrya, Lagn and Gru, these five in the 8th; Sūrya, Candr, Māgal, Budh, Gru, Çukr and Lagn, these 7 in the 9th; Çukr, Candr and Budh, these 3 in the 10th; none in the 11th; Sūrya, Čani, Budh, Candr, Lagn and Māgal, these 6 in the 12th from their own places are Karanprad.

28-30. In the AșhtakaVarg of Budh 3 Grahas in the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 10th, 6th and 9th, 2 Grahas in the 8th, 6 Grahas in the 3rd and the 7th, none in the 11th, 5 Grahas in the 5th and 12th are Karanprad. Thus Sūrya, Candr and Gru, these 3 in the 1st; Gru, Sūrya and Budh, these 3 in the 2nd; Lagn, Sūrya, Māgal, Čani, Candr and Gru, these 6 in the 3rd; Budh, Sūrya and Gru, these 3 in the 4th; Guru, Mai gal, Candr, Cani and Lagn, these 5 in the 5th; Ćukr, Cani and Mai gal, these 3 in the 6th; Budh, Candr, Lagn, Sūrya, Ćukr and Guru, these 6 in the 7th; Budh and Sūrya, these 2 in the 8th; Guru, Candr and Lagn, these 3 in the 9th; Sūrya, Guru and Ćukr, these 3 in the 10th; none in the 11th; Lagn, Candr, Mai gal, Cani and Ćukr these 5 in the 12th from their own places are Karanprad.

31-34. In the Aṣṭakāvarg of Ćukr 2 Grahas in the 1st, 5 Grahas in the 2nd, 10th, 8 Grahas in the 7th, 6 Grahas in the 6th, one in the 9th, 3 in the 4th; none in the 11th are Karanpradas. 70-72. To identify the auspicious and inauspicious Bhavas in the AṣṭakaVarga a chart should be prepared with 14 horizontal lines and ten vertical lines. The form of the chart so prepared will consist of 117 apartments. In this chart in the first line incorporates the names of the seven Grahas and Lagn. In the first column write the numbers of all the 12 Bhavas. A ffer this mark dots under the Graha and against the Karanprada Bhavas. By doing so the Karanprada Bhavas of all the 8 Grahas, including Lagn, will become known clearly and whenever the AṣṭakaVarga Graha will pass in transit the dot-marked Bhavas, he will yield unfavourable results. In his transit to other Bhavas he would give favourable effects. The following table shows the dots in the AṣṭakaVarga of Sûrya.

Ch. 67. Trikon Shodhana in the AṣṭakaVarga

1-2. The sage said. O Brahmin! A fter preparing the AṣṭakaVarga of all the Grahas, including Lagn, Trikon Shodhana has to be done for each Řaç. A Trikon is made of three Řaçis equidistant from each other. Thus Mesh, Simh and Dhanu, Vrishab, Kanya and Makar, Mithun, Tula and Kumbh, Kark, Vrishchik and Meen form the Trikonas of the Řaçis.

3-5. The Trikon Shodhana (rectification) should be done by writing the Rekhas in the AṣṭakaVarga of Sûrya etc. under the Řaçis Mesh etc. Amongst the Trikon Řaçis the Řaçi, which has lesser number of Rekhas, should be allotted Rekhas, arrived at by deducting its number of Rekhas from the greater number of Rekhas of the three Trikon Räçis. No Trikon Shodhana is necessary, if any of the Trikon Räçis has no Rekha. Shodhana should be done, if all the three of them have equal number of Rekhas, that is a zero should be written against all of them. Thereafter Ekadhipatya Shodhana should be done in the same manner, described later. (For Shodhana of the Aśtakāvarga of a Grah the first thing to be done is to see, in which Räçi the Grah is posited. Beginning from that Räçi, the names of the 12 Räçis should be written and then the names of the Grahas, posited in them, should be mentioned against them. Thereafter the Rekhas, gained by that Räçi, should be written below them and the number, achieved after Shodhana, below it)

Ch. 68. E kadhipatya Shodhana in the Aśtakāvarga

1-5. Ekadhipatya Shodhana is done after writing the numbers for Räçis, arrived at by Trikon Shodhana. Ekadhipatya Shodhana is done, if both the two Räçis, owned by a Grah, have gained a number after Trikon Shodhana. Ekadhipatya Shodhana is not to be done, if one Räçi has got a number and the other is bereft of any number. The following are the rules for Ekadhipatya Shodhana. If both the Räçis are without a Grah and the Trikon Shodhana numbers are different, both should be given the smaller number. If both the Räçis are with Grahas, no Shodhana is to be done. If amongst the two Räçis one is with a Grah and a smaller Trikon rectified number and the other is without Grah with a bigger number, deduct the smaller number from the bigger number and the number of the Räçi with Grah should be kept unchanged. If the Räçi with the Grah has a bigger number than that of the Räçi without Grah, the Shodhana should be done of the number of the Räçi without Grah and the number of the Räçi with Grah should be kept unchanged. If both the Räçis are without Grahas and possess the same numbers, Shodhana of both the numbers should be done and the rectified numbers should be reduced to zero. If one Räçi is with Grah and the other is without any Grah, the number of the latter should be reduced to zero. Sūrya and Candr own one Räçi only, their numbers should be kept unchanged.

6. After doing Ekadhipatya Shodhana, Pinda Sadhana should be taken in hand.

Ch. 69. Pinda Sadhana in the Aśtakāvarga

1-4. The Sage said. O Brahmin! After completing the Trikon and Ekadhipatya Shodhana in the Aśtakāvargas of all the Grahas, the rectified number should be multiplied by the measure of the Räçi. If there be any Grah in any Räçi, the rectified number should be multiplied by the measure of the Grah also. Then, after multiplying the rectified number of each Räçi, the products should be added up. The total so arrived at will be Pinda of that Grah. The multiples of Räçis are 10 for Vrishabh and Simh, 8 for Mithun and Vrischik, 7 for Mesh and Tul, 6 for Makar and Kanya. The multipliers of the remaining Räçis are the same, as their numbers. (Räçi man Chakr. Mesh 7, Vris 10, Mith 8, Kark 4, Simh 10, Kany 6, Tula 7, Vrsk 8, Dhan 9, Makar 5, Kumb 11, Mina 12) The multipliers of Grahas are 10 for Guru, 3 for Maigal, 7 for Çukr, 6 for Budh, Sūrya, Candr and Çani. (Grahman Chakr. Sūrya 5, Candr 5, Maigal 8, Budh 5, Guru 10, Çukr 7, Çani 5)

Māigal - co-borns, strength, qualities and land. Budh - business dealings, livelihood and friends. Guru - nourishment of the body, learning, son (children), wealth and property. Çukr - marriage, enjoyments, conveyance, prostitution and sexual intercourse with women. Çani - longevity, source of maintenance, grief, danger, losses and death. The following procedure should be adopted to ascertain the effects of a house. Multiply the number of Rekhās with the Yog Pinda (Rāçi Pinda plus Grah Pinda), connected with the AshtakaVarg of that Grah and divide the product by 27. The remainder will denote the number of the Nakshatr. During the transit of Çani in that Nakshatr the Bhaṅga concerned will be harmed.

7-9. The 9th house from Sūrya at the time of birth deals with father. The Rekhās of that Rāçi, as marked in Sūrya’s AṣṭakaVarg, should be multiplied by the Yog Pinda and the product be divided by 27. The remainder will denote the number of Nakshatras. The father will be in distress, or he will otherwise suffer, when Çani in transit passes through the Nakshatras. Even, when Çani passes in transit the Trikon Nakshatras, father, or relatives, like father, may die, or suffer.

Notes. By dividing the 27 Nakshatras in three equal parts, the 1st, 10th and 19th fall in Trikon from each other. Sūrya is PitraKarak (significator of father). Therefore all about father is ascertained from the Sūrya’s AṣṭakaVarg.

10-11. If the AṣṭakaVarg Rekhā number is multiplied by the Yog Pinda and the product is divided by 12, the remainder will denote the Rāçi, through which, or through the Rāçis in Trikon to it, the transit of Çani will cause harm, or unfavourable effects to father. Death of the father may occur, if the Dasa prevailing at that time be unfavourable. If the Dasa be favourable, father will face only adverse effects.

12-15 Aṛishta to Father) 12-14. The death of the father may be expected, if Rahu, Çani, or Māigal are in the 4th from Sūrya at the time of transit of Çani through any of the above three Rāçīs (Trikon Rāçīs). The death of the father will come to pass by such transit, if at that time Çani, associated, or aspected by a malefic, be in the 9th from Lagn, or Candr and/or the Dasa of the Lord of the 4th from Lagn be in operation. The death does not take place, if a favourable Dasa be in force at the time of Çani’s transit. This should be kept in mind by the Jyotishis, while making predictions.

15. If the Rāçi of Lagn of the native be the 8th Rāçi from Lagn of the father, or, if the Lord of the 8th from fathers Lagn be in Lagn of the native, takes over all the responsibilities of his father after the latters death.

16-18. The father enjoys happiness in the Dasa of the Lord of the 4th from Lagn. The native is obedient to his father, if the Lord of the 4th be in Lagn, or the 11th, or in the 11th, or 10th from Candr. If the birth be in the 3rd Rāçi from Lagn, or Candr of the father, the native makes proper use of the wealth, inherited from his father. If the birth be in the 10th Rāçi from Lagn, or Candr of the father, the native will inherit all the good qualities of his father. If the Lord of the 10th be in Lagn, the native will be more distinguished than his father.

19-20. No auspicious functions, like marriage etc., should be performed in the month of Rāçīs (that is, when Sūrya transits that Rāçi), which has more number of dots in Sūryas AṣṭakaVarg. The same applies to the Samvatsar of that Rāçi (that is, when the mean Gṛuḥ transits that Rāçi). A auspicious functions should be performed, when Sūrya, or the mean Gṛuḥ transits the Rāçi, which has more Rēkhās in Sūryas AṣṭakaVarg.

21-23. In the same manner no auspicious functions should be performed during the transit of Candr in the Rāçi, which has larger number of dots in Candrs AṣṭakaVarg. Consideration, regarding mother, house and village, should be done from the 4th Bhaṅga from Candr. Therefore multiply the number of Rēkhās in the AṣṭakaVarg of Candr by the Yog Pinda of that AṣṭakaVarg and divide the product by 27. The death of, or distress to mother may be expected, when Çani passes in transit through the Nakshatr, denoted by the remainder. Then divide the product by
12. The death of the mother may occur, when Çani transits the Räçi, denoted by the remainder. Distress to mother may be predicted, when Çani transits the Nakshatras, or Räçis in Trikon to Nakshatras and Räçis, indicated above.

24-27. Consideration of brothers (co-borns), valour and patience is done from Mai gal’s A śhtakaVarg. If the number of Rekha is larger in any Räçi after Trikon Shodhana, there will be gains of land, happiness from wife and great happiness to brother, when Mai gal passes through that Räçi in transit. If Mai gal be weak, the brothers will be short lived. There will be distress to brothers, when Mai gal transits a Räçi without Rekhas. Here also the Y og Pinda of Mai gal should be multiplied by the number of Rekhas in the A śhtakaVarg and the product be divided separately by 27 and 12. The remainders will denote the Nakshatr and Räçi. The brother will suffer, whenever Çani transits that Nakshatr, or Räçi (or the Trikon Nakshatras, or Räçis).

28-29. Consideration in regard to family, maternal uncle and friends should be done from the 4th Bhava from Budh. The family etc. will enjoy happiness during the transit of Budhs A śhtakaVarg. After performing Trikon and Ekadhipatya Shodhana in Budhs A śhtakaVarg, the happiness, or distress of the family should be predicted from the transit of Çani through the resultant Nakshatr and Räçi (and those in Trikon to them).

30-33. All about knowledge, religious inclinations of the native and son (progeny) is to be ascertained from the 5th Bhava from Guru. If the Rekhas in the 5th Bhava from Guru are larger in number in the A śhtakaVarg, there will be great happiness in respect of progeny. If the dots are larger in number, the happiness in respect of progeny will be meagre. The number of children are equal to the number of Rekhas in the 5th Bhava (from Guru), provided it is not the Räçi of debilitation of Guru, or his enemy’s Räçi. In that case the number of children will be very limited. The number of children is also equal to the number of Navams, in which the Lord of the 5th from Guru is posited. Multiply the Y og Pinda of Guru by the number of Rekhas in the A śhtakaVarg and divide the product separately by 27 and 12. The remainders will denote the Nakshatr and Räçi. Transit of Çani through that Nakshatr and its Trikon Nakshatras and of that Räçi and its Trikon Räçis will be inauspicious. During that period the knowledge, learning and religious activities of the native will also be adversely affected.

