VAKRATUNDA MAHAAKAAYA

Vakratunda Mahaakaaya,
Suuryakoti Samaprabha.
Nirvighnam Kurume Deva,
Shubha Kaaryeshhu Sarvadaa.

O Lord Ganesha,
Who possesses a large body, a curved trunk,
And shines with the brilliance of a million suns:
Please make all my work free of obstacles, always.

VASUDEVA SUTAM DEVAM

Vasudeva Sutam Devam,
Kansa Chaanuura Mardanam.
Devakii Paramaa Nandam,
Krishhnam Vande Jagadh Gurum.

I bow to you, Lord Krishna,
The resplendent son of Vasudev,
Who killed the great tormentors Kansa and Chanoora,
Who is a source of great joy to Devaki,
And who is indeed a world teacher.
OHM SAHA NAA VAVATU

Ohm Saha Naa Vavatu,
Saha Nau Bhunaktu,
Saha Viiryam Karavaa Vahai,
Tejas Vinaa Vadhii Tamastu,
Maa Vid Vishhaa Vahai.
Ohm Shanti, Shanti, Shanti.

Ohm,
May God protect us.
May God nourish us.
May we acquire the capacity to study and to understand the scriptures.
May our studies be thorough and faithful (so we may become brilliant).
May we never quarrel with or hate each other.
Ohm, peace, peace, peace.

At the beginning of a class, the teacher and students generally recite this peace invocation together. Both seek the Lord’s blessings for study that is free of obstacles, such as poor memory, or the inability to concentrate or poor health. They also seek blessings for a conducive relationship, without which communication of any subject matter is difficult. Therefore, this prayer is important for both the teacher and the student.

GURUR BRAHMA

Gurur Brahma Gurur Vishnu,
Gurur Devo Mahesh Varah.
Guru Shakshat Para Brahma,
Tasmai Shri Guruve Namah.

The teacher is like Lord Brahma as he Generates knowledge within us, like Lord Vishnu as he Drives ideas and knowledge into our mind unto the right path, and like Lord Mahesha (Shiva) as he Destroys the ill-conceived ideas that come from our knowledge, while enlightening us and helping us stay on the right path.

Thus the teacher is like our ultimate God and we should pray and give respect to our teacher.
SHAANTA KAARAM

Shaanta Kaaram Bhujaga Shayanam,
Padmanabham Suresham.
Vishvadharam Gagana Sadrusham,
Megha Varnam Shubhangam.
Lakshmi Kantam Kamala Nayanam,
Yogibhir Dhyana Gamyam.
Vande Vishnum Bhava Bhaya Haram,
Sarva Lokaia Kanatham.

I adore Lord Vishnu,
Who is the embodiment of peace,
Who lies on the Shesha serpent,
Whose navel is the source of the Lotus of the Universe,
Whose color is that of the clouds,
Whose body shines with heavenly beauty,
Who is the beloved of Goddess Lakshmi,
Whose eyes are like Lotuses,
Who is meditated upon by the yogis,
Who is the destroyer of the fear of birth and death,
Who is the master of the entire universe and all creation.
TWAMEVA MATA

Twameva Mata, Chapita Twameva.
Twameva Bandhu, Cha Sakha Twameva.
Twameva Vidya, Dravinum Twameva.
Twameva Sarvam Mama Deva Deva.

O God,
You are my mother, my father, my brother, and my friend.
You are my knowledge and my only wealth.
You are everything to me and the God of all Gods.

This mantra is usually recited at the conclusion of a prayer session, meditation, or religious function. Here the devotee surrenders his or her individuality to the Lord for his Grace.

MUKAM KAROTI VAACHAALAM

Mukam Karoti Vaachaalam,
Pangum Langhayate Girim.
Yat Krupa Tamaham Vande,□
Paramanandam Madhavam.

Lord Shiva,
You make the dumb speak,
And the lame leap over mountains.
I bow down to you and ask you for mercy.
KARAAGRE VASATE LAKSHMI

Karaagre Vasate Lakshmi,
Karamuule Saraswati.
Karamadhye Tu Govinda,
Prabhaate Kara Darshanam.

The front part of the hands (the fingertips) are ascribed to Goddess Lakshmi, the Goddess of Wealth, the middle part (the palm proper) to Goddess Saraswati, the Goddess of Learning and Knowledge, and the root (the part of hand near the wrist) to Govinda, the God of Power. The hand is the symbol of human effort.

By placing the three divine powers on the tips, in the middle and at the base of the hand, this shloka suggests that divinity lies in human effort.

SAMUDRA VASANE DEVI

Samudra Vasane Devi,
Parvata Stana Mandale.
Vishnupatni Namastubhyam,
Paada Sparsham Kshamasva Me.