34-36. There will be gain of wealth, land and happiness and marriage, whenever Çukr passes in transit through the Räçis, which have larger number of Rekhas in the A śhtakaVarg of Çukr. These gains will be from the directions of the 7th Räçi from Çukr and of its Trikon Räçis. The effects should be judged in the manner, already explained earlier, after multiplying the Rekhas in the 7th Bhava from Çukr by the Y og Pinda.

37-40. The 8th Bhava from Çani signifies death, as well as longevity. Assessment about longevity should be made from that Bhava through the A śhtakaVarg. Therefore predict distress to the native in the year, equal to the number of Rekhas in the A śhtakaVarg from Lagn up to Çani. The year, equal to the number of Rekhas from Çani up to Lagn, will also be of distress. If in the year, equal to the total of the above Rekhas, A rishta Dasa be also in operation, there can be possibility of death of the native.

41-42. Multiply the Y og Pinda by the number of Rekhas in the A śhtakaVarg and divide the product by 27. The death of the native will take place, when Çani passes in transit through the Nakshatr, denoted by the remainder, or its Trikon Nakshatras. A gain, divide the product by 12. The native will face danger of death, when Çani passes in transit through the Räçi, denoted by the remainder, or through its Trikon Räçis.

43-44. The results will be favourable, when Çani passes in transit through Räçis, which have larger number of Rekhas in Çani’s A śhtakaVarg. Çani’s transit through Räçis, which have larger number of dots, will produce only evil effects.
Ch. 71. Determination of Longevity through the AshtakaVarg

1-4. The sage said, I will now describe the method of determining longevity from the AshtakaVarg. For this purpose the AshtakaVargas of Lagn and all the Grahas have to be studied. The Rēkhas in all the Rācīs have been allotted specific spans of life. The Rācī, which has no Rēkhas, has been allotted 2 days, that with one Rēkha gets \( \frac{1}{2} \) days, one day for Rācī with 2 Rēkhas, half day for Rācī with 3 Rēkhas, 7 \( \frac{1}{2} \) days for Rācī with 4 Rēkhas, 2 years for Rācī with 5 Rēkhas, 4 years for Rācī with 6 Rēkhas, 6 years for Rācī with 7 Rēkhas and 8 years for Rācī with 8 Rēkhas. In this manner the spans of life should be worked from Rēkhas in all the AshtakaVargas. Half of the sum total of all will be the longevity, based on AshtakaVarg.

Ch. 72. Aggregational AshtakaVargas

1-2. The sage said, O Brahmin! Write down a Rācī Kundali with 12 Bhavas, including Lagn. Then insert the total of the Rēkhas in all the AshtakaVargas of the Grahas in the Rācī concerned. The AshtakaVarg with such Rēkhas is called the Samuday AshtakaVarg, or the aggregational AshtakaVarg. From this should be judged good and adverse effects of the Rācī Kundali.

3-5. In the aggregational AshtakaVarg the Rācī, which has more than 30 Rēkhas, gives favourable effects, that, having between 25 and 30 Rēkhas, produces medium effects and that Rācī, who has less than 25 Rēkhas, yields adverse effects. Auspicious functions, like marriage etc., should be performed, when the Graha, on whose basis the time and date of functions are performed, moves into the Rācī with favourable effects. The Graha, which is productive of adverse effects should be avoided for these purposes. For example, the strength of Candra (CandraBal) is generally acceptable for all auspicious functions. Therefore auspicious functions should be performed, or started, when Candra is in the Rācī with maximum number of Rēkhas. The Graha in the Rācī with favourable number of Rēkhas produces auspicious effects and the Graha in the Rācī with unfavourable number of Rēkhas yields evil results.

6-6 \( \frac{1}{2} \) . Amongst the 12 Bhavas more than 30 Rēkhas advance the effects of a Bhava, between 25 and 30 Rēkhas produce medium effects and the effects of the Bhava, which contains less than 25 Rēkhas, get damaged.

Notes. From the above rules it can be interpreted, that, if there are less than 25 Rēkhas in 6\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Bhava, their effects become favourable. The effects will become adverse, if these Bhavas contain more than 25 Rēkhas.

7-8. If in a Rācī Kundali there are larger number of Rēkhas in the 11\textsuperscript{th} than those in 10\textsuperscript{th} and there are smaller number of Rēkhas in the 12\textsuperscript{th} than those in the 11\textsuperscript{th} and Lagn contains largest number of Rēkhas, the native will be wealthy and will enjoy all kinds of comforts and luxury.

9-10. Divide the 12 Bhavas in 3 sections. There will be sufferings and distress in that part of the life, which is represented by the section of the Rācī Kundali with more malefics. There will be happiness etc., in the part of the life, represented by the section of the Rācī Kundali, containing more benefics. There will be mixed results in that area of life, when the relative section of the Rācī Kundali has equal number of benefics and malefics. The Bhavas from Lagn up to the 4\textsuperscript{th} signify childhood, those from 5\textsuperscript{th} to 8\textsuperscript{th} youth and those from the 9\textsuperscript{th} to 12\textsuperscript{th} represent old age.

11-28. There will be danger of death in the month of the Rācī (period of Sūrya's transit in that Rācī), which has 7, or less than 7 Rēkhas in the Samudaya A ashtakaVarg. To ward off this evil effect 20 Tolas of gold and 2 heaps of sesame seeds, resembling the shape of a mountain, should be given in charity. ... possibility of death, ... 8. Tuladan of camphor is recommended to obtain relief from this evil effect. ... danger of snakes, ... 9. A chariot with 7 horses should be given in charity, ... danger from weapons, ... contains 10 ... An armour together with Vajra should be given in charity to ward off, ... danger of disgrace for no cause, ... 11. An idol of the moon, made of 10 Tolas of gold, should be given in charity, ... danger of death from
There will be all-round increase in wealth, happiness in respect of children and enjoyments in the Samvatsar, month and Nakshat of the Rāci, which has more than 30 Rekhas. Increase in wealth, property, children and good reputation, if the Rāci has more than 40 Rekhas.

30-31. The Rāci, which is auspicious in Aṣṭakāvarga Samudaya, is considered auspicious for all auspicious functions. Consequently the auspiciousness of Aṣṭakāvarga should be got checked before performing any function, like marriage etc. If a Rāci is not auspicious in Aṣṭakāvarga, then its auspiciousness should be checked from transit effects. It is not necessary to check transit effects, if a Rāci is auspicious in Aṣṭakāvarga. Thus the auspiciousness of the Rāci in the Aṣṭakāvarga should be considered, as paramount.

Ch. 73. Effects of the Rays of the Grahas

1-2. The sage said. O Brahmin! Now I am going to tell you about the number of rays of the Grahas. When Sūrya etc. are in their deep exaltation point, their rays are: Sūrya 10, Candr 9, Mālīgal 5, Budh 5, Guru 7, Čukr 8 and Čani 5. The rays are nil, when these Grahas are in deep debilitation, the number of rays would be proportionate with the number of Rāci. The following method is to be adopted for ascertaining the proportionate number of rays. Deduct the debilitation Rāci etc. of the Grah, whose rays are to be ascertained, from his longitude. If the remainder is less than 6 Rācīs it should be multiplied by the number of rays of that Grah, mentioned above and the product should be divided by 6. The result will denote the number of rays of that Grah. In case after deduction the remainder is more than 6 Rācīs, then it should be divided from 12. The other procedure will remain the same.

3-7. The Sage said. O Maitreya! Other Acharyas have recommended further correction of the number of rays, worked out in the manner described above. The corrections have to be made, as follows. If the Grah be in his exaltation Rāci, the number of rays ascertained should be trebled. ... Mooltraktron, ... doubled. ... own Rāci, ... multiplied by 3 and the product be divided by 2. ... Rāci of his Aḥimitr (great friend), ... multiplied by 4 and the product be divided by 3. ... Bhava of a friend, ... multiplied by 6 and the product be divided by 5. The number of rays ascertained should be halved, if the Grah be in the Bhava of his enemy. If he be in the Bhava of his Aḥi-Shatru (great enemy), the number of rays ascertained should be multiplied by 2 and the product be divided by 5. No correction is to be made, if the Grah is in the Bhava of a neutral. The effects should be declared after computation of the net number of rays of each Grah.
8-18. The effects, produced by the number of rays of Grahas, are given below. Between 1 and 5 poor and unhappy, even if born in an eminent family. Between 6 and 10 poor, carrier of loads and without wife and children. 11 meagre wealth and few children. 12 meagre wealth, idiot and wicked. 13 thief. 14 wealthy, protector and maintainer of several families, learned and observer of the traditions of the family. 15 head of the family, achieves proficiency in many kinds of learnings, good qualities. This is what Lord Brahma has said. 16 most distinguished in the family. 17 employer of many servants. 18 well cultured and happy. Between 24 and 30 healthy, powerful, favourite of the king, splendidous, possessor of a large family. Between 31 and 40 minister and maintainer and protector of 100 to 1000 persons. Between 40 and 50 minister and protector of 100 to 1000 persons. Between 40 and 50 king. 51 and above powerful sovereign.

19. The effects should be predicted, according to the number of rays of the Grahas at the time of birth, after taking into account the status of the native.

20. For example, if the rays are more than 50 in number, one born a Kshatriya kings family will become a powerful sovereign, one born in a Vaishya family will become a king (or high dignitary), one born in Sudra family will become wealthy and one born in a Brahmin family will become very learned and will observe all religious norms.

21. The effects of the Grahas, moving from their debilitation to exaltation, are full. The effects of the Grahas, moving from their exaltation to debilitation, will be lesser than described above.

22-23. Auspicious and inauspicious effects of all the Grahas are according to the number of rays they possess. Prediction will not be correct without the knowledge of the effects of the rays. Therefore it is imperative, that in the judgment of Rāçi Kundalis and declaring results the effects of the number of rays of the Grahas be taken into account.

Ch. 74. Effects of the Sudarshana Chakr

1-3. Maharishi Parasara said to Maitreya. O Brahmin! Now I will impart to you the knowledge of a great secrecy and superior importance, which was communicated to me by Lord Brahma himself for the benefit of the world. This is a Chakr by the name of Sudarshana, through which Devajnas will be able to predict the favourable and unfavourable results for every year, every month and every day from the time of birth to the time of death of a person. Listen to this very intently.

4. O Brahmin! Take a point and from it draw three circles. Within the circles draw 12 lines, so as to provide 12 Bhavas within each circle. This is how Sudarshana Chakr is drawn.

5-6. In the first circle (innermost) place the 12 Bhavas from Lagn with Grahas, posited there. In the circle next to the innermost circle place the 12 Bhavas from the Rāçi of Candra with the Grahas in them. In the third circle place the 12 Bhavas from the Rāçi of Sūrya with Grahas in them. Thus there will be 3 Rācis in each Bhava of the Chakr.

7-9. The significant aspect of this Chakr is, that Lagn, Candra and Sūrya represent the first Bhava. The 2nd, 3rd etc. up to 12th from Candra and Sūrya will deal with the same subject, as they do, when reckoned from Lagn. Then the results should be assessed, according to the Grahas in each Bhava. In this form of Rāçi Kundali Sūrya is considered auspicious in the first Bhava and inauspicious, or malefic in other Bhavas. The malefics do not produce evil effects, if they are in their exaltation Rāçi. In this manner predictions should be made, after considering the benefic and malefic natures of the Grahas, their disposition and aspects from and on them.

10. A Bhava gets advancement, if it is occupied, or aspected by the Lord, or a benefic. The Bhava, which is occupied, or aspected by a malefic, is harmed.

11-13. The effects of a Bhava will be in accordance with the Grah occupying it, or in accordance with the Grah aspected, if no Grah is in occupation of the Bhava. The effects of a Bhava, occupied by a benefic, will be auspicious and the Bhava, occupied by a malefic, will be inauspicious. Effects of the aspects will be the same. If a Bhava is influenced both by benefics and malefics, the results will depend on the majority amongst the benefics and malefics. If the number of benefics is larger than the number of malefics, the results will be auspicious. If reverse is the case, inauspicious, or evil effects may be expected. If there are equal number of malefics and benefics, those with greater strength will influence the results of that Bhava. Mixed results should be declared, if there be no difference in the strength of malefics and benefics. The same would apply to aspects.

14. The effects should be declared, according to its Lord, if the Bhava is neither occupied, nor aspected by a Grah.

15-16. A natural benefic loses his benevolence, if he is in more malefic Vargas. Similarly a natural malefic loses his malevolence, if he is in more benefic Vargas (SaptaVarg). A Grah's own Rāçi, his exaltation Rāçi and benefic Vargas are considered auspicious. And malefic and the Vargas of an enemy and debilitated Rāçi are considered inauspicious.

17. The sage said, that the results should be declared only after assessing the auspiciousness and inauspiciousness of all the Bhavas.

18. Maitreya asked. O Venerable sage! Kindly enlighten me on one point. If all the Bhavas are judged in accordance with the Sudarshana Chakr, why many learned sages have advocated declaration of effects from the Bhavas, reckoned from Lagn in Rāçi Kundali?

19-20. The sage replied. The results should be declared in accordance with the Sudarshana Chakr, only when Sūrya and Candr being in separate Rācīs different from the Rāçi of Lagn. If amongst Lagn, Sūrya and Candr, all the three, or two of them are in the same Rāçi, the judgment of effects should be made from the Rāçi Kundali only.

(21-23) The sage said. O Brahmin! Now I will tell you about the effects, produced every year and every month by the twelve Bhavas in their Dasas and Antardasas, according to Sudarshana Chakr. Under this system every one of the twelve Bhavas, beginning from the 1st, is allotted a Dasa period of one year. Thus every year in 12 years a Bhava becomes Lagn of the year and the remaining become 2nd, 3rd and so on. Every year every Bhava will have An tاردаса of one month. By following the method of Lagn of the year here also, there will be a Lagn of the month. The first A ntارداس will be of the first Bhava and then will follow for 12 months the A ntارداس of the other Bhavas, every Bhava assuming the role of Lagn by turn. Every Bhava gets Pratyantar Dasa of 27 days and Vīdasa of 12? Ghatikas. The same method is to be adopted for judging the effects of Bhavas in Pratyantar Dasas and Vīdasas.

24-26. At the time of commencement of a Dasa, if there be benefic in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 10th, 5th, 9th and 8th, favourable effects will be experienced in the concerned year, month etc. The Bhava, which is occupied by only Rahu, or Ketu, becomes harmful. The same will be the fate of the Bhava, which is occupied by a larger number of malefics. If there be benefics in Bhavas other than the 12th, or 6th, the Bhava concerned will produce favourable effects. In other words, if the benefics be in the 12th, or 6th from the Bhava concerned, unfavourable effects will be derived in the related year, month etc. If there be malefics in the 3rd, 6th and 11th from the Bhava, assuming the role of Lagn, then these three Bhavas will produce auspicious results. The effects can be ascertained for every year, month etc. in this manner. The total number of years in Vimsottari Dasas are 120 years. After every 12 years the same method of determining the Dasas, A ntارداس etc. has to be repeated for Lagn and other Bhavas.

27-28. After ascertaining the effects of the years, months etc. in accordance with the Sudarshana Chakr, assessment of effects for the years, months etc. should be made on the basis of A shtakavarg. The benefic, or malefic effects will be full, if the assessment from both produces the same results. If they are different, the comparative strength of both should be taken into account to declare the final results.
1. The sage said. O Maitrey! Now I will relate to you the characteristic features of Panchmahapurushas. When Mai gal, Budh, Guru, Çukr and Çani, being in their own, or exaltation Raçî, be in K endra to Lagn, they give rise to Ruchaka, Bhadra, Hamsa, Malavya and Sasa Yogas. These Yogas are called Panchmahapurusha Yogas and the persons, born in these Yogas, are known Panchmahapurushas.

2. The Ruchaka native possesses a long face, he is very enthusiastic, has spotless lustre, is powerful, has attractive brows, black hair and is fond of all things. He loves to fight wars, is of dark-red complexion, is victorious over enemies, is discriminating, is protector of thieves and has cruel temperament and slender thighs. He is a devotee of Brahmins, has marks of Veena, V arg, Dhanus, Pasha and V rasha Raçîs in his hands along with Chakr Rekha. He is well versed in occult sciences. He is 100 Anguls in height, his waste has the circumference, equal to the length of his face and is 1000 Karshas in weight. He, as ruler of Sahyachala and Vindhya Pradesh, dies, after attaining the age of 70, by fire or weapons.

Notes. The old Rupee had the weight of 1 Karsha. 4 Karshas are equal to one Pala and 300 Palas make one Tula, according to A markosha. 20 Tulas are equal to one Bhara.

3. The Bhadra native is splendidous, like a lion, has very developed chest (or chest with well developed muscles), has the gait of an elephant, has long and thick arms, is learned in all respects. He is well versed in Y og performance, is Sattha-Guni and has beautiful feet, moustaches and head. He is fond of luxuries and comforts and has marks of Sankha (conch), Chakr, Gada, arrow, elephant, Dhwaja (flag) and Hala (plough) in his hands and feet. He is well versed in Shastras, has black and curly hair, possesses independent nature and is protector of his family. He is friends share in the enjoyment of his wealth. He is 20 Tulas in weight. He lives happily with his wife and children and, as ruler of Madhya Desha, lives for one hundred years.

4. The Hamsa native has voice, like a Hamsa, has a handsome appearance and well developed nose. He is a king with phlegmatic temperament, honey-like tawny-coloured eyes, red-coloured nails, sharp intelligence, sturdy cheeks, round forehead and beautiful feet. He has marks of Matsya (fish), Ankush (the iron hook, with which elephants are driven), Dhanus (bow), Sankh, Kamal (lotus) in his hands and feet. He is very passionate and his lust remains unfulfilled. He is 96 Anguls in height. He is fond of swimming and playing games in watery places. He enjoys life fully and, as ruler of a land, situated between the Ganges and Y amuna, dies after attaining the age of 100 years.

5. The Malavya native has beautiful lips and a slender waist. He is lustrous, like Candr, and has fragrance in his body. He is of ordinary red complexion, has a medium stature and clean and beautiful teeth. His voice is like that of an elephant and his arms are long enough to reach up to his knees. His face is thirteen Anguls in length and ten Anguls in breadth. He lives happily for seventy years, as ruler of Sindhu and Malwa, and then leaves for his heavenly abode.

6. The Sasa native has small sized teeth and face, but his body is not small. He is valorous. He has a slender waist and beautiful thighs. He is wise and enjoys wandering in forests and mountains. He is well versed in the loopholes of the enemy. He is lively, virile and fond of women. He usurps other peoples wealth. He has marks of Mal (garland), Veena, Midanda (musical instruments) and weapons in his hands and feet. He rules happily over several parts of the earth and then leaves for his heavenly abode at the age of 70.

Ch. 76. Effects of the Elements

1. The sage said. O Brahmin! Now I will tell you about the effects of the five elements: space, air, fire, water and earth.
3-4. The native will have temperament, according to the greater strength of the Graha at the time of birth. Guru, Ćani, Mangal, Ćukr and Budh will, respectively, give spacial (etheral), airy (windy), fiery, watery and earthy temperament. If all of them, or many of these Grahas have equal strength, the temperament will be of a mixed character.

5. If Sūrya be endowed with strength, the native will have fiery temperament. If Candr be strong, the native will have watery temperament. All the Grahas in course of their Dasa endow the native with bodily lustre, relating to their elements.

6. The characteristic features of the person with fiery temperament are: distressed with hunger, restless, lean and thin body, learned, consumes a large quantity of food, sharp, fair-complexioned and proud.

7. earthy: emits fragrance of camphor and lotus, is fond of luxuries, comforts and enjoyments and is permanently happy, forgiving, and has a deep voice, like a lion.

8. ... etheral: acquainted with semasiology, expert in diplomacy, brilliant, learned, unmasked face and long stature.

9. ... watery: is lustrous, can sustain burdens, is soft-spoken, king, has many friends and is learned.

10. ... airy: charitable, full of anger, fair complexion, fond of wandering, victorious over enemies, king and has lean physique.

11. When the fire element is predominant in a person, his face and body exhibit lustre, like gold and he has happy-looking eyes. He achieves success in all his ventures, is victorious over his enemies and gets gains of wealth.

12. ... earth, the body of the person emits various kinds of fragrances. His nails, hair and teeth are clean. He gets gains of happiness and wealth and is religious-minded.

13. ... ether, the person is a clever conversationalist and becomes happy by learning to songs etc.

14. ... water, the persons body is slender, he enjoys good health and tasty food and is happy on that account.

15. ... air, the body is filthy. The person becomes an idiot and suffers from rheumatism, sorrows and agonies.

16. The sage said. O Brahmin! The effects of the elements, which I have described above, will be realized in full, if the Grahas concerned are endowed with adequate strength. If they are weak, the effects will be reduced in proportion to their weakness.

17. If the Graha concerned is in his debilitation Räçi, or be placed in an inauspicious Bhava, the elemental effects will be adverse, that is, opposite to the effects, described above. If a Graha is without strength, his elemental effects will be experienced only in imagination.

18. If a persons time, date and place of birth is not known, he should determine the Dasa of a Graha from the effects, mentioned above and, if he is facing evil effects, he should take appropriate remedial measures to appease the Graha concerned.

Ch. 77. Effects of the Gunas

1-4. The Great Sage Parasara said. O Brahmin! When the Sattva-Guni Grahas are predominant, the person born is Sattva-Guni and of good character. When Rajo-Guna (passion of love and pleasure) is predominant, the person born is Rajo-Guna and intelligent. When the Tamo-Guna (attribute of darkness) is predominant, the person born is stupid. When at the time of birth all the Grahas are of equal dominance, the person has a mixture of all the attributes. The persons (creatures) so born are classified, as Uttama (most excellent), Madhyama (of intermediate type), Adhama (despisable) and Udaseena (indifferent, or neutral) in that order. Thus there are four kinds of animate beings (Prani). I will relate their attributes, which have been described by Narada and other sages.

5. The natural attributes of persons, belonging to Uttama class, are possession of control over organs of perception and mind, simplicity, truthfulness, patience and satisfaction.

6. Valour, splendour, patience, cleverness, not retreating in war and protecting the holy men are the natural attributes of persons, belonging to Rajo-Guna.
7. Greed, falsehood, idiocy, laziness and doing service of others are the inborn attributes of persons, who belong to A dhama class.

8. Engagement in agriculture and business, protection of cattle and speaking both truth and lies are inborn attributes of persons, belonging to U daseena class.

9. O Maitreya! Classify the people, as Uttama, Madhyama, A dhama and U daseena after observation of the attributes, described above. A person should be considered appropriate for a job, according to his attributes.

10. If amongst Sattva, Rajas and Tamas any attribute is the most dominant, it is considered the most predominant of all. Otherwise all have equal effects.

11. The affectionate relationship between an employer and employee and man and women will be invariable and stable, if they possess the same attributes.

12. O Maitreya! Amongst the above four classes of persons, if there is any kind of relationship of even A dhama with U daseena, or U daseena with Madhyama and of Madhyama with Uttama, there will be mutual affection and happiness.

13. If the bridegroom has better attributes than the bride and the master has better attributes than the servant, there will be mutual affection (regard for each other) and happiness. If the bride, or the servant possesses better attributes, the relationships will be full of bitterness.

14. The attributes of the native are dependent on his father and mother, his time of birth and the persons, he gets associated with. These are the root causes of Uttama etc. qualities, possessed by him. The attributes, endowed by the time of the birth and associations, are stronger than those, received from the parents.

15. Consequently the person is embellished with the attribute Sattva, Rajas, or Tamas, whichever is predominant at the time of birth. The predictions should therefore be made after taking into account the time of birth.

16. The Supreme Lord of the Universe, who is indestructible and omnicient, is the Kal. He is the Creator, Protector and Destroyer of all movable and immovable.

17. These three faculties of Lord Kal are called nature. Divided by these faculties, the imperceptible Lord Kal is also perceptible.

18. In accordance with the self-created qualities by the Perceptible form of Lord Kal, there are four kinds of limbs, namely Uttama, Madhyama, Udaseena and A dhama.

19. From the Uttama, Madhyama, Udaseena and A dhama parts are created Uttama, Madhyama, Udaseena and A dhama types of creatures.

20. The Uttama part of Lord Kal is the head, Madhyama part both arms and chest, thighs form the Udaseena part and the feet fall in the A dhama part.

21. This is how a differentiation is made between classes of movables and immovables, according to attributes and the parts, from which the creations are made.

22. The Chaturvihadha (four sided) Lord Kal has thus created this Chaturvihadha universe in consonance with his own attributes.