O! Mother Earth, who has the ocean for clothes,
Mountains and forests for her body, and
Who is the wife of Lord Vishnu.
I bow to you. Please forgive me for touching you with my feet.

This is a Morning Prayer called “karadarshana“. You begin the day with this prayer.

“Kara” means the palm of the hand and it stands for the five karmendriyas, or the organs of action. While looking at the palm, you invoke the Lord in the form of various deities, thus sanctifying all the actions that will be done during the day.

By acknowledging the Lord as the giver of the capacity to perform actions and as the giver of the fruits of those actions, you sanctify those actions. You pray in the morning to reinforce the attitude that all actions are performed as a service to the Lord.
ASATO MAA SAD GAMAYA

Asato Maa Sad Gamaya,
Tamaso Maa Jyotir Gamaya,
Mrityor Maa Amritam Gamaya.

Ohm Sarve Bhavantu Sukhinah,
Sarve Santu Niramayah.
Sarve Bhadrani Pushyantu,
Maa Kaschid Dukhabhaag Bhavet.
Ohm Shaanti Shaanti Shaanti.

Shubhamastu, Kalyaanamastu,
Aishwaryamastu, Udayostu, Udayostu.

May all be happy.
May all enjoy health and freedom from disease.
May all have prosperity and good luck.
May none suffer or fall on evil days.

These are prayers for the prosperity and welfare of humanity.
To achieve anything in life, one has to make an effort and await the results.
Many unknown factors and laws influence the outcome of that effort.
By praying to the Lord, one acknowledges these laws as the natural order inseparable from the Lord, and one acknowledges the Lord as the giver of all results of actions.
GAYATRI MANTRA

Ohm Bhur Bhuva Swaha,
Tat Savitur Varenyam,
Bhargo Devasya Dheemahi,
Dhiyo Yo Nah Prachodayat.

Mother,
Who subsists as all three Kalas (lapses of time: past, present and future),
In all three Lokas (worlds or realms of experience),
And all three Gunas (Universal Attributes: harmony, agitation and inertial):

I pray to you to illuminate my intellect and dispel my ignorance,
Just as the splendorous sunlight dispels all darkness.
I pray to you to make my intellect serene and bright.

The Gayatri Mantra is the most sacred of the Rg Veda Mantras.
Gayatri means, “the savior of the singer.”
Reciting this prayer protects one from harm, dispels the darkness of ignorance and illuminates the world.

If anybody hears even a word of your chant, the result is this:
Even the meanest man can utter the honey-sweet words of your chant and will become a very proficient speaker,
Even the poorest man will find work and enjoy millions of pieces of gold.
When even a word of you chant has this result, the ones who are doing it regularly and methodically, we cannot fathom what the result will be. What mortal can know this?

O, Goddess Bhavani,
The one who rubs his body with ashes and whose food is poison,
Whose body is nude, and who has matted hair, a necklace of cobras and a skull in his hands as an alms bowl,
How does one such as he get the name Jagadeesh, Lord of the World?
What is the reason for this? How did he get such an imminent position?
It is only because of his union with you that his importance has increased.

O, the Mother whose countenance is like the moon!
I do not have any desire for deliverance (moksha).
I do not have any desire for worldly wealth.
I do not have any craving for knowledge.
I also do not want happiness.
All I pray is that the rest of my life may pass in uttering all of your names.

O, Mother! I bow down to you.
I could not methodically do your puja and prayers, time and again I stumbled.
My meditations were never crystal clear, it was as if a veil blocked my vision.
Please help me, that I may reach you.
You bestow on me the greatest grace, which is deserving only of you.
Such a merciful mother can give shelter to such an undeserving son.

Aapatsu Magnah Smaranam Tvadiyam,
Karomi Durge Karunaar Navesi.
Naita Chatatvam Mama Bhaava Yethaah,
Ksudhaatar Shradhaa Jananim Smaranti.

O, Mother! Durga! The ocean of mercy!
I pray to you because all I have around me are difficulties.
I did not pray to you before this.
Please don’t consider this prayer as proof of my wickedness.
The child who is suffering from hunger and thirst only remembers his Mother.

Jagadamba Vichitram Atra Kim,
Paripurnaa Karunaasti Chenmayi.
Aparaadha Parampara Param,
Na Hi Mataa Samupekshate Sutam.

O, Mother of the universe!
I am not surprised, because of your complete grace.
A son may do fault after fault, but the mother never ignores him.

O, Mahadevi, Great Goddess!
There is no sinner like me on this earth.
No one can forgive my sins but you.
Knowing this, please do whatever you think is reasonable.
Please do whatever you think is reasonable.
Please do whatever you think is reasonable.