Ch. 78. Lost Horoscopy

1-2. Maitreya said. O Sage! You have so far described the auspicious and inauspicious effects to be enjoyed, or suffered by a person on the basis of the time of birth, but can the auspicious and inauspicious be ascertained, when the time of birth is not known? Kindly tell me, if there is any way to solve this problem.

3-4. The Sage said. Your question is a good one and is for the benefit of the world at large. Considering your attachment, I will tell you about this problem also. If any, or all amongst the Samvatsar, A yana, R itu, month, Paksha, Tīthi, Nakṣatra, Lagn, Rāçi, or A masas etc. of the birth are not known, these can be ascertained from Prasna Lagn (Query chart).

5-6. The Samvatsar of the birth of the querist will be the same, as that of the Rāçi in the Dwadasams, in which the Prasna Lagn falls (Guru will be in that Rāçi at birth). Saumyayan (Uttarayan - the northern course of Sūrya) will be in the first Hora of Lagn and Y amyayan
Ch. 79. Ascetism Yogas

1. The Sage said. O Brahmin! Now I will describe to you the Yogas, leading to ascetism, under the influence of which the persons give up their homes and become initiated in some holy order.

2-3. The Yoga for ascetism is formed, when four, or more Grahas, possessed of strength, occupy a single Bhava. The person born will become a Tapasvi, a Kapali. He will be wearing a red robe, be one, who keeps a Danda (staff). Yati, he will be keeper of a Chakr, or he will be a naked Sanyasin, according to the Grah, which is the strongest of the group: Surya, Candr, Mailgal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, or Çani. If a number of Grahas are endowed with strength, the holy order of the one, strongest amongst them, is accepted.

Notes. There is a similar verse in Varahamihir's Brihat Jatak, which, translated into English reads, as under. If at birth, four, or more Grahas, possessed of strength, occupy a single Bhava, the person born will become a Sakya, Jeevika, Bhikshu, a Vriddha, or Guru, a Charak, a Nirgrantha, or Vissava, a Vanyasana, or Vanaprastha, according to which of the Grahas is the strongest Grah of the group: Mailgal, Budh, Guru, Candr, Çukr, or Çani. If a number of Grahas are endowed with strength, the holy order of the one, strongest amongst them, is accepted.
V anusprastha is a religious man, engaged in the practice of rigorous and devout penance (i.e. he will be a Tapasvi); a Vivas is a naked ascetic (that is dwelling in hills and forests). A Bhikshu is an illustrious ascetic with a single staff for his symbol, engaged ever and anon in the contemplation of truths of the sacred scriptures. A Charak is a religious mendicant, wandering over many countries. A Shakya is an ascetic of the Buddhist clan. A Guru is a celebrated teacher, endowed with royal splendour. A Jeevika is a garrulous and gluttonous mendicant.

4. If strong Grahas, capable of leading to ascetism, be obscure by Sūrya’s rays (that is they be combust), the person born, in spite of having reverence for the holy order, will not become initiated in that holy order.

Notes. Brihat Jatak adds in this connection, that, if the Grahas referred to above be overcome in planetary war and be aspected by other Grahas, the person concerned will seek admission into the holy order without success.

5. If the other Grahas lose their strength (in spite of being in their exaltation Rācis etc.), as a result of combustion with Sūrya, the native will enter the holy order, as signified by Sūrya, that is, he will become a Tapasvi.

6. If the Lord of the Rāçi, occupied by Candr (Janm Rāçi), having no aspect of other Grahas on himself, aspects Čani, the native gets initiated into the holy order of the Grah, who is stronger amongst the two.

7. If the Lord of the Rāçi, occupied by Candr, be devoid of strength and is aspected only by Čani, the native becomes initiated into the holy order, signified by Čani (Nirgranthas, naked ascetics).

8. If Candr be in the decanate of Čani, or in the Navams of Čani, or Maigal and be aspected by Čani, the native becomes an ascetic and enters the holy order, signified by Čani.

9. There is planetary war, if Maigal, Budh, Guru, Čukr and Čani are together (within one degree of each other), Čukr is the conquerer, whether he is in North, or South, but amongst the other four only one, who is in the North, is the conquerer and that in the South is considered defeated in the planetary war.

10. If the Grah, who leads the native to ascetism, is conquered in planetary war by another Grah, or Grahas at the time of birth, the person will relinquish the holy order, in which he becomes initiated.

11. Maitreya asked. O Venerable Sage! If there be many Grahas, who are significators for ascetism, then, which holy order the native will get initiated into?

12. Maharishi Parasara replied. O Brahmin! If all the Grahas be possessed of strength, the native enters into the holy orders of all the Grahas.

13. The native gets initiated into the holy order of the Grah, whose Dasa gets into operation at first. Then he relinquishes this holy order of this Grah at the commencement of the Dasa of the next Grah and accepts the holy order, signified by him.

14. When Guru, Candr and Lagn are aspected by Čani and Guru occupies the 9th, the person, born in the Rajayog, will become a holy illustrious founder of a system of philosophy (holy order).

15. When Čani occupies the 9th from Lagn and is not aspected by any Grah, the person, possessed of Rajayog, will take himself to the holy order, before becoming a Lord of men. If there be no Rajayog the native becomes an ascetic (religious wanderer).

Ch. 80. Female Horoscopy

1. Maitreya asked. O Sage! You have described the effects of many kinds. Now be kind enough to throw light on Strēj atak (female horoscopy).

2. Maharishi Parasara replied. What a good question! Listen to what I am going to tell you about the Rāçi Kundalis of females. All the effects, that have been described till now in the case of male horoscopies, will apply to females also. Matters, relating to her physical appearance, should be determined from Lagn, those, relating to children, from the 5th Bhava, fortune for the husband from the 7th and death of the husband (widowhood) should be deduced from the 8th.
Those effects, which are impossible to ascribe to the female, should be declared to be applicable to her husband.

Brihat Jatak. Of the effects, that have been described till now in the case of male horoscopes and those, that may be found in female horoscopes, suitable to females, should be declared, as applicable to them alone. The rest should be ascribed to their husbands. The death of the husband is to be deduced through the 8th place (from Lagn, or Candr, whichever is stronger). Matters, relating to her appearance, beauty etc., should be determined from Lagn and the Rāçi, occupied by Candr. It is from the 7th place (from Lagn, or Candr), that her welfare (happiness) and the nature of the husband should be ascertained.

Mantreswaras Phaldeepika. Whatever effects are declared for men, they are entirely applicable to women too. The womans prosperity and happiness have to be deduced from the 8th place (from Lagn, or Candr, whichever is stronger). Children should be declared from the 9th Bhava and matters, relating to her appearance, beauty etc., should be determined from Lagn. It is from the 7th place, that her welfare (power of influencing her husband) and the nature of the husband should be ascertained, while her association and chastity should be predicted from an examination of the 4th Bhava. Benefics in those Bhavas produce good results, while malefics in the above Bhavas are productive of evil, unless they happen to own the Bhavas, in which case the effects will be good.

Jatak Parijata. Whatever effects may accrue from the horoscopes of females, applicable only to men, should be ascribed to the husband. The good and evil, affecting their person, should be calculated from Candr and Lagn, whichever of them is stronger. It is from the 7th Bhava from Lagn, or Candr, that all, that is worthy, or unworthy in the husband should be ascertained and the death of the husband is foretold through the 8th. All this should be well weighed by the strength, or weakness of the Grahas, benefic and malefic. Before an announcement is made, of Lagn and Candr find, which is stronger. It is with reference to this, that the luck, beauty and strength of the women should be announced. Children and wealth in abundance should be declared through the 9th Bhava therefrom. Wedded happiness, or otherwise should be gathered from the 8th and husbands fortune from the 7th. Some Jyotishis opine, that the well-being, or the reverses of the husband can be determined from the 9th.

5. If at the time of birth of a woman Lagn and Candr are in even Rācīs, the woman will be truly feminine in character. She will possess excellent qualities, be of steadfast character, beautiful and physically fit.

6. If Lagn and Candr are in odd Rācīs, she will be masculine in form and masculine in bearing and, if they be associated with, or aspected by malefics, she will be devoid of good qualities and be sinful.

7. If amongst Lagn and Candr one be in an even Rācī and the other be in an odd one, the woman concerned should be declared to partake the characteristics of both male and female. The qualities of Lagn, or Candr will be more predominant, according to their strength.

8. O Brahmin! The effects in respect of women would particularly depend on the Rācī and Trimsams of Lagn, or Candr, whichever is stronger.

9-16. When Lagn, or Candr is in a Rācī, belonging to Mai gal, the woman, born in a Trimsams of Mai gal, will have illicit relations with a man before marriage. If she be born in Trimsams of Çukr, she will become unchaste after marriage; if of Budh, she will be full of guile and adept in conjuration; if the Trimsams be of Guru, she will be worthy and virtuous; she will be menial, or slave, if birth be in a Trimsams of Çanī. ... in a Rācī, owned by Budh, the female, born in a Trimsams of Mai gal, will be full of guile, will be a hard-worker; if the Trimsams be of Çukr, will be possessed of good qualities; if of Budh, will be of the nature of hermaphrodite; if of Guru, will be chaste. In a Rācī, owned by Çukr, a female, born in a Trimsams of Mai gal, will be deprived; if the Trimsams be of Çukr, will be well known and possessed of excellent qualities; if of Budh, will be skilled in all arts; she will be endowed with all good qualities, if born in a Trimsams of Guru; she will remarry, if born in a Trimsams of Çanī. When Lagn, or Candr happens to be in a Rācī, owned by Candr and the Trimsams of birth is owned by O DQ gal, the female born will be self-willed and uncontrolled; she will be unchaste and of loose character, if born in a Trimsams of Çukr; will be skilled in arts and handiwork, if of Budh; will be gifted with all excellent qualities, if of Guru; will become a widow, if of Ĉani. ..., owned by Sûrya and the Trimsams of birth be owned by Maìgal, the female born will be very talkative; she will be virtuous, if born in a Trimsams of Çkr; will bear masculine features, if of Budh; will be chaste and virtuous, if of G uru; will be unchaste, if of Ĉani. When the rising Räçi, or the Räçi, occupied by Candr, is owned by G uru, the female, born in a Trimsams of M aìgal, will be endowed with many good qualities; she will be Punschali, if born in a Trimsams of Çkr; will be well versed in many sciences, if of Budh; will be endowed with all good qualities, if of G uru; will not indulge much in sexual intercourse, if of Ĉani. When Lagn, or the Räçi, occupied by Candr, belongs to Ĉani, the female, born in a Trimsams of M aìgal, will be a maidservant; she will be learned (barren, according to Brihat Jatak), if born in a Trimsams of Çkr; will be cruel and immoral, if of Budh; will be devoted to her husband, if of G uru; will be unchaste (addicted to men of low caste, according to Brihat Jatak), if of Ĉani.

17-21. If the 7th Bhava be without a Grah (without strength) and without benefic aspect, the female born will have a coward and contemptible wretch for her husband. When the 7th Bhava is a moveable Räçi, the husband will always be away from home. If Budh and Ĉani be in the 7th Bhava, the husband of the woman concerned will be impotent. If Sûrya occupies the 7th Bhava, the woman concerned is abandoned by her husband. If M aì al be in the 7th, the female concerned becomes a widow in her childhood. If Ĉni be in the 7th, she lives to an old age, remaining unmarried. If there be a malefic, she becomes a widow, while young. If there be a benefic in the 7th, the female born will enjoy marital happiness and will be chaste. If there be both benefics and malefics in the 7th, both benefic and evil effects will be experienced. If M aì gl be in the Navams of Çkr and Çukr be in the Navams of M aìgal, the female concerned will have illicit relations with other men. If in this Y og Candr be in the 7th, the female concerned enters into illicit connections at the instance of her husband.

22-25. If at womans birth the 7th Bhava, or the setting Navams be that of Maìal, the husband will be fond of other women and will be of an irascible temper. If it be a Räçi, or Navams of Budh, her husband will be very learned and clever. If it be a Räçi, or Navams of G uru, the husband of the woman concerned will be of great merit and will have passions under his control. If it be a Räçi, or Navams of Çkr, her husband will be fortunate, very good-looking and liked by women. If the Räçi or Navams belongs to Ĉni, her husband will be an old man and a fool. If the Räçi, or Navams be Simh, her husband will be exceedingly soft in his disposition and will be very hard-working. If the 7th Bhava, or the setting Navams be a Räçi, owned by Candr, the husband of the woman will be love-sick and gentle. If there be different Räçi and Navamsas in the 7th, the effects will be of a mixed nature. The effects of the Räçis and Navamsas will depend on their strength.

26-29. If in a females horoscope Sûrya be in the 8th, the native will be unhappy, poverty-stricken, of deformed limbs and without faith in religion. If Candr be in the 8th, the woman concerned will be of a defective vagina, will have ugly breasts, with sinister eyes, without robes, or ornaments, sickly and will be defamed in the society. If M aì gal, the native will be of weak constitution, sickly, widow, ugly-looking and full of sorrows and agonies. If Budh, she will be without faith in religion, timid, devoid of wealth, self-respect and good qualities and she will be quarrelsome.

30-33. If in a females horoscope G uru be in the 8th, the woman concerned will be shameless and without virtue, will have few children, fatty hands and feet, will be abandoned by her husband and be gluttonous. If Çkr be in the 8th, she will be fond of pleasures, devoid of sympathy, religion, wealth, will be dirty and deceptive. If Ĉni, the woman concerned will be of wicked disposition, dirty, deceptive and devoid of conjugal harmony. If Rahu, she will be ugly, without marital happiness, cruel-hearted, sickly and unchaste.

34. The woman will be barren, if in her Räçi undali Candr and Çkr be associated with Ĉni, or M aì gl and the 5th Bhava be occupied, or aspected by a malefic.

35. If the 7th be in the Navams of M aì gal, the vagina will be diseased. If the 7th be the Navams of a benefic, she will have a well formed female organ and will be beloved by her husband.

36. If M ithun, or Kanya Lagn in a females horoscope is occupied by Çkr and Candr, the woman concerned lives happily and is equipped with all kinds of comforts in her fathers house.
37. If Čandr, Budh and Čkr be in Lagn, the woman concerned is endowed with many good qualities and happiness. If Gurus be in Lagn, she is happy, wealthy and has children.

38. If the 8th Bhava be Simh, or Kark and Sūrya and Čandr be both placed there, the woman concerned will be barren. If the 8th be Mithun, Kanya, or Kark and Budh and Čandr be posited there, the female native will have only one child.

39. The woman concerned will be definitely barren, if Lagn be Mesh, Vrischik, Makar, or Kumbh and Čandr and Čkr be posited there, aspected by malefics.

40. The woman concerned will give birth to an already dead child, if the 7th be occupied by Rahu and Sūrya, or Guru and Rahu be in the 8th and the 5th be occupied by malefics.

41. The woman concerned will not be able to conceive, if Guru and Čkr be associated with Mai gal in the 8th, or Mai gal be with Ci in the 8th.

42. The woman concerned becomes a destructor of her husband's family and her father's family, if at her birth Čandr and Lagn be subjected to Papa Kartari Yog (direct malefics in 12th and retrograde malefics in 2nd).

43. The woman, whose birth takes place under the following conditions, is named, as Visha Kanya. Day of birth Sunday, Nakshat Aṣlesha, 2nd Tithi; Saturday, Krittika, 7th Tithi; Tuesday, Satabhisha, 12th Tithi.

44. The woman will be Visha Kanya, if at birth Lagn be occupied by a malefic and a benefic and two Grahas be in inimical Rāçi.

45. Visha Kanya gives birth to a child already dead. She has a defective generative organ and is bereft of robes, ornaments etc.

46. The evil effects of Visha Kanya are destroyed, if the Lord of the 7th is a benefic, or a benefic Graha be in the 7th from Lagn, or Čandr.

47. The woman born becomes a widow, if O DQ gal be in the 12th, 4th, 7th, or 8th from Lagn, without aspect by, or association with any benefic.

48-49. The Yog, which causes the woman to become widow also causes a male native to become a widower. If the man and woman, possessing this Yog, join in wedlock, the Yog ceases to have any effect.

50-51. If at a woman's birth the rising Rāçi be that of Čkr and the rising Navams be of Čani (Kumbh, according to Brihat Jatak) and, if Čukr and Čni aspect each other, or are occupying each others Navams, she will be afflicted with too much lust and will allay her fire of passion with the help of other females, acting the part of a male.

52. When Guru, Mai gal, Budh and Čukr are strong and, when the rising Rāçi is an even one, the woman born will be learned in Shastras and an expounder of the Vedanta Philosophy.

53. When a malefic Graha is in the 7th and some Graha in the 8th, the woman concerned will become an ascetic.

54. The woman dies before her husband, when in her nativity there is a benefic in the 8th, without aspect by, or association with a malefic.

55. If at the birth of a woman there are equal number of benefics and malefics and they possess the same strength, she without doubt will leave for her heavenly abode along with her husband.

Ch. 81. Effects of Characteristic Features of Parts of Woman's body.

1-2. Maitreya said. O Venerable Sage! I have been fully enlightened by the auspicious and inauspicious effects, described by you with reference to the Janm Lagn in a females horoscope. Now I request you to favour me with knowledge of auspicious and inauspicious effects with reference to the characteristic features of the various parts of a woman's body. Maharishi Parasara replied. O Brahmin! Now I will tell you what Lord Shiva narrated to Goddess Parvati in this regard.

3-4. A woman, whose soles are even, smooth, soft, well developed, warm and shining in pink colour, without much perspiration, will be enjoying full happiness, befitting her sex. The one, whose soles are without pink colour, hard, dry, coarse, uneven, shaped, like a winnowing basket and bereft of flesh, will suffer misery.

5-6. The woman, who has marks of conch, Swastika, Chakr, lotus, flag, fish, umbrella and a long line, rising upwards in her soles, becomes a queen and enjoys great happiness and comforts. The one, who possesses marks, like those of snake, rat and crow, is bereft of wealth and suffers misery.

7. The girl, whose nails of toes are shining in pink colour, smooth, raised and round, enjoys great happiness and comforts. Blackish and torn nails denotes misery.

8. Raised, full, well developed, smooth and round great toe indicates happiness. The one, which is small, irregular in shape and flat, denotes misery.

9. The woman's toes, which are soft, thick, round and well developed are considered auspicious. If the toes are long, she will be of loose morals. Thin toes indicate poverty.

10-16. Other effects about the toes are, as under. Short - short life. Short and long and irregular in shape - procurer and guileful. Flat - maid-servant. Spaced more than average - bereft of wealth. Toes, overlapping one over the other - widow and dependent on others. If dust is thrown up, when she walks - unchaste and brings defame to all the three families (her fathers, mothers and husbands). If the smallest toe does not touch the ground - she will destroy her husband and marry another; If the middle toe and the one next to it does not touch the ground - widow. First toe (next to great toe) longer than the great toe - she will develop illicit connection with a man before marriage and will be of loose morals.

17. If the back of the feet of a woman is raised, without perspiration, soft and smooth, she will become a queen. If the indications are contrary, she will be poverty-stricken. She will be fond of travelling, if the back part of the feet be veined. Hair on that portion of feet denote, that she will be a maid servant. If the feet be bony, or without flesh, she will have a defective sexual organ.

18. If the heels are even, the woman concerned will have a well formed and desirable sexual organ. If the heels be stout, she will have a defective sexual organ. If the heels be high, she will be unchaste. Long heels indicate misery.

19. Legs (portion below knees). Even, smooth, evenly shaped, round, without hair, good looking and without veins showing up are Rājś, that the woman will be a queen.

20. Round, smooth, firm knees are auspicious indications. If the knees be bony, the woman concerned will be of loose moral character. If the knees be loose, she will be poverty-stricken.

21. If the thighs are round, like the trunk of an elephant, close to each other, soft and without hair, the woman concerned will be a queen. If the thighs are flat and hairy, she will be poverty-stricken and a widow.

22-23. Waist. Circumference equal to the width of 24 fingers with well developed hips indicate, that the woman will be fortunate. A waist, which is flat, long, without flesh, caved in, or hairy, forebodes widowhood and misery.

24. Raised, fleshy and widespread hips in a woman are auspicious in effects. If they are contrary, they indicate inauspiciousness.

30-31. A stomach well spread indicates a well formed sexual organ and many sons. If the stomach of a woman resembles that of a frog, her son will become a king. If a woman has a raised stomach she will be childless. If the stomach is wrinkled, she will become an ascetic. If it has circular folds, she will become a maid-servant.
32. If the portion, covering the ribs, is even, well developed and soft, auspicious effects may be expected. It will be inauspicious, if it is raised, hairy and full of veins.
33. The chest of a woman, which is even and hairless is auspicious. Wide spread and hairy chest is inauspicious.
34-36. The breasts of a woman signify good luck, if they are of equal size, fleshy, round and firm, but close together. They are unlucky, if they are thick in front, are not close together and without flesh. Raised right breast indicates, that she will have sons. Raised left breast indicates, that she will have daughters. If the portion, surrounding the nipples, is round, good-looking and blackish, she will enjoy good luck. Pressed in and unusually small breasts indicate bad luck.
37. Shoulders. Even, well built up and without joints showing up are Rāçis of good luck. Raised, hairy and without flesh are unlucky.
38. The armpits, if soft, with thin hair, well developed and smooth are auspicious. Those, which are deep, without flesh, perspiring and with veins, showing up are inauspicious.
39-40. Arms, in which the bones do not show up and which are soft jointed, hairless without obvious veins, straight and round are auspicious. Those without flesh, hairy, small, with obvious veins and irregular in shape are inauspicious.
41. If the thumbs of the woman are shaped, like a lotus bud, they are auspicious. If they are without flesh and irregular in shape, they are inauspicious.
42-43. The woman, who has lines, forming the shape of a house, or VaJra is lucky and gives birth to a son, who becomes learned in Shastras. The woman, who has lines, forming the shapes of a chariot, a plough, or a yoke, becomes the wife of a farmer. She will become a queen, if she has lines, forming the shape of Chamar, Ankush, trident, sword, mace, Shakti, or trumpet.
51-52. If in the palm of a woman there is a line, which, starting from the root of the thumb goes up to the root of the little finger, she becomes a widow. If there are lines, forming the shape of a crow, a frog, a jackal, a wolf, a scorpion, a snake, a donkey, a camel and a cat, the woman concerned suffers misery.
53-54. If the fingers of a woman are tender with good-looking phalanges, tapering at the end and without hair, they are considered auspicious. If they are very small, without flesh, irregular, widely spaced, with hair and with more than usual phalanges, or without phalanges, they indicate misery.

If it be without flesh, coarse, long, dry and blackish, it is indicative of misery and widowhood. If the upper lip of a woman is pink-coloured, smooth and slightly raised in the middle, it is indicative of happiness and good fortune. If otherwise, it will be inauspicious.
66-67. A woman, whose teeth are smooth, milk white, 32 in number and whose upper and lower teeth, though equal in size, are slightly raised, will be lucky. If lower teeth are more in number, are yellow, or black-coloured, fierce looking, widely spaced and double, they are indicative of misfortune.
68-69. If the tongue of a woman is red and soft, she enjoys great happiness and comforts. Caved in the middle and spread out in front indicates misery. White tongue indicates death in water. Dark tongue indicates quarrelsome nature. Thick tongue denotes poverty. Long tongue denotes one, who is omnivorous. Long and broad tongue denotes lunacy.

Honey-coloured eyes indicate good fortune and happiness. The eyes, like those of a pigeon, indicate wickedness. Eyes, like those of an elephant, indicate misery. If the left eye is blind, adulterous tendency will manifest. Blindness of the right eye indicates barrenness.
78. A woman with soft, black, compact eyelashes with thin hair is fortunate. Eyelashes thick, scattered and with tawny-coloured hair indicate misery.
79. If the eyebrows of a woman are round, shaped, like a bow, smooth, black, not joined and with soft hair, she is blessed with happiness and fame.
80. Ears of a woman long with a round turn indicate children and happiness. Small, unevenly shaped, very thin, with veins, showing up, cause her misery.
81-82. The forehead of a woman without veins, showing through, without hair, shaped, like a half-moon, even, with equal to three fingers are Räçis of a fortunate woman, blessed with husband and children. Räci of Swastika on the forehead denotes a queen. Very long, highly raised and hairy forehead causes misery.
83. Head of a woman high and round, like that of an elephant, is indicative of happiness. A head, which is spread out, flat, big and uneven, indicates misery.
84-85. The hair of a woman are indicative of good fortune. If they are soft, black, long, thin and yellow, they indicate misfortune. But honey-coloured hair of a fair complexioned woman and black hair of a dark complexioned woman are also considered auspicious. Most of the characteristic features, described in this chapter, apply to men also.
Ch. 82. Effects of Moles, Marks, Signs etc. for Men and Women

1. Maharishi Parasara said. O Maitreya! Now I will describe to you the effects of moles, marks, spots and signs, found on the body of women and men.

2-3. A mole, spot, or figure, formed by hair on the left side of a woman and right side of a man is auspicious. If there is mole on the chest of a woman, she will be fortunate. 7-10. The woman, who has a red mark (mole etc.) on her nose, becomes consort of a king. If the mark be blackish, the woman concerned becomes an adulteress, or widow. All the marks below the navel are auspicious for both men and women. If there be moles etc. on the ears, cheeks, or neck of a man, his first issue will be male and he will enjoy good fortune and happiness. The man, who has moles etc. in the thighs, suffers misery.

11. The woman, who has the sign of trident on her forehead, becomes a queen. Such a mark on the forehead of a man makes him a king.

13-14. Such a hair formation on the waist and private parts proves inauspicious. If such a formation be on the stomach, the woman concerned will become a widow. If it be in the center of the back she will become an adulteress. It will be inauspicious, if it be on the neck, forehead, or center of the head.

15. A man with indications of short life will get his longevity prolonged by marrying a woman with auspicious, or lucky marks/symbols.

Ch. 83. Effects of Curses in the Previous Birth

1-3. Maitreya said. O Venerable Sage! You have acquainted me with effects, experienced by men and women in a number of ways. According to Shastras, the soul of a person does not rest in peace after his death, if he is not blessed with a son. What sin does a person commit to remain without a son? And what are the remedial measures to be adopted by him to get a son? Kindly enlighten me about this.

4. Maharishi Parasara replied. I will now tell you, whatever Lord Shiva told Goddess Parvati in this respect.

5. Goddess Parvati said to Lord Shiva. O my Lord! What is the sin, which causes destruction of children amongst men. Please tell me, what are the Yogas for such an effect and what are the remedial measures to protect the children?

7. A person will be without a son, if Guru, the Lord of Lagn and the Lord of the 5th are all devoid of strength.

8. The same will happen, if Surya, Maigal, Rahu and Cani, endowed with strength, be in the 5th and the significator for children, namely Guru and Lord of the 5th etc. be bereft of strength.

9-16. There will be no male issue, due to the curse of a serpent, if at birth Rahu is in the 5th, aspected by Maigal; the Lord of the 5th is associated with Rahu and Candr is in the 5th and is aspected by Cani; the significator for children (Guru) is associated with Rahu, the Lord of the 5th is devoid of strength and the Lord of Lagn is with Māi gal; the significator for children is associated with Māi gal. Lagn is occupied by Rahu and the Lord of the 5th is in 6th, 8th, or 12th; Budh, as Lord of the 5th, being in the Navams of Māi gal, is associated with Māi gal and Lagn is occupied by Rahu and Gulika; the 5th is Mēsh, Vrishchik and the Lord of the 5th is associated with Rahu, or Budh; the 5th is occupied by Sūrya, Čāni, Māi gal, Rahu, Budh and Guru and the Lords of the 5th and Lagn are devoid of strength; the Lord of Lagn, or Guru is associated with Rahu and the Lord of the 5th is in conjunction with Māi gal.

17-19. Remedial measures should be adopted to obtain protection from the evil effects of the above Yugas. These are getting an idol of Naga (serpent) Raja, made in gold and, after worshipping it in accordance with prescribed procedure, giving in charity a cow, some land, sesame seeds and gold etc. By adopting these measures the Lord of Serpents will be gratified and by his beneficence the person concerned will be blessed with a son and the lineage of his family will be prolonged.

20-30. There will be no male issue, as a result of the curse of the father in the previous birth, if at birth of the native Sūrya in his debilitation Rāçi and in the Navams of Čāni is hemmed in between malefics in the 5th Bhava; Sūrya, as Lord of the 5th, posited in a Trikon with a malefic, is hemmed in between malefics and is also aspected by a malefic; Guru occupies the Rāçi of Sūrya, the Lord of the 5th is with Sūrya and Lagn and the 5th are occupied by malefics; Lord of Lagn, devoid of strength, is in the 5th and the Lord of the 5th is combust and Lagn and the 5th are occupied by malefics; there is exchange of Bhanas between Lords of the 5th and the 10th and Lagn and the 5th are occupied by malefics; Māi gal, as the Lord of the 10th, is associated with the Lord of the 5th and Lagn, the 5th and the 10th are occupied by malefics; Lord of the 10th is in the 6th, 8th, or 12th, Guru is in a malefic Rāçi and the Lord of Lagn and the 5th are associated with malefics; Sūrya, Māi gal and Čāni are in Lagn and the 5th and Rahu and Guru are in the 8th and the 12th; Sūrya is in the 8th, Čani in the 5th, the Lord of the 5th is associated with Rahu and Lagn is occupied by a malefic; Lord of 12th is in Lagn, Lord of 8th in 5th and Lord of 10th in 8th; Lord of 6th is in 5th, Lord of 10th in 6th and Guru is associated with Rahu.

To get deliverance form the curse of the father the remedial measures are performance of Shraddha at Gaya; to feed ten thousand, one thousand, or 100 Brahmins, as one can afford; Kanyadana (to perform the marriage of a girl); giving a cow in charity. By observing these remedial measures, the person concerned becomes free from the curse and the family lineage is prolonged by the birth of sons, grandsons etc.

Note. In this chapter, where the words childlessness and issue-lessness are used, they should be interpreted to mean want of male issue, because it is the male issue, who by performing the last rites of his father and mother ensures eternal peace to their souls.

34-50. A person will be without a male issue, as a result of curse of the mother, if at birth Candr, as Lord of the 5th is in her debilitation Rāçi, or is hemmed in between malefics and 4th and 5th is occupied by malefics; Čāni is in 11th, 4th is occupied by malefics and Candr is posited in the 5th in her debilitation Rāçi; Lord of 5th is in 6th, 8th, or 12th, Lord of Lagn in his debilitation Rāçi and Candr is associated with malefics; Lord of 5th is in 8th, 6th, or 12th, Candr in a malefic Navams and there are malefics in Lagn and in 5th; Lord of 5th and Candr, associated with Čani, Rahu and Māi gal, are in 5th, or 9th; Māi gal, as Lord of 4th is associated with Čani and Rahu and 5th and Lagn are occupied by Sūrya and Candr, respectively; Lords of Lagn and 5th are in 6th, Lord of 4th in 8th and Lagn is occupied by Lord of 8th and 10th; Lagn is occupied by the Lords of 6th and 8th, Lord of 4th is in 12th and Candr and Guru, associated with malefics, are in the 5th; Lagn is hemmed in between malefics, waning Candr is in 7th and 4th and 5th are occupied by Rahu and Čani, respectively; there is exchange of Bhanas between Lords of 5th and 8th and the Lord of 4th and Candr are in 6th, 8th, or 12th; Kark Lagn is occupied by Māi gal and Rahu and Candr and Čani are in 5th; Māi gal, Rahu, Sūrya and Čani are in Lagn, 5th, 8th and 12th, respectively, and the Lords of Lagn and 4th are in 6th, 8th, or 12th; Māi gal, Rahu and Guru are in 8th and Čani and Candr are in 5th. For release from this curse and to beget a male issue the person concerned should take bath in the sea with bridge of rocks between India and Sri Lanka, recite one Lakh Gayatri Mantras, give in charity things, connected with evil Grahas, feed Brahmins and go round a Pipal tree 1008 times. By performing these remedial measures, he will not only beget a son, the lineage of family will also be prolonged.

62-64. The person concerned will, without doubt, get release from the curse, and for being blessed with a son and for ensuring the prolongation of his family lineage will be ensured, if the following remedial measures are adopted. He should observe the Candrayana fast after listening to Haribansa Puran. He should plant a sapling of Pipal in front of Saligram on the banks of the Caveri river, or on the Ganga, or Mahanadi and offer prayers to it. He should give 10 cows in charity to maintain a reservoir, or all of them.

69-70. To get release from the curse and for being blessed with a son and for ensuring the prolongation of the lineage of the family the following remedial measures are to be adopted. Installation of an idol of Lord Vishnu. Construction of a deep, or ordinary well, dam, or reservoir, or all of them.

71-78. If a person, mad with power and wealth, insults a Brahmin, he remains without a male issue in the next birth. A person will be without a male issue, as a result of the curse of a Brahmin, if at birth Rahu is in Guru's Räçi and Guru in 5th; Lord of 9th is in 5th and Lord of 5th in 8th along with Guru, Małgal and Rahu; Lord of 9th is in his debilitation Räçi and Lord of 12th, associated with Rahu, is in 5th; Guru is in his debilitation Räçi, Rahu in Lagn, or 5th and Lord of 5th in 6th, 8th, or 12th; Lord of 5th and Guru, associated with malefics, are in 8th, or the Lord of 5th, associated with Surya and Candr, is in 8th; Guru, being in the Navams of Čani, is associated with Čani and Małgal and the Lord of 5th is in 12th; Guru is associated with Čani in Lagn and Rahu is in 9th, or Rahu is with Guru in 12th. Notes. According to our view, Kanyadana does not mean giving a girl in charity, but helping in the performance of the marriage of an unmarried girl, not his own daughter.

95-105. If the person, whose duty is to do so, does not perform Shraddha of his father, or mother in his previous birth, the departed soul is formed into an evil spirit and he is deprived of a male issue in the next birth. This is revealed by the following Yogas at birth. Çani and Sūrya in 5th; waning Candr in 7th and Rahu and Guru in 12th; Çani, as Lord of 5th in 8th; Māi gal in Lagn and Guru in 8th; Malefics are in Lagn, Sūrya in 12th; Māi gal, Çani and Budh are in 5th and the Lord of 5th is in 8th; Rahu is in Lagn, Çani in 5th and Guru in 8th; Çukr, Guru and Rahu are in Lagn, associated with Çand and Çani and the Lord of Lagn are in 8th; Lord of 5th and Guru are in their debilitation Rācis, aspected by debilitated Grahas; Çani is in Lagn, Rahu in 5th, Sūrya in 8th and Māi gal in 12th; Lord of 7th is in 6th, 8th, or 12th; Çand is in 5th, Çani and Gulika are in Lagn; Lord of 8th along with Çani and Çukr is in 5th and Guru is in his debilitation Rāci.

Performance of a Pinda Dana, Rudra Abhisheka, giving in charity a gold idol of Brahma, a cow, a vessel, made of silver and a Neelamani, feeding Brahmins and giving them presents in cash.

109-111. If a person is deprived of a male issue, as a result of malevolence of Grahas at birth, he will be blessed with a son, if he undertakes the following remedial measures. Worshipping Lord Shiva, if the harm is, as a result of the malevolence of Budh and Çukr; reciting of Santan Gopal Mantra, wearing and worshipping appropriate Yantra and taking suitable medicines, if the childlessness is due to malevolence of Guru and Candr; Kanya Dana, if the childlessness is due to malevolence of Rahu; worshipping of Lord Vishnu, if it is due to malevolence of Sūrya; Rudriya Japa, if it is due to the malevolence of Māi gal and Çani. Listening with devotion to Haribansh Puran removes all kinds of blemishes and blesses the person concerned with a son.

Ch. 84. Remedial Measures from the Malevolence of Grahas

1. Maitreya said. O Venerable Sage! Please describe for the good of mankind the remedial measures for appeasement of the malevolent Grahas.

2. The Sage replied. I have already described the names and characteristic features and qualities of the Grahas. Joys and sorrows of all the creatures in the world are dependent on these Grahas. Therefore persons desirous of peace, wealth and prosperity, rainfall, good health and longevity should worship the Grahas (by prayers, recitation of Mantras, charity etc.).

3-5. For the purpose of worshipping them the idols of Sūrya, Candr, Māi gal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, Çani, Rahu and Ketu should be made of copper, Sphatika (rock crystal), red sandal wood, gold (both Budh and Guru), silver, iron, glass and bell metal, respectively. Alternatively the sketches of all the above Grahas should be drawn in the colours, belonging to them, on a piece of cloth by sandal etc. and they should be placed in their own directions.

6. Contemplate of Sūrya well adorned with two arms, seated on a lotus, with a lotus flower in one hand, red-coloured, like lotus and aboard a chariot of seven horses.

7. Contemplate of Candr white-coloured, dressed in white robes, with two arms, carrying a mace in one hand and a Vara in the other, adorned with white-coloured ornaments and aboard a chariot of ten horses.

8. Contemplate of Māi gal with a red necklace, dressed in red-coloured robes, with four arms, carrying Shakti, Shoola, Gada (mace) and Vara and mounted on a lamb.

9. Contemplate of Budh with a yellow-coloured garland, dressed in yellow robes, with four arms, carrying a sword, a shield, a mace and Vara, mounted on a lion.
10. Contemplate of Guru, as yellow complexion and Çukr of fair complexion, both with four arms, carrying a Danda, A kshasutra, K amandal and V ara.
11. O Maitreya! Contemplate of Čani with the lustre, like that of Indraneela, with four arms, carrying Shoola, bow and arrow and V ara, mounted on a donkey.
12. Contemplate of Rahu with a hideous face, with four arms, carrying a sword, a shield, a Shoola and a V ara, blue-coloured and mounted on a lion.
13. There are many Ketus. All of them are of smoky colour, with two arms, carrying a mace and a V ara, with a hideous face and mounted on a donkey.
14. All the idols should be so made, that they are 108 fingers tall by ones own fingers.

Notes. Such a measurement is taken from the middle finger.
15-16. Dedicate with devotion to the Grahas concerned the flowers and garments of the colour, belonging to him, sandal, D eep, Guggul etc., his metal and the grains, dear to him and distribute all these things to Brahmins to appease the Grahas.
17-20. The Mantras of all the Grahas and the prescribed number of their recitation are given below.

The recitation of the Mantras should be done after worshipping the Grahas, as indicated in verses 15-16. Graha Mantra prescribed number: Sūrya 7000, Candr 11000, M a gal 11000, Budh 9000, Guru 19000, Çukr 16000, Čani 23000, Rahu 18000, K etu 17000.
21-22. Havan should be performed with A ak, Palash, K hair, Chirchiri, Pipal, Goolar, Shami wood pieces, D oob and K ush, for Sūrya, Candr, M a gal, Budh, Guru, Çukr, Čani, Rahu and K etu, respectively, mixed with honey, G hē curd, or milk. The number of offerings to the sacred fire is 108, or 28.
23-24. To appease Sūrya and the other eight Grahas Brahmins should be fed with (cream) of rice cooked with jaggery, rice cooked in milk, Havishya, paddy cooked in milk, curd and rice, rice with G hē rice cooked with powder of sesame seeds, rice cooked with meat, rice cooked with cereals, respectively.
25. To appease Sūrya and other Grahas the things to be given in charity are cow with calf, conch, bullock, gold, robes, horse, black cow, weapons made of iron and goat, respectively.
26-27. The Grahas, who is the cause of adverse effects to a person at any time, should be handled by worship and appeasing (of the benevolent ones), because Brahma has blessed the Grahas with the boon Do to the persons, who worship you. And the development and progress and downfall of the people and the creation and destruction of the universe are all under the administration and authority of the Grahas. Therefore they are most venerable.

Ch. 85. Inauspicious Births

1-4. The Venerable Sage said. O Maitreya! Now I will describe to you the circumstances, in which the births are inauspicious in spite of Lagn and the Grahas being well disposed. Although Lagn may be well disposed, births will be inauspicious, if they take place on A mavasya (last day of the Krishna Paksha), on Chaturdasi (14th Tithi), in K rishna Paksha (dark half of the month), in B hadra K aran, in the Nakshatras of the brother, in the Nakshatras of father and mother, at the time of entry of Sūrya in a Rācī, the time of Pata, at the time of solar and lunar eclipses, at the time of V yati Pata, in Gandantas of all the three kinds, in Y amaghat, T ithikshaya, in D agdhya Y og etc. The birth of a son after three daughters and birth of a daughter after three sons and the birth of a freak are inauspicious. But there are remedial measures for obtaining relief from the evil effects of such births, which are being described in the following chapters.
Ch. 86. Remedies for A mavasya Birth

1-9. The Sage Parasara said. O Maitrey! The person, born on A mavasya, is always poverty stricken. It is therefore essential to adopt remedial measures to obtain relief from the evil effects of such births, which are, as follows. Take a Kalash (water vessel) and then put in it fresh leaves of Goolar (wild fig), Vata (banyan), Pipal, mango and Neema (mango) trees and cover it with two pieces of cloth. Then install the Kalash in the South-West direction after reciting ... etc. and ... etc. Mantras. Then worship the idols of Sūrya and Candr, ruling deities of A mavasya, made of gold and silver, mixed with copper, respectively, by recitation of ... etc. Mantras for Sūrya and ... etc. Mantras for Candr 16, or 5 times. Thereafter perform Havan with 108, or 28 oblations of the mixture of prescribed fuels (...) and cooked food (Charu) with recitation of ... etc. Mantras for Sūrya and ... etc. Mantras for Candr. Later perform Havan with 108, or 28 oblations of the mixture of prescribed fuels (...) and cooked food (Charu) with recitation of ... etc. Mantras of Sūrya and Candr. Perform Havan with 108, or 28 oblations of the mixture of prescribed fuels (...) and cooked food (Charu) with recitation of ... etc. Mantras of Sūrya and Candr. Then sprinkle the water on the child, that is born and his parents and offer in charity gold, silver and a black cow together with feeding the Brahmans, according to ones means. By performing these remedial rites the child born gains freedom and protection from the evil effects of the birth on A mavasya.

Ch. 87. Remedies from Birth on Kāñëa Chaturdashi

1-3. The Sage said. Divide the span of Chaturdashi in 6 parts. The birth in the first part is auspicious. Second part causes destruction, or death of father. Third part causes death of the mother. Fourth part takes away the maternal uncle. Fifth part destroys the entire family (Khula - generation). Sixth part causes loss of wealth, or destruction (death) of the native. Therefore it is essential to take immediate remedial measures to escape these evil effects.

4-5. Have an idol of Lord Shiva, made of one Karsha (equal in weight to the former silver Rupee) of gold, or of weight one can afford. The idol should have a New Moon on the forehead, have a white garland round the neck, have three eyes (one being on the forehead), be dressed in white robes, be seated on a bull, be two-armed and carry Vara and Abhaya.

6-13. Then after invocation with Varun Mantra worship should be performed by chanting ... etc. Mantras. Thereafter a Kalash should be placed in the North-East direction with chanting of Imah Mai Varun, Tan Tva Yami, Tavan Nai Agni Mantras, followed by Japa of ... etc. and Bhadra Agni ... Sukta and the chanting of ... Mantra. Then, after sprinkling water over the idol of Lord Shiva (Abhisheka), the nine Grahas should be worshipped. This should be followed by Havan, by using Ghé powder of sesame seeds, Urda, Sarson and wood pieces of Pipal, Pakar, Palas and K hadir trees. 108, or 28 oblations should be made separately for the nine Grahas. Thereafter, along with chanting of ... etc. Mantras, Havan should be performed with sesame seeds for the nine Grahas. Lastly the water of the Kalash should be sprinkled on the native and his parents and the Brahmans should be fed, according to means.

Ch. 88. Remedies from Birth in Bhadra and Inauspicious Yogas

1-2. The Sage said. O Brahmin! Now I am going to describe the remedial measures for relief from the evil effects of birth in Bhadra, Tithi Kshaya, Vyatipata, Paridha, Vajra etc. inauspicious Yogas and Yamaghants etc. The remedial rites should be performed on the day, when the same inauspicious Y og operates again.

3-5. The remedial rites are to be performed in the following order by the parents of the child in the above inauspicious Yogas. Puja of Lord Vishnu and other deities on an auspicious day and auspicious Lagn on the advice of a proficient Jyotishi, burning of Deep with Ghéin a Čiva temple, A bhiseka of Lord Civa, going round a Pipal tree 108 times prolongs longevity and perform Havan with 108 oblations along with the recital of Vaisnēh Raratmāchityadhī Maṇtra of Lord Vishnu and feeding Brahmins to the best of ones means. The observance of these remedial measures will give deliverance to the native from all the evil effects of his inauspicious birth and he will enjoy happiness.

Ch. 89. Remedies from Nakshatr Birth

1-7. The Sage Parasara said. O Maitreya! If the birth takes place in the Nakshatras of the brother and the parents, death takes place, without doubt, of the brother and the father, or mother, or they have to undergo death-like suffering. Therefore I am going to describe the remedial measures to be adopted to escape from these evil effects. The remedial rites should be performed in a Muhurtā, when Candr and stars are favourable on a day, on which there is no Rikta-Bhadra Dosha. The remedial rites should be performed in the following order. Install an idol of the Janm Nakshatr on a Kalash in the North-East direction from the fire. Cover it with a red piece of cloth and then warp two pieces of cloth round it. Worship the idol by chanting the Mantras of the Janm Nakshatr. According to ones Gotra, perform Havan 108 times with the recitation of the same Mantra, facing the fire, with Ghe and other Havan material. Then the priest, performing the Puja, should sprinkle water on the parents and brother (whoever is concerned). Give presents in cash (Dakshena) to the priest and his colleagues, associated with the ceremony, to the best of ones means and then feed the Brahmins to the best of ones means.

Ch. 90. Remedies from Sankranti Birth

1-2. The Sage said. O Brahmin! The names of the Sankranti on the seven days of the week, beginning from Sunday, are Ghora, D havankshi, Mahodari, Manda, Mandakini, Mishra and Rakshasi. The person, born at the Sankranti (entry of Sūrya in a new Rāçi), is poor and unhappy, but he becomes well-to-do and happy, if remedial measures are undertaken. I am now going to describe the remedial measures to nullify these evil effects.

3-6. The Yajya of the nine Grahas should be performed to obtain relief from the evil effects of the birth at Sankranti. A clean spot in the eastern part of the house should be purified by besmearing with cow dung. Then prepare three separate heaps of the following: 5 Dronas (80 Seers) of paddy (Sadhi), 2 ½ Dronas (40 Seers) of rice, 1 ½ Dronas (20 Seers) of sesame seeds (Til). On these heaps of grains make a figure of lotus with eight leaves (Ashtamdhal) and then decorate them with flowers. After doing this, select and invite a priest, who is well versed in the performance of religious rites and recitation of Mantras.

7-18. The religious rites are then to be performed in the following order. Install Kalashas without any holes on all the three heaps and put in each of them water from holy places, Saptamrattika, Shataushadhi, Panchapallava and Panchagavya. Then wrap the Kalashas with pieces of cloth. Place small earthen pots, wrapped with thin cloth, on the Kalashas. Then install the idol of Sankranti along with the idol of A dhideva and Pratyadhideva. Their idols should be placed on either side of the main idols of Sankranti. Two robes may be given, as offering to each of the idols. Perform worship of all the three idols, according to the prescribed procedure. The main idol should be worshipped with the chanting of Trayambakam, Yajam Hai etc., the idol of Sūrya with Maṅtra Uṣṭh Sūrya and the idol of Candr with Maṅtra A payayashava etc. The worship should be performed with Shodhopchār, or Panchopchār, as may be possible. A fter touching the main idol, Mrityunjaya Japa should be recited 1008, 108, or 28 times, as may be possible. Make a small platform in the West of the installed Kalashas, kindle fire on it and perform the prescribed rites. Then perform

Havan 1008, 108, or 28 times with Samidha, G hrît (G hé) and Charu (powder of Til) within one's means along with chanting of T rayambakam etc. M antra. 8) A gain perform Havan, first with the fuel of sesame seeds along with recitation of M rityunjaya M antra. A fter performing another S vistkrita Havan, sprinkle the holy water on the child born and his parents. Lastly feed as many Brahmins, as one can afford. By performing the remedial rites, described above, the evil effects are nullified and the native and his parents enjoy happiness.

Ch. 91. Remedies for Birth in Eclipses

1-14. The Sage said. O B rahmin! A person, whose birth takes place at the time of solar, or lunar eclipse, suffers from ailments, distress and poverty and faces danger of death. Therefore I am going to describe for the benefit of the mankind the remedial measures, required to be undertaken to nullify the above evil effects. The remedial rites are to be performed in the following order. The following idols should be got prepared, according to one's means: in gold an idol of the deity of the Nakshatras, in which the eclipse takes place (regarding deities of Nakshatras, see notes of verse 18, Ch. 3, Vol. I); in gold an idol of Sûrya, if the birth takes place during solar eclipse; in silver an idol of Candr, if the birth takes place during lunar eclipse; in lead an idol of Rahu. Besmear a clean spot on the ground (in the house) with cow dung, cover it with a new (unused) beautiful piece of cloth and install the three idols on it. Make offerings of the following to the idols: in case of birth during solar eclipse all things dear to Sûrya and red-coloured Akshat (Akshata - rice), red sandal, a garland of red-coloured flowers, red clothes etc.; in case of birth during a lunar eclipse all things dear to Candr and white sandal, white flowers, white clothes etc.; for Rahu blackish clothes, blackish flowers etc.; white flowers for the deity of the Nakshatras, in which the eclipse takes place. The worship should be performed, as follows: of Sûrya with the chanting of Akrishnim etc. M antra; of Candr with the chanting of Imadeva etc. M antra; of Rahu with D urva (a kind of grass) and with the chanting of Kayanshicatra etc. M antra. Thereafter Havan should be performed, as follows: with the fuel of Aak wood pieces for Sûrya; with the fuel of Palas tree wood pieces for Candr; with D urva for Rahu; with Pipal tree wood pieces for the deity of the Nakshatras. Sprinkle the holy water of the Kalash on the child born (and his parents). Offer worshipful regards to the priest, performing the remedial rites and lastly feed as many Brahmins, as possible within one's means. By performance of the remedial rites in the manner described above, evil effects of the inauspicious birth are wiped and the native enjoys happiness and is blessed with good fortune.

Ch. 92. Remedies from Gandanta Birth

1. The Sage said. O B rahmin! Gandanta is of three kinds, namely of Tithi, Nakshatr and Lagn. Birth, travelling and performance of auspicious functions, like marriage etc., during Gandanta are likely to cause death of the person concerned.
2. O M aitreya! The last 2 G hatikas of Purna Tithi (5th, 10th, 15th) and the first 2 G hatikas of Nanda Tithi (1st, 6th, 11th) are known, as Tithi Gandanta.
3. Similarly the last two G hatikas of Revati and first two G hatikas of A shvini, the last two G hatikas of A slesha and first two G hatikas of M agha and the last two G hatikas of J yeshtha and first two G hatikas of M ula are known, as Nakshatr Gandanta.
4. The last half G hatika of M een and first half G hatika of M esh, the last half G hatika of K ark and first half G hatika of S imh, the last half G hatika of V rischik and first half G hatika of D hanu are known, as Lagn Gandanta.
5. Amongst these G andantas the last 6 G hatikas of J yeshtha and first 8 G hatikas of M ula are known, as A bhukta M ula.
6-8. Now I will tell you the remedial measures to be adopted to release the child, born during Gandanta, from its evil effects. The father should see the child born only on the morning next to the end of the days of Sutaka, or on any auspicious day after the performance of the remedial measures. The remedial measures are giving a bullock in charity in the case of Tithi Gandanta, giving a cow with calf in charity in the case of Nakshat Gandanta, giving gold in charity in the case of Lagn Gandanta, performing A bhisheka of the child along with father, if the birth is in the first part of Gandanta and along with mother, if the birth is in the second part of Gandanta.

9-11. Performance of Puja on the holy K alash of the idol of the deities of Tithi (in case of Tithi Gandanta), Nakshatr (in case of Nakshat Gandanta) and Lagn (in case of Lagn Gandanta), made of 16 Masas, 8 Masas, or 4 Masas of gold, as may be possible, followed by Havan and A bhisheka, according to procedure already described earlier. A t the end as many Brahmins, as may be possible within ones means, should be fed. These remedial measures will ensure long life, good health and prosperity for the child.

Notes. Unless one is himself fully conversant with the performance of religious rites, the remedies, recommended in this chapter, earlier and later chapters, should be got performed by and under the directions of a learned priest, because the full effects will be derived, if the rites are performed correctly and according to the procedure, prescribed in the religious scriptures on this subject.

C. 93. Remedies for A bhukta M ula Birth

1-2. The Sage Parasara said. The ruling deity of Jyeshtha is Indra and the ruling deity of Mula is Rakshasa. As both the deities are inimical to each other, this Gandanta is considered, as the most evil. A boy, or girl, born during the period of Abhukta Mula, should either be abandoned, or the father should not see the face of the child for 8 years. Now I shall describe the remedial measures to obtain deliverence from the evil effects of birth during this extremely inauspicious period.

3-4. In view of the extremely inauspicious effects of birth during Abhukta I shall first describe the remedial measures to obtain relief from Mula. The religious remedial rites should be performed after the 12th day after the birth, the next Janm Nakshatr day, or on an auspicious day, when Candr and the stars are favourable.

5-8. Erect a canopy (Mandap) with four arched gateways, embellished with festoons, on a sacred spot, besmeared with cow dung paste, to the East, or North of the house. Prepare there a pit (Kund), or place there a square vessel of clay, or metal for performing Havan. Then, according to ones means, prepare, or get prepared an idol of Rakshasa of 16, 8, or 4 Masas of gold, as may be possible within ones means. The idol should be with a horrible-looking face, black in colour, with two heads, two arms, carrying a sword and a shield and seated on a dead body.

9. In the absence of an idol a piece of gold of the weight, mentioned above, should be used for worship, as gold is dear to all the deities.

10-20. Thereafter the remedial rites should be performed in the following order. Select a learned priest to perform the religious rites, according to the prescribed procedure. Install a K alash and put in it Panchagavya (five articles, yielded by a cow, namely milk, curd, Ghé, dung and urine), Shataushadhi and water of the holy river (Ganga etc.). Then install the idol of the Rakshasa of Mula, facing West, on an earthen pot (Dhata) with one hundred tiny holes. After placing bamboo leaves on it, perform the worship of the idol by offering it white flowers, sandal and clothes etc. Also perform worship of its Adhideva Indra and Pratyadhideva Jal. Then perform Havan to appease the deities. According to ones means, 1008, or 108 oblations should be offered in the Havan. After this to obtain deliverence from death M rityunjaya M antra etc. should be recited and prayers offered to all the deities for the purpose of A bhisheka. The father, mother and the child should thereafter take bath from the water of the two K alasas.

verse 19) Mantra, the father, mother and the child should see the reflection of their faces in the (melted) Ghé Bh by the performance of the remedial rites in the manner described all evil effects of the birth during Abhukta Mula are completely wiped out.

Ch. 94. Remedies from Jyeshtha Gandanta Birth

1-5. The Sage said. O Maitreya! Now I will describe to you the remedial measures to be adopted to ensure relief from the evil effects of Jyeshtha Gandanta. The erection of a canopy (Mandhup), installation of Kalash, selection of a priest etc. will be done in the same manner, as has been recommended for the Abhukta Mula in the previous chapter. In this ceremony Indra will be the deity-in-chief, A dhideva will be Agni and the Pratyadhideva will be Rakshasa.

6. Then the remedial rites should be performed in the following order. Install on a Kalash, full of paddy rice, an idol of gold with Indra, seated on Airavat with Vajra Ankusha in his hands. Perform worship of the chief deity Indra along with that of the Adhideva and the Pratyadhideva with the recitation of their appropriate Mantras. Perform Havan, Abhisheka and then feed the Brahmins in accordance with ones means. In addition to the above, after doing Indrasukta and Mrityunjaya Japas, prayers may be offered to Indra. These measures will wipe out the evil effects of the Gandanta.

7. In case the performance of remedial rites, described above, is beyond the means of any person, he should give a cow in charity. This will also appease the deities and promote relief from the evil effects of the Gandanta. Because the giving of a cow in charity has been considered a superior remedial measure than giving in charity all the lands, belonging to a person.

8-9. According to prescribed remedial measures, 3 cows are to be given in charity in the case of Jyeshtha-Mula and A slesha-Magha Gandantas, 2 cows in Revati-Ashvini Gandantas and 1 cow in other Gandantas, or in any inauspicious Yог. If cow, or cows are not available, their actual value should be given in cash to a Brahmin.

10. A girl, born in Jyeshtha Nakshatr, destroys (is the cause of death of) the elder brother of her husband and a girl, born in fourth quarter of Vishaka Nakshatr, destroys her husbands younger brother. Therefore a cow should be given in charity at the time of the marriage of such girls to wipe out the above-mentioned evil effects.

11-13. A boy, or girl, born in the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th quarter of Aslesha Nakshatr, destroys his/her mother-in-law and a boy, or a girl, born in 1st, 2nd, or 3rd quarter of Mula Nakshatr, becomes the destroyer of his/her father-in-law. Therefore suitable measures, as may be possible within ones means, should be taken at the time of the marriage of such boys and girls. There will be no evil effect, if the husband has no elder brothers.

Ch. 95. Remedies from Birth of a Daughter after Three Sons

1-2. The Sage said. O Brahmin! I will now tell you about other kinds of inauspicious births. The birth of a daughter after the birth of three sons, or the birth of a son after the birth of three daughters is ominous for both the maternal and paternal families of such children. Therefore remedial measures, described below, may be taken to get deliverance from these evil effects.

3-9. The rites should be performed on the morning next to the last day of Sutak, or on any other auspicious day in the following order. After selecting a priest and some Brahmins to perform the remedial religious rites, the priest, after paying obeisance to the nine Grahas, should install four Kalashas on a heap of paddy, place the idols of Brahma, Vishnu, Mahesha and Indra, made of gold, on them and perform their worship in the prescribed manner. A Brahmin (an assistant of the priest), after taking bath etc., should recite four Rudra Sukta and the whole of Shanti Sukta. The priest should perform Havan with Samidha, Ghé and sesame seeds 1008, 108, or 28 times with the recitation of the prescribed Mantras of Brahma, Vishnu, Mahesa and Indra. Sviskrata and Purnahuti and Abhisheka of the child with his family should be done and presents in cash should be given to the priest and his assistants, according to ones means. The Brahmins should be fed. The father and the mother of the child should see their reflections in the Ghé kept in a bronze vessel. Lastly grains and clothes should be distributed to the poor and the needy. By the performance of the above remedial rites the evil effects are wiped out and the child and his parents etc. enjoy happiness.

Ch. 96. Remedies from Unusual Delivery

1-3. The Sage said. O Brahmin! I will now tell you about inauspicious and unusual deliveries by women, which are ominous for the village, town and the country. These may be of the following kinds. Delivery of a child 2, 3, or 4 months earlier, or later from the approximate due date. Delivery of a child without hands, feet, or any other limbs, without head, or with two heads. Delivery of an animal-shaped being by a woman, or a human-shaped being by an animal.

4-5. Deliveries of these kinds by women, or cows etc. in a house are ominous for all the members of the family, living there. Therefore remedial measures are essential for obtaining relief from their evil effects. The best remedial measure will be to abandon (turn out from the Bhava) such women and animals (cows, mares etc.).

6-9. It is considered inauspicious for a girl to become pregnant, or to deliver a child in her 15th, or 16th year from birth. If a cow delivers, when Sūrya is in Simh, or a female buffalo delivers, when Sūrya is in Makar, they are disastrous to their owner and the person, who looks after them. Therefore either such cow, or buffalo should be given away to a Brahmin, or suitable remedial measures should be taken to escape from the above-mentioned evil effects. The remedial measures to be adopted are the same, as given in verses 3-9 in Ch. 95.

10. Thus, whenever there is any kind of Aristha, adoption of appropriate remedial measures will ensure long life, happiness and prosperity for the person concerned.

Chapter 97. Conclusion

1-4. Maharishi Parasara said. O Brahmin! I have described to you the Jyotish Shastra, as narrated by Lord Brahma to the Sage Narada and by Narada to Shaunaka and other Sages, from whom I received the knowledge of this Shastra. I have narrated the same Jyotish Shastra, which I learnt from them. Do not impart the knowledge of this Shastra to one, who is insignificant, slanders, or calumniates others, nor to one, who is not intelligent, is wicked and unknown to you. Teach this supreme Vedanga Jyotish Shastra only to one, who is gentle and amiable, devoted, truthful, brilliant and well known to you.

5-6. Only that person, who possesses adequate knowledge of time and the positions of Grahas and Nakshatras, can understand this Hora Shastra. Only that person, who has complete knowledge of the Hora Sastra and who is truthful, can make correct favourable, or unfavourable predictions.

7. One, who reads, or listens with attention and devotion to this most excellent Hora Sastra, becomes long-lived and is blessed with increase in his strength, wealth and good reputation.

8-9. Thus was narrated by Mahārīṣi Pārāśara to Maitreya this novel Hora Cāstra, containing invaluable and uncommon material from ancient scriptures on Jyotish, for the benefit of the world at large. Afterwards it came into usage on the earth and received reverence from all.

10-25. In these verses have been described the subject matters of all the chapters, contained in this book and their importance. This information has been given in detail in the Table of Contents in Volumes I and II of this book.
